108 Navansas of the Zodiac and effects thereof in the context of lost horoscopy

52. Lost Horoscopy
The natal Ayana, other natal factors, position of the querist, personal name, another method, lost horoscopy based on the Moon at query

53. AshtakaVarga
Planetary BhinnashtakaVargas, method of preparation of A.V. charts

54. Effects of AshtakaVarga
Effects of the A.V. of planets from the Sun to Saturn

55. Manifold Births
Chapter 1.

Birth of Horasastra

1. Glory to the Sun-God, whose very breathing causes Creation in this world, with whose rising all the animals (living beings) wake up (from the sleep of their ignorance), whose state at the head (zenith) accentuates all activities (throws the brightest light on ones wisdom) and whose setting (absence, weakness) causes all to sleep. Such Sun-God has his efficacy spread (all over).

2-4. Varaha Mihira in his Horasastra, i.e. Brhat Jataka, stated briefly the essence of the teachings of the learned sages viz. ten divisions of the Zodiacal Sign, Raja Yogas, longevity, effects of planetary periods etc. This could not be done elaborately by him and hence I am conveying in this work such useful essence, as called out from Yavanas etc., rejecting other un-useful portions, which may be appended to the said Brihat Jataka.

5. I, Kalyana Varma, whose fame on account of patronizing Gods and administering villages and cities is brilliant, like that of a female swan in the cage of the universe, who is the king of Vyagrapada region, present this Saravali, an astrological treatise, with a chaste heart.

6. Saravali is a river with chilly water, which has taken its birth in the mountain called Kalyana Varma, to ward off the thirst for astrology of those interested.

Thus ends the 1st Ch. Birth of Horasastra in Kalyana Vamas Saravali

Chapter 2

Meaning of Hora

1-5. The Creator Brahma has written on the foreheads of all living beings their fates, which are deciphered by the astrologers through their pure insight. The first and last letters in the word Ahoratra are removed and the word Hora is thus born and has come to exist. The Zodiac and the planets are therein, as discussed. Some scholars say Horasastra is indicative of effects of ones Karma, i.e. fate. Some call Lagna, or half of a Rasi, as Hora. In practice the science relating to horoscope is called Horasastra. Hora is capable of analyzing the destiny. Barring this Horasastra there is no device to help one earn money, to help, as a boat, to cross the ocean of unexpected situations and to serve, as an advisor in journey.
Thus ends the 2nd Ch. Meaning of Hora in Kalyana Vamash Saravali

Chapter 3

Rasi Description

1-2. At the time of Pralaya (Destruction) the Universe plunged into darkness and was flooded with water, when all of a sudden the Sun-God with his brilliant rays appeared in the Universe. He created all the planets and the 12 months.

3-4. Description of the 12 Rasis. The names of the 12 Rasis are Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces. The Sign Aquarius resembles a man holding a pot, while Gemini is compared to a couple holding Veena and mace. A pair of fish is the imagination about Pisces. Sagittarius is compared to a man having a hip, like that of a horse and holding an arch in his hands. Deer-faced Sign is Capricorn. Virgo resembles a virgin sitting in a boat with a lamp in her hands. A male holding Scales in his hand represents Libra. The other Signs are identical with their names.

5-6. The Limbs of KalaPurusha and their Use. The Signs Aries etc. represent the limbs of Kalapurusha, as under: Aries head, Taurus face, Gemini arms, Cancer heart, Leo stomach, Virgo hip, Libra space below navel and private parts, Scorpio private parts, Sagittarius thighs, Capricorn knees, Aquarius ankles, Pisces feet. If at birth one has benefic planet in a particular Sign, the particular limb will be strong. A malefic makes such a limb weak.

7. Synonyms of Rasis. Kriya, Tavuru, Jutuma, Kulira, Leya, Pathona, Jook, Kaurpika, Tauksha, Akokera, Hridaya Roga and Anthya are the other names given, respectively, to Rasis from Aries onwards.

8. Synonyms for Houses. Riksha, Rasi, Kshetra, Bha and Bhavana are identical names given to a House by the sages.

9-10. Zodiacal Halves, their Lords and Effects. The Rasi Chakra with 12 Rasis is called Bhagana. Six Signs counted from Leo to Capricom consist of Solar Half and the Sun rules this Half-Zodiac. Six Signs in the reverse order from Cancer to Aquarius are Lunar Half and ruled by the Moon. Barring Cancer and Leo, planets from Mars to Saturn get one Rasi each in each Half. If at birth more planets occupy the Solar Half, the native is brilliant and, if more planets are in Lunar Half, he is soft, good and lucky.

11. The Rulers of Rasis and Navansas. Mars, Venus, Mercury, Moon, Sun, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Saturn and Jupiter are the Lords, respectively, of Aries to Pisces. The Navansas for these Rasis are calculated from Aries, Capricorn, Libra and Cancer in their order.
12. Sub-Divisions Essential. The effects of a horoscope should be predicted according to the divisions of Houses. Without knowing the strength of such Lords, one cannot lay even a step forward in the direction of astrology.

13. Vargothamamsa. The first Navansa of a Movable Rasi, the 5th one in a Fixed Rasi and the 9th one in a Common (Dual) Rasi are called Vargothamamsa. Should the natal Lagna be in such Vargothama Navansa, the native becomes an important person in his circle. The rulers of Dwadasamasas start from that Rasi itself.

14. Lords of Decanates and Horas. The Lords of decanates are first Lord of the same Rasi, second Lord of the 5th Rasi therefrom and third Lord of the 9th from the Rasi in question. The first Hora of an odd Rasi belongs to the Sun, while the second one is ruled by the Moon. In the case of an even Rasi the first Hora is ruled by the Moon and the second by the Sun.

15. Lords of Trimsamsas. In odd Signs 5, 5, 8, 7 and 5 degrees are Trimsamsas of Mars, Saturn, Jupiter, Mercury and Venus, respectively, while the arrangement is reverse in even Signs.

16. Lords of Sapthamsas. The Sapthamsas for the 12 Rasis from Aries onwards are, respectively, counted from Aries, Scorpio, Gemini, Capricorn, Leo, Pisces, Libra, Taurus, Sagittarius, Cancer, Aquarius and Virgo. The Lords thereof are those, in whose Rasis they fall.

17. The total of the number of Horas and that of decanates is sixty (24+36) in the entire Zodiac. The figure is increased by 72, if the total of Horas + Navansas is required, i.e. 60+72=24+108=132. Each Rasi has 1800 Kalas (30°, each of 60).

18. Different Vargas. To know any kind of Varga (Hora, Navansa, Drekkana etc.) adopt the following method. Convert the longitude into minutes of arc and multiply by the Varga figure concerned. Divide the product by 1800. The resultant figure will reveal the required Varga.

19. The malefic and benefic effects of such Vargas are explained in detail in the Nashta Jataka chapters (at the end).

20-21. Rasis Benefic and Malefic, Gandanta and its Effects. From Aries onwards alternatively the Rasis are known, as malefic and benefic on the one hand and male and female on the other hand. These are also classified, as Chara (Movable), Sthira (Fixed, Immovable) and DvissaBhava (Ubhaya, Dual, Common) Rasis. The ending portions of Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces are called Gandanta. It is said, that one born in Gandanta will not survive. He will either lose his mother, or he will end the dynasty, i.e. he is the last of his descent and will not have any children. If, however, he survives, he becomes a king with many elephants and horses.

22. Directions of Rasis. The four Rasis from Aries onwards indicate East, South, West and North, while the remaining Rasis repeat in the same way. A journey undertaken by a person towards the direction indicated by the Lagna, or the Moon (at the commencement of journey) yields fruitful results.
23. DigBala and KalaBala. Human Signs, quadruped Signs, Scorpio and watery Signs are, respectively, strong in the directions commencing from the East. Further during night-time quadruped Signs, day-time human, or biped Signs and the second half of Capricom, Scorpio, Cancer and Pisces are strong at the time of daybreak and of nightfall.

24. Gemini, Cancer, Capricorn Aries, Taurus and Sagittarius are night Signs. Leo, Libra, Scorpio, Aquarius, Pisces and Virgo are day Signs. The Signs Cancer, Capricorn, Aries, Sagittarius and Taurus are called Prishtodaya, which rise with hind part. Sirshodaya Signs (rising with head) are Leo, Libra, Scorpio, Virgo, Aquarius and Gemini. The Sign Pisces is Ubhayodaya (rises with both head and hind part).

25. Strength of Rasi. If a Rasi is aspected by its Lord, or by a planet, that is friendly to its Lord, or by Mercury, or by Jupiter, it is said to be strong. Planets other than the above do not lend strength by aspect.

28-31. Additional Synonyms. The 4th (Vesma) and the 8th are called, as Caturasra Houses. The 9th is known, as Tapa, i.e. penance. The 4th has names, like? Sukha (happiness), Jala (water), Patala (nether-world), Bandhu (relatives) and Hibuka. The other names given to the 10th House are Karma (deed), Agna (command), Gagana (sky, zenith) and Meshurana. The 5th and 9th are Trines. The 5th is the only House connected with Dhi, while the 9th is Tritrikona, the Trine of Trine. The 7th House is called Dyuna, Astha (setting), Jaya and Jamitra. The 6th is Shatkona, 3rd is Duschikya and 12th Rippha. Kutumba is the 2nd.

32. Kendra, Apoklima and Panaphara, Effects thereof. The adjoining Houses with reference to Angles (Kendras) are Panaphara. The Houses next to Panapharas are Apoklimas. The planets in Angles give effects in ones boyhood. The effects of planets in Panapharas are felt in the middle age, while the planets in Apoklima give result at the conclusion of the natives life.

33. Upachaya and Anupachaya. The 6th, 10th 11th and 3rd are called Upachaya Houses, while the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 5th, 7th, 8th, 9th and 12th are Anupachayas.

34. Mlatrikonas of Planets. Leo, Taurus, Aries, Virgo, Sagittarius, Libra and Aquarius are the respective Mlatrikonas for the planets from the Sun onwards.

35-36. Exaltation and Fall. Aries, Taurus, Capricorn, Virgo, Cancer, Pisces and Libra, respectively, are the Signs of exaltation for the Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn. These are deeply exalted at 10, 3, 28, 15, 5, 27 and 20 Degrees in the respective Rasis. The Rasis opposite exaltation are the places of debilitation for the planets concerned. And the respective degrees are of deep fall.
37-38. Long, Medium and Short Ascensions of Signs. Pisces, Taurus, Aries and Aquarius are Signs Of short ascension. Gemini, Sagittarius, Cancer and Capricorn are of medium ascension. The long ascension Signs are Scorpio, Virgo, Leo and Libra. The head and other organs of the native will be similar to the Sign ascending at birth and other relative Signs. The planets occupying such Houses will also influence the form and shape of the various organs.

39. Favourable Directions for Journeys. The direction ruled by the Lord of a Rasi becomes Plava direction for that Rasi. This is Yavanas school of thought. If the king undertakes his journey towards such direction, indicated by the Rasi concerned, he attains quick success.

40-41. Colours of Rasis. From Aries onwards the following 12 colours are allotted to the various Rasis, respectively, red, white, green, pink, brown, gray, variegated, black, golden, yellow, deep-brown and white. If an idol of the Lord of the Ascendant is made in the colour allotted and is worshipped, the native will destroy his enemies, just as Lord Indra destroyed the demons.

Thus ends the 3rd Ch. Rasi Description of Kalyana Varmas Saravali Ch. 4.

Chapter 4

Planetary Characters

1-2. Kalapurushas Soul etc. and their Use. The Sun is the soul of the Zodiac personified, the Moon mind, Mars strength, Mercury speech (voice), Jupiter intelligence, Venus comforts, Rahu ego and Saturn grief. If at birth planets indicative of soul etc. are strong, these significations will equally be strong. If these planets are weak, the effects are only meagre. But in the case of Saturn it is different.

3-6. The counting of limbs according to the decanate rising at birth should be identified, as under. If the first decanate rises, count from head. If second, from neck and, if 3rd, from pelvis. The 6 Rasis backwards from the Ascendant denote the left side of the body, while the 6 forward Rasis from Lagna indicate the right side of the body. Should the first decanate of a Sign ascend, the lapsed part of the Ascendant denotes left side of the head and the part to rise yet indicates the right side of the head, the 2nd and 12th denote right and left eyes, respectively, 3rd and 11th right and left ears, 4th and 10th right and left nose, 5th and 9th right and left cheeks, 6th and 8th right and left chins and the 7th left side of the face (area yet to rise) and the 7th right side of the face (portion already descended). If the 2nd decanate rises, neck, shoulder, arms, side, heart, stomach and navel are to be understood in the same order. Should the third decanate rise, pelvis, anus, penis, testicle, thigh, knee, calf and feet will be counted in the same order. The decanates occupied by malefics denote wounds etc., while the ones by benefics indicate marks (moles) on the limbs concerned. Should these planets be in their own Rasi, or Amsa at birth, then the wound, or mole are right from birth. Otherwise these will be cauased later on (in appropriate periods).

7. Planetary Portfolios and their Use.
The Sun and the Moon are said to be the kings. Mercury is the prince, Mars Army chief, Jupiter and Venus ministers, while Saturn is servant. The native acquires such qualities, as of the strongest planet.

8. Planetary Directions.
The Sun, Venus, Mars, Rahu, Saturn, the Moon, Mercury and J upiter are, respectively, the Lords of the directions commencing from the East.

Jupiter, Mercury and Venus are benefics in nature. Saturn, Mars and the Sun are natural malefics. Mercury in the company of malefics and the waning Moon are also considered malefics.

Heli and Bhanu are the other names given to the Sun. The Moon is called Sasi. Kruradrik, Bhomisuta, Ara, Rakta and Vakra are indicative of Mars. Hemna, Vid, Gna and Bodhana denote Mercury. Idya, Ilya, Angira and Jiva are the J upiter names. Asphujit, Sita and Bhrigu means Venus. Manda, Kona, Yama and Krishna are Saturns synonyms. For these planets there are various other names, which should be elicited from other texts.

From the Sun onwards the respective hues of the planets are copper-red, white, blood-red, green, yellow, variegated and black. The deities for these planets are, respectively, Fire, Water, Kartikeya, Vishnu, Indra, Sachi Devi and Brahma. The planets from the Sun onward should be worshipped by the Mantras concerned and, if trips to the respective directions are undertaken one can gain gold, gems, elephants etc.

14. Sex, Caste and Elements.
The Moon and Venus are females. Mercury and Saturn rule neutrals. Males are J upiter, the Sun and Mars. Brahmins are ruled by J upiter and Venus. The Sun and Mars preside over the royal lot. The Moon rules Vaisyas. Saturn rules those of mixed breed, while Mercury presides over Sudras. The five primordial compounds, viz. Fire, Earth, Ether, Water and Air are, respectively, ruled by planets from Mars onwards.

15. Planetary Tastes and Abodes.
The planets from the Sun on are attributed tastes, as acrid, saline, bitter, mixed, sweet, sour (acidulous) and astringent. Their abodes, respectively, are temples, water resorts, fire houses, sports ground, treasury, bed-room and dirty places.

From the Sun onwards the apparels attributed are coarse, new, burnt, water-soaked, neither new nor old i.e. recent, durable and a rag. Similarly copper, gem (?), gold (?), metal alloy, silver (?), pearl (?) and iron are in their order denoted by the Sun etc., ending with Saturn.

17. Periods and Ritus of Planets.
Ayana, Muhurta, Ahoratna, Ritu (season), month, fortnight and year are, respectively, ruled by the planets from the Sun to Saturn. The seasons, viz. Sisira, Vasanta, Grishma, Varsha, Sarat and Hemanta are, respectively, ruled by Saturn, Venus, Mars, Moon, Mercury and Jupiter.

18. Use of these. In the matter of winning enemies, delivery of child, or such questions materialization of the objective concerned will be, as per the period allotted to the Lagna Lord. This should be understood according to the Ascendant passed.

19-20. Lords of Vedas and Worlds. Jupiter rules Rig Veda, Venus Yajur Veda, Mars Sama Veda and Mercury Atharva Veda. Jupiter denotes the Heavens, the Moon and Venus the world of the Manes, the Sun and Mars the World of mortals and Mercury and Saturn Hell.

21. Description and Nature of the Sun. The Sun has curly hair, sharp mind, prominent appearance, majestic voice and is not very tall. His eyes are honey-coloured. He is courageous, steady and of a complexion, which has a mix of red and green. His feet are not conspicuous (small in size). He is bilious and has sturdy bones. He is great and majestic. He has fiery rays and square body and wears saffron-coloured apparels.

22. Description and Nature of the Moon.
She has an auspicious appearance. Her eyes are beautiful. She has mellifluous voice. She is fair in complexion, has an emaciated body, is youthful, tall, curly and short hair, is learned, soft, of Sattvik disposition, beautiful, phlegmatic, amicable to friends, has pure (excellent) blood, is kind, fond of old ladies, fickle-minded, very fortunate and wears clean apparels.

23. Description and Nature of Mars.
The planet Mars is short, his eyes are reddish-brown in colour. He has a strong body. He is as bright, as burning fire. He is not steady in disposition. He has marrow in bones and flesh. He wears red-coloured apparels. He is more intelligent and is courageous. He is an accomplished speaker. He causes injury. He has short and shining hair. He is bilious in disposition and is Tamasic. He is adventurous and wrathful and is skilful in hurting. He is blood-red in appearance.

24. Description and Nature of Mercury.
Mercurys eyes are reddish and broad. He speaks sweetly. His complexion is of green grass. He has strong skin. He is an extremely Rajasic planet. He is clear in his speech and is pure. He has a mixture of the three humours, i.e. phlegm, bile and wind. He remains delighted and has moderate beauty. He is skilful and sinewy. He is agreeable to all in dressing and speech and wears green robes.

25. Description and Nature of Jupiter.
The eyes of Jupiter are somewhat reddish-brown. He is learned in Vedas. His voice resembles that of a lion. He is firm and prominently Sattvik. His physical complexion is akin to pure yellow metal. He has broad and prominent chest. He is always fond of virtues and is modest. He has firm and large eyes and is of forgiving disposition. He wears yellow apparels, is phlegmatic, fat and pre-eminent.

26. Description and Nature of Venus.
The planet Venus is beautiful, has long hands, broad chest and face, is very seminal, splendourous, has dark, short and extended hair, is of complexion, which is a mix of yellow and green, is sensuous, windy and phlegmatic, very fortunate, wears multi-coloured apparels, is of Rajasic disposition, sportive, intelligent, broad-eyed and has prominent shoulders.

27. Description and Nature of Saturn.
Saturn has red and depressed eyes, emaciated body, prominent veins, is indolent, black-bodied and windy in temperament. He is a talebearer. He is muscular, unkind, foolish, has large nails and teeth, is very dirty, impure, Tamasic in disposition, fierce, short-tempered and old (worn out). He adores black apparels.

28-29. Natural Friendship, Neutrality and Enmity between Planets. The Suns friends are Jupiter, Mars and the Moon. The Moons friends are the Sun and Mercury. The Sun, the Moon and Jupiter are friendly to Mars. Venus and the Sun are Mercurys friends. The Sun, Moon and Mars are friendly disposed to Jupiter. Saturn and Mercury are friends of Venus. Mercury and Venus are Saturns friends. The Suns enemies are Venus and Saturn. The Moon has no enemies. Mercury is inimical to Mars, while the Moon is Mercurys enemy. Venus and Mercury are the enemies of Jupiter. The Moon and the Sun are enemies of Venus. Satums enemies are the Sun, the Moon and Mars. If a planet is neither a friend, nor an enemy of another one, there exists neutrality among them.

30. Temporary Friendship and Enmity between Planets.
If a planet is in the 12th, 4th, 2nd, 10th, 11th and 3rd from another planet, then there is temporary friendship between the two. If the position is in the 6th, 7th, 8th, 1st, 5th, or the 9th, then there is temporary enmity among them. (This may be applied to a birth horoscope, horary horoscope, or any such other context)

31. Five Kinds of Considerations of Relationship.
Should there be temporary friendship and natural friendship between two planets, then they become extremely friendly. If there is natural neutrality and temporary friendship, there exists only friendship between two planets. If there is natural enmity and temporary friendship, they are neutral in relationship. Should they be naturally neutral and temporarily inimical, they are only inimical. If there is enmity both naturally and temporarily, then they are greatly inimical to each other.

32-33. Planetary Aspects. Planets lend ? aspect on the 3rd and 10th, half aspect on the 4th and 8th, ? aspect on 5th and 9th and full aspect on the 7th from their positions. Saturn has special full aspect on the 3rd and 10th, Jupiter on the 5th and the 9th and Mars on the 4th and 8th. All planets aspect the 7th fully.

34. Planetary Strengths. To assess the auspicious and inauspicious effects of a planet, its directional, positional, temporal and motional strengths are important, for without these it is considered to be weak.

35. Directional and Positional Strengths.
Jupiter and Mercury have directional strength, while in the Ascendant (East), the Sun and Mars in the 10th (South), Saturn in the 7th (West) and the Moon and Venus in the 4th (North). If a planet is in exaltation, Mlatrikona, own House, friendly House, or own Navansa and aspected by a benefic, it assumes strength. The Moon and Venus are strong in even Rasis, while the rest are so in odd Rasis. This is called positional strength.

36. Temporal and Motional Strengths.
The Sun, Jupiter and Venus acquire strength during day-time, while Saturn, the Moon and Mars become strong during night-time. Mercury acquires vigour at all times. The Hora Bala goes to Hora Lord, Masa Bala (Masa - month) to the Lord of the month, Dina Bala to the Lord of the week-day of birth and Abda (year) Bala is credited to the Lord of the year of birth. Malefics get strength in Dark Half, while benefics become strong in Bright Half. The planet, that is victorious in war, that is in its retrograde motion, or, that is not combusted become strong. The Luminaries get strength in northern course. This is how Satyacharya detailed motional strength.

37. Ayana Bala. Venus, Mars, the Sun and J upiter are strong in Uttarayana, while the Moon and Saturn are strong in Dakshinayana. Mercury is strong in both the cases. This is called Ayana Bala.

38. Drekkana Bala. Male planets are strong in the first decanate, female planets in the third decanate and neutral planets in the second decanate of a Rasi. Planets are strong, only when they are away from the Sun, as per Yavanas.

39. Tribhaga Bala, or Triamsa Bala. The Moon, Venus and Mars get this strength in the first, second and third parts of the night, respectively. This is similarly enjoyed by Mercury, the Sun and Saturn in day-time, while J upiter has it always, irrespective of day, or night.
40. Naisargika Bala (Natural Strength). Saturn, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Moon and Sun are stronger than the other in the ascending order. Should there be similarity in other strengths, then the one with greater natural strength prevails.

Thus ends the 4th Ch. Planetary Characters of Kalyana Varmas Saravali

Chapter 5

Miscellaneous Matters

1. After discussing the Ch. Rasi Prabheda (Ch. 3) and Graha Yoni Bheda, or Graha Gunadhyaaya (Ch. 4) I now explain Misrakadhyaya (Miscellaneous Ch.), which is the most supreme of all.

2-4. Avasthas, or States of Planets. Planets have nine states of being, viz. Dipta (radiant), Svastha (confident), Mudita (rejoiced), Santa (peaceful), Saktta (strong), Nipidita (oppressed), Bhita (alarmed), Vikala (mutilated) and Khala. A planet in its exaltation is said to be in Diptavastha. In its own House, it is in Svasthavastha, friendly House Mud itavastha, in beneficial Vargas Santavastha, with bright rays Saktavastha, in combustion Vikalavastha, if defeated in planetary war, Nipidita, in malefic Vargas Khalavastha and, if in fall, in Bhitavastha.

Notes. There are 27 Graha Samayas, i.e. planetary conditions. These will help us know, as to what a planet is doing at a particular moment with reference to either birth, or query. Such positions reveal specific results. How to calculate these positions and the effects thereof are noted below. Find out the number of Signs from Aries to Ascendant. Again find out in what number of Sign is the planet, for which (Samaya) is required, counted from Aries. Multiply these figures mutually and again the latest product be multiplied by the total number of Dasa period years of the planet, as per Vimsottari Dasha scheme. Divide this by 27 and the remainder indicates Graha Samaya (some scholars, however, advise, that the planets position is to be counted from Lagna instead of Aries. It is wrong counting the planets position from Lagna, as the Sloka clearly says, vide Jyotisharnava Navanitam). Let us assume, that in Virgo Lagna chart the Moon is in Sagittarius. Hence we count six Signs from Aries to Ascendant and get 6. Again from Aries to Sagittarius we get 9. Multiply 9 by 6 to get 54. The Dasha period of the Moon is 10. When we multiply 54 by 10, we get 540. This, when divided by 27, yields no balance and hence the 27th Samaya is denoted.

Now the scheme of Samayases and their effects (1-27). Snana: good family, children, respect, success and position. Vastradharana: precious stones, money, position and clothes. Pundradharana: dear to people, gains in foreign countries, hard work and honour. Upadesa:

5. Effects of a Radiant Planet.
Should a planet be in Dipta state at birth, the native burns his enemies with the fire of his valour. He gathers all kinds of wealth. His (band of) elephants soak the surface of the earth with the juice, or ichor exuding from their temples. (That is the native will own a large number of elephants. See the simultaneous literary ability of Kalyana Varma. A number of such comparisons can be found in this work)

Should a planet be in Svastha state at birth, the native acquires gold, family etc. He will be a justice in a kings employ. He will own houses and will amass grains. His family will prosper.

7. Effects of a Rejoicing Planet.
If a planet is in Mudita state at birth, the native will be pleasingly disposed, will have wife, gold, diamonds etc., will win the entire band of his foes and will enjoy all kinds of comforts in life.

8. Effects of a Peaceful Planet.
If a planet is in Santa, or peaceful state at birth, the native will have peaceful mind, comfort and wealth. He will be a kings minister, will be learned, helpful to others, religious and fortunate.

If a planet is in Sakta state at birth, the native will have wife, clothes, scents, garlands etc. He will be famous, liked by all and have his name spread all-over.

10. Effects of a Hurt Planet.
If a planet is in Pidita (hurt, oppressed) state at birth, the native will be subjected to grief and sickness and will have enemies. He will be deprived of his own people and wander from one country to the other. 11. Effects of an Alarmed Planet. Should a planet be in Bhita state at birth, the native, even, if he were a king with varied paraphernalia, will be troubled by enemies. He will lose his men. He will be defeated and will become poor.

12. Effects of a Mutilated Planet.
If a planet is in Vikala state at birth, the native will be deprived of his place, or position, dirty-hearted, poor and will wander here and there. He will be frightened by his enemies.

13. Effects of a Planet in Khalavastha.
Should a planet be in Khalavastha, the native will grieve in sorrow, due to maintaining his wife
(the native cannot maintain even his wife), will lose all his wealth, will have an impure mind and be never free from miseries.

If a planet is retrograde, while in exaltation, it produces no effect (nothing good will happen). This is the view held by some. Even, if it is in exaltation by its entry in retrograde motion from the next Sign (for example Jupiter entering Cancer from Leo), the effect is same, for it takes unduly long time in such trajectory.

15. Different Effects.
A planet in exaltation is considered highly strong. It is medium in strength in its Mlatrikona Rasi, or own House. Its strength is only nominal, if it be aspected by a friendly planet, or be in a friendly Rasi.

16-17. The elders among Yavanas say, that the Moon is of medium strength for ten days commencing from Sukla Padyami, i.e. first of Bright Lunar Half. During the following ten days (from the 11th day, or Ekadasi of Bright Lunar Half through the 5th day, or Panchami of Dark Lunar Half, or Krishna Paksha) she is exceedingly strong. And during the third ten-day period (from the 6th day, or Shashti of Dark Lunar Half through the New Moon day, or Amavasya) she has very little strength. If at birth the Moon has brilliant rays, is bright circled and full, it makes the native an un-encounterable king.

18. Good Results in Mid-Life.
If at birth the Lord of Moon Sign, or the Lord of the Ascendant, or Jupiter be in Kendra, the native is happy in the middle of his life.

19-20. The effects revealed by various Rasis will correspond to the strengths of their Lords.
Should two planets have identical strength, the one with higher Naisarga Bala will prevail.
According to Chudamani Acharya the Ascendants strength equals that of its Lord.

21-24. Swakshetra, Mlatrikona etc.
In Leo up to 20?, it is the Suns and the rest is his own House. The Moons exaltation zone is the first 3? of Taurus, with the remaining portion being her Mlatrikona. Up to 12? in Aries Mars is in Mlatrikona, the rest is his own House. Mercury in Virgo has the first 15?, as exaltation, the next 5 (15?1-20?), as Mlatrikona and the remaining portion is termed, as own House. In Sagittarius first 10? is Jupiters Mlatrikona, with the rest being own House. The first 5? in Libra is Matrikona of Venus and the balance his own House. Aquarius is Matrikona for Saturn in the initial 20? portion and the last 10? in Aquarius is his own House.

25. Effects of Exalted Planets etc.
If a planet is exalted, it gives auspicious results to full extent. It is futile, if in debilitation. The results are limited in an enemy’s camp. The auspicious effects given by a planet are ? in a friendly House, ? in own House and ? in Matrikona Rasi.

A planet is fully inauspicious, if it is in its debilitation; it is somewhat better in inimical House. Its inauspicious effects are nil, if it is exalted, ? in friendly House, ? in own House and ? in Matrikona Rasi.

27. The planetary combination, that produces Utpata, the planet, that is combust by the Sun, with less brilliance, which is in debilitation, in enemy’s camp, or, that is defeated in planetary war: such a planet not only loses its potency to be auspicious, but also becomes capable of bestowing malefic effects in full.

28-30. Effects According to Exaltation etc.
A planet in exaltation gives all kinds of wealth. It confers ministerial-ship, or leadership over Army, if in Matrikona Rasi. If it is in own House, it gives happiness, money, grains, wealth etc. In a friendly House, it gives fame, splendour, abundant good fortune, long-lasting wealth and also wealth through king. A planet, that is in its own Hora, makes one courageous.

31-33. A planet in its own decanate confers virtues, while the one in own Navansa makes one famous. Courage, wealth and fame are bestowed by a planet occupying its own Sapthamsa. One becomes devout and helpful, if a planet is in its own Dvadasamsa. A planet in own Trimsamsa gives happiness and good qualities. When a planet is aspected by a benefic planet, the native becomes wealthy, famous, fortunate, chief of all, beautiful and happy.

34-35. If a planet is with Ojha, or Yugma Bala (strength by being in male, or female Rasis), the native is worshipped by the public, expert in arts, pleased, immune to sickness and prone to fear of other Worlds. A planet with positional strength gives perennial happiness, friendship, courage, fixity of mind and independent profession, or work.

36-38. A planet with directional strength takes the native to the direction ruled by it and gives clothes, jewels, conveyances etc. And the native is happy in such a direction. A planet with Ayana Bala similarly takes the native to its direction and confers various kinds of wealth apart from fame. In both the cases, the planets should not be combust, or debilitated. If a planet has Cheshta Bala, it sometimes gives kingdom, sometimes respect, sometimes money and yet sometimes increases the fame of the native.

A benefic, if retrograde, is strong and is capable of conferring kingdom. If a malefic is retrograde, it causes grief and purposeless wandering.

40. Auspicious Planets.
A planet with clear rays, or, that is conjunct with the Moon, or, that has won in a planetary war, is capable of bestowing complete happiness and kingdom, that cannot be seized.

41. Diva Bala and Ratri Bala.
A planet, that has Diva Bala, or Ratri Bala, is capable of conferring lands, elephants etc. Such a native defeats his enemies with courage and achieves kingdom and wealth.

42. Effects of Lord of Year etc.
The Lords of the year, month, week and Hora improve two-fold in their Dasas happiness, wealth and fame. That is the Lord of the month gives two-fold results, as against year Lord, the week Lord two-fold of month Lord and the Hora Lord two-fold of week Lord.

43. Effects of Paksha Bala.
A planet with Paksha Bala destroys enemies and confers diamonds, robes, conveyances, wife, gold, land and fame.

44. Effects of a Planet with all Sources of Strengths.
Should a planet have all kinds of strengths stated so far and be bright with unobscured rays, it confers kingdom exceeding the desires of the native.

45. Benefic Planets with all-round Strength.
If at birth benefic planets possess all-round strength, the native will have good habits, be truthful, upright, beautiful, splendourous and be an expert in all deeds, respectful towards the wise and Gods and will be blessed with scents, garlands, robes, ornaments etc.

46. Malefics with all-round Strength.
Should malefics be with such all-round strength at birth, the native will be a miser, will do bad acts, be selfish, jealous of virtuous people, intent on promoting quarrels, wicked, torturous, dirty, ungrateful, slanderous and ugly.

It is boyhood, if a planet is in its own House, or friendly House. In Mlatrikona Rasi, it is in youth and in adolescence in exaltation. It is said to be in old stage, if it occupies an inimical House. A planet in debilitation is in extremis. The corresponding effects are felt in the respective planetary Dashas, i.e. periods. The results for such stages are, respectively, happiness, virtue, kingdom, sickness with debts and death, or expenses.

51-52. Effects of Planets in Odd and Even Rasis.
A planet in odd Rasi with strength makes the native courageous and a warrior. If it is weak in odd Rasi, the native is cruel and dull-witted. A planet in even Rasi gives soft nature, fear for quarrels, love for water, flowers and clothes, good fortune, health and protection of own men.
Thus ends the 5th Ch. Miscellaneous Matters in Kalyana Varmas Saravali

Chapter 6

(Yoga) Karakas
1. Karaka Planets. Planets posited in own House, Matrikona, or exaltation and simultaneously in Angles become mutual Karakas, or significators. Such kind of Yoga Karakas (co-workers) are counted only in regard to Lagnas Angles. This view is held by Acharya Hari.
2. For example Saturn in Libra, while Cancer Ascendant containing Jupiter and the Moon and Mars with the Sun in Aries become mutual Karakas.
3. Planets posited in exaltation, friendly Rasi, own Rasi, or Amsa also become Karakas. The Sun in the 10th, as above, becomes greatly significant. This is Chanakyas opinion.
4. Planets though not in Vargas, like own House, become Karakas, if they are in Lagna, 4th, 10th, or even the 11th. But this view is not acceptable to great sages.

5-6. Effects of Karakas. Even though a person may be born in base strata, he will become chief, if he has Karaka Grahas. One born in royal family without doubt becomes a king in such a case. While analyzing the Yogas, such Karakatwas are along important and effects should be declared only on that basis.

Thus ends the 6th Ch. entitled Karakadhyaya in Kalyana Varmas Saravali

Chapter 7

Planetary Indications
1. Lord of Week-Day etc. The Sun, the Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn rule the week-days etc. Whichever planet becomes the Lord of the first week-day in the month of Aswina in the year of Aswina, will become the Lord of month and year.

2-3. The fourth planet counted from the Lord of the first year rules the second year. Similar counting of fourth Lords for the subsequent years should be made to know the Lords thereof. There are 24 Horas (planetary hours) in each day (from one Sun-rise to the next). The first Hora is ruled by the Lord of the week day, while the subsequent ones are ruled by the Lords of the sixth week-days thereof. Thirty (Savana) days make one (Savana) month. To know the Lord of the week-day in particular month, the months past should be multiplied by 30, increased by one and divided by 7. The remainder represents the Lord of the week-day counted from the earlier week-day Lord.
4. A Savana month has 30 days and each month, viz. Chaitra, Visakha etc., commences with the first day of Bright half and ends with the 30th Tithi (Amavasya).

5-6. Bhava Effects. The good effects relating to a Bhava can be better reaped, if an enterprise relating to that Bhava is started in an Ascendant ruled by the Lord of that Bhava, or, when the Lord thereof is in an Upachaya House, or on the week-day, Hora, year, or month ruled by that Bhava Lord. The good effects will be 25% by year Lord, 50% by month Lord, 75% by Lord of week and 100% by Hora Lord.

7-13. Planets Rulerships. The Sun rules snakes, wool, hills, gold, weapons, poison, fire, medicines, kings, Aryas (foreigners in general), river banks, forest, wood and Mantras. The Moon indicates poets, flowers, eatables, beads, silver, conch, salt, water, arrow, robes, ornaments, females, Ghi, sesamum, oil and sleep. Mars rules blood, copper, Army, red cloth. Mercury minerals, earth, king, destruction, swooning, bile and thieves. Mercury rules Veda, writing, sculpture, medicines, expertise, ministership, speech, jokes, birds, couples, fame, Vanaspathi (a large forest tree, which bears fruit apparently without any blossoms) and gold. Jupiter rules auspiciousness, virtue, physical stoutness, prowess, preceptorship, deputation, city, state (province), gold, bed, conveyance, position, grains, residence and sons. Venus rules diamonds, ornaments, marriage, scents, friends, wreaths, females, cow dung, diagnosis (apart from meaning diagnosis also indicates end, purity, rope to tying up a calf etc.), education, sexual enjoyment and gold. Saturn is Karaka for lead, zinc, black metals, inferior grains, dead relatives, fools, servants, mean women, saleable goods, poor people and self-restraint (apart from meaning self-restraint also means investing with sacred thread, which is in vogue to give second birth to Brahmins).

14-15. Planetary Places. The Sun rules Kalinga (a Coromandel district), the Moon Yavana (Greek, Mohamedan, or European countries), Venus plain river banks, Jupiter Sindhu (Indus), Mercury Magadha (southern part of Bihar), Saturn Saurashtra (Gujarat), Mars Ujjain and the nodes Dravida country (five tribes: Dravida, Karnatak, Gurjara, Maharashtra and Tailanga).

Thus ends the 7th Ch. entitled Karakadhyaya in Kalyana Varma's Saravali.
Chapter 8

Conception

1-3. A Female Menstruation.

Without the knowledge of conception time one cannot understand the effects of the various divisions, like Rasi. That is why I explain below about conception, which is the cause of births of all animals. As a result of Moons transit in Anupachaya Rasis and in aspect of Mars, a female obtains her menses. The Moon is water and Mars is fire. Water produces blood and fire produces bile. When blood is enraged by bile, the women gets her menstruation.

4-7. The menstruation so caused makes the female capable of conception. If the Moon is in Upachaya, it makes the menses defunct for conception. However, if the Moon in Upachaya is aspected by Jupiter, or her friends, or especially Venus, the woman affectionately cohabits with the male. If the Moon is aspected by Mars, the female unites with a person other than husband. The Sun, if aspecting the Moon, indicates a king, while Saturn aspecting denotes a servant. Similar inferences should be made, if the Moon is aspected by malefics only, without aspect of benefics. If the Moon is aspected by malefics, like Mars, then the female gives up her home and becomes a prostitute.

8-10. The 7th House from Lagna at the time of copulation indicates the disposition of the couple. If there is a malefics aspect to the Lagna at the time of copulation, the couple unites angrily and with quarrel. Should it be benefics aspect, then the sexual enjoyment will be (pleasing), as enumerated by Vatasyayana Maharsi. If there be both malefic and benefic aspects on the 7th, the sexual act is mixed in nature. According to ones past deeds, to ripen its fruits the semen enters the womb and conception ensues.

If the transit Sun and Venus be in Upachaya Rasis with strength with reference to the male partners nativity and occupy even Navamsas, there is scope of pregnancy to be caused by the particular intercourse. Similar effects follow, if strong Moon and strong Mars be in Upachaya Rasis in transit with reference to the females horoscope and be in even Navamsas. Alternatively Venus, Sun, Mars and Moon should be in Upachaya Houses in own Amsas, or Jupiter be in Lagna, 5th, or 9th with strength to cause pregnancy.

13. Disposition of Foetus. The child in the womb will be according to the mental disposition of the couple and their desires and according to Tridoshas (bile, phlegm and wind) prevailing.

14-15. Sex of the Child. Should Lagna, Moon, Jupiter and the Sun be strong and be in male Rasis and male Navamsas, birth of a male child be predicted. If they are in even Rasis and even Amsas, predict female child. If strong Jupiter and Sun be in male Rasis, male child will be born. Female child should be expected, if Venus, Moon and Mars are in even Rasis.

16. Twin Birth. If the Sun and Jupiter be in Gemini, or Sagittarius in aspect to Mercury, birth of two male children be predicted. Two female children will be born, if Venus, Mars and the Moon be in Pisces, or Virgo in aspect of Mercury.

17. Male Birth. If Saturn is in odd House other than Lagna, a male child will be born. Such Yogas and strengths at the time of Adhana should be properly assessed to predict birth of male, or female child.

18-20. Birth of Hermaphrodite.

Birth of a hermaphrodite should be declared, if the Sun and the Moon be in odd Rasis and be in mutual aspect, or, if Mercury and Saturn be in mutual aspect from odd Rasis, or, if Mars aspects the Sun, who is in an even Rasi, or, if the Moon is in Lagna in odd Rasi. These are the views of sages. If Mars aspects Mercury in odd Rasi and simultaneously the Moon in even Rasi, same effect follows. Alternatively if Lagna, Moon and Mercury be in odd Rasi and odd Navansa and aspected by Venus and Saturn, eunuch birth is indicated.

21-22. One Male Child and One Female Child to be Born. Should Lagna and Moon be in even Rasis and be aspected by a strong planet, then there are twins in the womb (one male child and one female child). Similar results follow, if the Moon and Venus are in even Rasis, or Common Signs and be strong.

23-26. Birth of Triplets.

The following Yogas prevailing at the time of Adhana lead to births of triplets. Mercury remaining in Gemini Navansa aspecting a planet, who also falls in Common Navansa (a), Mercury remaining in Gemini Navansa aspecting a Sign, which ascends (b), Mercury in Virgo Navansa aspecting a planet falling in Common Navansa (c), Mercury in Virgo Navansa aspecting a Common Sign, which ascends (d), Mercury in Gemini Amsa aspecting a planet in Gemini Amsa, or Sagittarius Amsa (e), Mercury in Gemini Navansa aspecting the Lagna, which falls in Gemini Navansa, or Sagittarius Navansa (f), Mercury in 7th aspecting a planet in Kanya, or Meena Navansa, or aspecting such Lagna Navansa (g). Combinations (a) and (b) lead to birth of triplets - one female and two males. Combinations (c) and (d) cause birth of triplets consisting of two females and one male. Combinations at (e) and (f) cause three male children, while the ones at (g) indicate three female children.

27. Mother, Father, etc.

If births take place in day-time, Venus indicates mother, while the Sun indicates father. In the case of nights the Moon and Saturn, respectively, play these roles. Similarly the Moon denotes mothers sister and Saturn paternal uncle for day-time births, while Venus and the Sun take over these portfolios, respectively, in the case of night births.
28. Effects of such Planets. If the planets denoting father and paternal uncle are in odd Bhavas, their well-being is assured. If the planets denoting mother and maternal aunt are in even Bhavas, their well-being is to be predicted.

The embryo in the womb improves, as under. First month coagulated blood, second mass of flesh, third limbs, fourth bones, fifth skin, sixth hair, seventh movement, eighth feeling of hunger and thirst, ninth excitement and tenth ripens, like a fruit and ready for coming out of the womb. These ten months are ruled, respectively, by Venus, Mars, Jupiter, the Sun, the Moon, Saturn, Mercury, Lord of Nisheka Lagna, the Moon and the Sun. The dispositions of these Lords indicate good, or bad of the respective processes.

32-33. Miscarriage. Should a planet be affected by celestial portents, or defeat by malefic at the time of intercourse, miscarriage may take place in the month ruled by the planet concerned. The Ascendant ruling at the time of intercourse can also become cause of miscarriage. If Saturn and Mars be in the said Ascendant, or the Moon be in a House of Mars, or Saturn, the results mentioned will come to pass.

34. Comfortable Carrying. Should the Adhana Ascendant be occupied by Moon, or should there be benefics in the 5th, 9th, 7th, 2nd, 10th, 4th and malefics relegated to 3rd and 11th aspected by the Sun, the carrying female is safe.

35-41. Adversities to the Pregnant Woman.

If at the time of Adhana the Sun and the Moon are hemmed between two malefics, while the Ascendant has no benefic aspect, the female concerned dies. The same effect prevails, if the said Ascendant and the 7th are occupied by malefics and be without benefic aspect, or, if the said Ascendant is occupied by Saturn and weak Moon aspected by Mars. Again similar effects shall come to pass, if weak Moon and the Sun are in 12th, Mars in 4th, while Venus is between two malefics. Both the child in the womb and its mother leave this world, if malefics occupy the 4th from the said Ascendant, or from the Moon, while Mars is in the 7th, or Lagna. The same result follows, if Mars is in 4th, Sun in 12th and the Moon be decreasing and be with malefic aspect. If the Sun is in Lagna, while the Moon is weak, or, if Mars is in Lagna, while malefics are in 12th and 2nd without benefic aspect, death occurs of the mother along with child. The Sun in the 7th at Adhana, while Mars is in Lagna, takes away the child along with its mother through instruments.

42-43. Progress of Pregnancy.

Should there be aspects from Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, or the Sun to the Lagna, the process of pregnancy goes on well. The embryo develops according to the state of the Lords of various months (in transit). In the third month the pregnant woman develops tastes to eat various things according to the disposition of the various monthly Lords and Lagna Lord and the Yogas caused to them.
44-45. Time of Delivery.
If at the time of Nisheka (i.e. Adhana) the Sun is in a Movable Sign, delivery takes place in the 10th month, if he is in a Fixed Sign, delivery in 11th month is indicated and in a Dual Sign it is in 12th month. If a Movable Rasi ascends at Adhana, delivery takes place in 10th month, a Fixed 11th and Dual 12th.

46-47. The matter of delivery can be guessed through the Vargas of Nisheka Lagna. The natal Moon can be in the 10th from Adhana Moon. This view is held by many Acharyas. According to Badarayana the natal Ascendant will be in the 7th from Adhana Lagna and natal Moon will be in the 7th from Adhana Moon. Since there are several views on this, I explain below a view, which is acceptable to all.

48. View Acceptable to all about Natal Moon.
Note the Dwadasamsa of the Moon at the time of Adhana. When Moon is so many Signs away from her Adhana position (in a month, when delivery is normally possible), delivery will take place.

49. Should a Navansa of Saturn rule the Nisheka Lagna and Saturn be in the 7th, the delivery takes place after three years. If Cancer be the Navansa Lagna with the Moon in the 7th (from Rasi Lagna), delivery occurs after twelve years.

50. Fraction of Day, or Night for Delivery. According to Nisheka Lagna being a day Sign, or night Sign, delivery will be after so much of fraction of night, or day having passed.

51-52. Thus should be understood the possible time of birth in day, or night and the Lagna at birth. In similar manner the difference between sunrise and birth, i.e. natal Ascendant and (week)day, fortnight, Muhurta month etc. should be guessed. Such details relating to birth should first be ascertained and then predictions should be issued with reference to nativity by astrologers.

53-55. Yogas for Eye Defects. If at the time of Adhana (or at birth) the Sun and Moon are in Leo identical with Lagna, the child born will be blind. There should be aspect of Mars and Saturn on Leo. A bubble on the eye should be predicted, if Mars and Mercury aspect the said Sun and Moon in Leo Lagna. I shall further explain Yogas affecting the eyes. Should the 12th be occupied by waning Moon, left eye is destroyed and, if by the Sun, it is the right eye. If, however, benefics aspect (the said 12th and the Sun/Moon), then by (suitable) efforts the eye can be repaired.

56. If malefics are in Rasi Sandhi and the Moon is in Taurus aspected by Mars, Saturn and the Sun, the native born will be dumb. If, however, there is benefics aspect, the person speaks later on.

57. If malefic planets are in Rasi Sandhis, while there is no benefic aspect on the Moon, the native born is dull-witted. Should Saturn and Mars be in a Navansa of Mercury, the birth is with teeth.
58. Should Mercury be in 5th, or 9th from the Ascendant, while all other planets are devoid of strength, the child has 2 faces, 4 hands and 4 legs.

59. If the last portion of Capricorn rises with aspect from Saturn and the Luminaries, the native is short-statured. The same effect prevails, if the Moon is in Cancer identical with Ascendant and aspected by Mars and Saturn.

60. If Pisces rises at birth with aspect from Mars, Saturn and the Moon, the child born is lame. If there is a benefics aspect to the said combination, then relief can be expected after making efforts.

61. Should Mars be in the Ascendant and fall in the ascendant decanate, or a trinal decanate, receiving the aspect of malefics, while benefics are devoid of strength, the child in the womb develops no head, no legs and no hands, respectively.

62. Whatever is stated in this Ch., should be suitably applied to natal Ascendant, if applicable. And the rules stated elsewhere in regard to nativity may be used with reference to Adhana also, if need be.

Thus ends the 8th Ch. entitled Adhanadhyaya in Saravali of Kalyana Varna.

Chapter 9

Conditions at Birth

1. To know the time of delivery I have explained the Adhana Ch. Now I explain the natal Ch., as below.

2. If natal Lagna is in Sirshodaya Rasi, birth is with head foremost and a Prishtodaya Rasi at birth indicates birth with legs foremost. The birth is with hands in such a position, if an Ubhayodaya Rasi ascends. Should Lagna enjoy benefic aspect, delivery would have been comfortable, otherwise difficult.

3-4. The place of delivery will correspond to the Rasi Lagna, or Navansa Lagna at birth. If it is a Dual Rasi, or Navansa, delivery will be on the way. A Fixed Rasi/Ansa indicates delivery in ones own place. Should the Navansa be of the same Rasi, the delivery is in ones own house, otherwise it is otherwise. The delivery will be in the house of father, or mother according to the indicator concerned being strong.

5-7. If benefic planets are in full, then the birth is in an enclosed place, under a tree, or on the banks of a river. Should all planets be together and not aspect Lagna, or the Moon, then the birth is in a thick forest. If a watery Sign is on the Ascendant and aspected by Full Moon from a watery Sign being 4th, or 10th, birth is in water (river etc.) and similar results be predicted, if Lagna and 4th are occupied by benefics and Full Moon is in watery Sign, or in own House.
8-11. If Scorpio, or Cancer ascends with Saturn and is aspected by Moon, birth is in a deep place. This view is held by Yavanas and Maniththa. Should Saturn be in watery Rasi rising and aspected by Mercury, birth is in playground. If the planet aspecting is the Sun, it is temple and the Moon aspecting indicates barren lands. Should an Aranya Rasi (for example Leo) be on the Lagna, the birth is in hills, forest, fortress etc. Should a human Rasi be ascending and is aspected by Mars, it is burial ground, if by Mercury, sculpture home and, if by the Sun, cowshed, royal palace, or temple. If the aspect is from Venus and Mercury, it indicates pleasing location and, if from Venus and Jupiter, it is Brahmins place, or where sacred rites are performed.

12. Should Jupiter be exalted in 10th (Libra Lagna), delivery is in a 2-, 3-, or 4-storied building. If benefic planets are in Saturns Rasi, or Navansa, coinciding with the 4th, or 10th, the delivery is in a veranda, or balcony.

13. To know the direction of the delivery room proceed thus. One of the Dual Signs ascending denotes the quarter (of the direction), in which the room is situated. The other Signs from Aries on indicate the directions of the room.

14. Should there be a (strong) planet in the Angle of a Sign, the direction, represented by that Sign will prevail. If Sagittarius ascends with strength, it is 3-storied building, while Capricorn denotes a spacious house.

15. If Venus is strong at birth, it is a new and painted house. Jupiter in strength denotes a strong house, while Mars indicates a burnt house. The Sun stands for house constructed of wood. It is a new house, if the Moon is strong. Saturn in strength indicates an old house.

16-17. The direction of the planet occupying an Angle denotes the direction of entry for the lying-in-chamber. The planet, that is conjunct with the planet denoting house of birth, indicates the direction, in which another house related to delivery is located. The Sun indicates temples, the Moon watery places, Mars fire-houses, Jupiter treasury, Venus parks etc., Saturn filthy corner and Mercury bedroom etc.

18-20. Now explained is the situation of the cot, on which the delivery took place. The 3rd, 6th, 9th and 12th indicate the four legs of cot. The first two relate to southern side legs and the other two denote the northern side legs. If the Ascendant is aspected by a benefic, the kind of cloth relating to that benefic was spread on the delivery cot. The Ascendant leads to know the direction, in which the mother was having her head. The depression in the cot corresponds to the Common Sign occupied by malefics.

21-23. If the Moon is in her debilitation Sign identical with the 4th, or Ascendant, the birth is on the ground. The number of attendants can be known by the number of planets posited between the Moon and Lagna. The number of attendants inside the chamber is known by the number of planets posited in the invisible half and the number of attendants outside the chamber will correspond to the number of planets in the visible half. If the concerned planets are benefic, the attendant ladies are with attractive features, beautiful and bedecked with ornaments. Malefics similarly indicate, that such females are ugly, unfortunate and dirty. If the planets are of mixed disposition, but with strength, the attending women are in between the said two accounts. All these should be accordingly understood.

24-25. Out of the 12 Rasis the one occupied by the Sun will indicate the portion of the delivery chamber, where light is kept. If it is Fixed Sign, the light burns steadily and, if it is a Moving Sign, it is unsteady. The portion, that expired in Lagna is indicative of the content, to which the wick has burnt already. The quantity of oil in the lamp will correspond to the waxing, or waning state of the Moon.

26-27. There were many lights, if the Sun is aspected by Mars. Should other planets be all weak, light was obtained by burning grass. Should the Moon be in a Navansa of Saturn, or be in watery Navansa, or in the 4th House and be in aspect to, or in the company of Saturn, delivery was in a place of darkness. There is no doubt about this.

28-30. Should the Ascendant be without the aspect of the Moon, the birth is behind the father, i.e. the father was absent from the place. If the Sun is in the 9th identical with a Movable Rasi, the father was in a foreign place. The Sun in the case of day birth and Saturn in the case of night birth, if aspected by Mars, delivery is out of fathers sight. If the said Sun, or Saturn be in a Movable Sign, death of father (in a distant place) should be declared. If the 5th, 6th and 7th from the Sun are aspected, or occupied by malefics, the father was under confinement. Movable, Fixed and Common Signs here indicate confinement, respectively, in foreign place, own place and on the way.

31. Should the 7th House and the Trines be occupied by malefics, the delivery is not without trouble. Benefics in 10th and 4th cause easy delivery in a large room apart from giving wealth.

32-33. The following lead to birth outside wedlock: Moon, or Lagna sans Jupiter aspect; Luminaries being together without Jupiter aspect; Luminaries along with malefics not receiving the aspect of Jupiter; Sun, Moon and Jupiter simultaneously in fall, while Saturn is in Lagna and Lagna, Moon and Venus not being in aspect to Jupiter.

34-36. If the Moon is in 4th, or 7th along with malefics, it is evil to mother. The natives mother dies (immediately after delivery), if there are malefics in 7th from Moon and aspected by Mars. Sun in 10th from the Moon along with malefics indicate death of the mother. The same effect prevails, if Sun is in 5th, or 9th from Venus (?) and with Saturns company, or aspect. If birth takes place during night-time, while Saturn occupies 9th, or 9th from the Moon, the mother soon leaves the world. For a day birth, if Mars is 9th, or 9th from Venus and aspected by malefics, the mother dies (early).

37-40. If Mars and Saturn join in 5th, or 9th from Ascendant, while the Moon is in 7th, the child is forsaken by the mother. Jupiter's aspect in that case bestows happiness and long life. The child given up dies, if the Moon is in Lagna and Mars in 7th in aspect to malefics. Mars and Saturn in 11th bring similar effects. Should a benefic aspect such combinations, the child is rescued by the respective relative. Both malefics and benefics aspecting indicate death in the hands of others. Saturn and Mars joining in the same Ansa indicate, that the child will be forsaken by the mother. Mars in 7th from the Ascendant in aspect to Saturn produces similar effects.

41. The child acquires the qualities corresponding to the benefics aspects. Should the Sun be strong, it resembles the father. If the Moon be so, resemblance is that of the mother.

42. When Leo, Aries, or Taurus rises with Mars, or Saturn, there will be coil around the limb, as indicated by the Navansa Lagna Rasi.

43-44. If the Lagna falls in a decanate of Mars, or Saturn, while malefics, or Moon occupy Lagna, with benefics relegated to 2nd, or 11th denote, that the child was born with navel cord coiled around. Should the Sun be in a Quadruped Sign, while others with strength remain in Dual Signs, it indicates, that twins were born coiled by same navel cord.

45-46. The physical appearance will correspond to the Navansa Lagna, or the strongest of planets. It may also correspond to the Lord of the Navansa occupied by the Moon. If many are strong, appearance and complexion will be mixed. Race, caste and country of birth should be considered, while estimating features and character of a person.

47. Sages say, that the nature of the native will correspond to the Trimsansa occupied by the Sun at birth.

48. Other information must be understood according to the friendship, enmity and debilitation, exaltation, or placement in between of the planets at birth.

49. If weak Moon be with malefics, mothers death takes place, while the Sun being so causes fathers death. These planets indicate sickness (to the concerned parent), if aspected by both benefics and malefics. Benefics, however, cause auspiciousness.

50. The Moon, being bright, if be in her exaltation Rasi, or in her own Rasi along with Jupiter and Venus in aspect to Mercury, or the Moon in 5th is capable of giving extreme auspiciousness in respect of the natives mother. The Sun so placed proves auspicious for father.

Thus ends the 9th Ch. entitled Janma Vidhanadhyaya of Kalyana Varnas Saravali

Chapter 10

Evils at Birth

1. In the absence of knowledge of longevity, attempts to know other information are futile. So I explain below Arishtas (evils) in order to determine longevity.
2. Male planets are strong in odd Rasis, bright lunar half and day-time. Female planets are strong in even Rasis, dark lunar half and night-time.

3. There are three kinds of evils, explained by astrological expounders. These are preordained, accidental and Yogaja (arising of planetary combinations). The third kind is dealt with below, while others are explained later on.

4. Should Jupiter be in 8th and in a House of Mars and aspected by Sun, Moon, Mars and Saturn, the child dies in 3 years.

5. If Saturn is retrograde in a House of Mars, while Moon is in 6th, 8th, or an Angle and aspect Mars, the child born lives for two years.

6-7. If Saturn joins Sun and Moon at birth, the life-span is only nine years, according to Brahmasaunda. Should Mars, Sun and Saturn be in Taurus identical with 8th, the native lives for one month even though Lord Yama may try to save him.

8-9. Even, if there be a single malefic in 8th House, owned by Venus and aspected by other malefics, the native lives for one year only in spite of the fact, that he may drink nectar. If Venus is in 12th, 6th, or 8th, owned by Sun, or Moon and is aspected by all benefics, the life-span is six years.

10-11. If Mercury occupies Cancer identical with 6th, or 8th from Ascendant and is aspected by the Moon, life is only up to 4. The efficacious Raja Yugas expounded by Yavanas may produce persons of high descent. Even such children are subject to premature end in this case.

12-13. If the birth star is identical with the one, in which Ketu rises, the native lives only for two months. Should the Sun be in 10th House identical with that of Mars, or Saturn and aspected by strong malefic, the native faces immediate death.

14-15. Should the Ascendant fall in Nigala, Sarpa, Pakshi, or Pasa decanate and be occupied by malefic planets, without the aspect of the decanate Lord concerned, the native lives up to 7 years only. If Rahu is in an Angle and aspected by malefics, the longevity is only 10, while, according to some, it is 16.

16-17. If malefics are Angles and Trines, while benefics are relegated to 6th, 8th and 12th, one born at the time of sunrise dies at once. If the three planets, viz. the Lords of Navansa Lagna, Moon Sign and natal Ascendant, are combust, the person lives just for a few years.

18. If the 6th is occupied by the Ascendant Lord, death occurs in the year corresponding to Rasi concerned. If the occupant is the Lord of rising decanate, death occurs in the month corresponding to Rasi concerned and, if it is Lord of Navansa Lagna, the Rasi concerned causes death in so many days.

19. If Saturn is in the Ascendant in aspect to malefics, longevity is only 16 days. If Saturn in the Ascendant is in the company of malefics, death occurs in a month and, if he is alone in the Ascendant without malefic connections, the child lives for one year.
20-22. If weak Moon is in the Ascendant excepting Cancer, Taurus and Aries and is aspected by malefics, the child passes away (soon). The Moon in 6th, or 8th, if aspected by malefics, causes death in one year, while, when aspected by benefics, she kills in the 8th year. Should the aspect be from both benefics and malefics, the life-span is only 4. This should be decided according to the strength of such bodies.

23-24. Should benefics be in 6th, or 8th and be aspected, or conjoined with retrograde malefic, without the aspect of benefic, the child lives only for one month. If malefics are in 12th, 2nd, 6th and 8th, without connection of benefics, the child dies in 6, or 8 months.

25-26. If the Lords of Lagna and the Moon Sign are together in 6th, 8th, or 12th and be combust, the child dies in the year corresponding to the Rasi. Should the Lord of the Ascendant be in 7th, defeated by a malefic and be without a benefics aspect, death occurs in a month. Similar clues should be drawn from Moon and her dispositor.

27-28. If Moon is conjoined with Mars and Sun and be in 2nd, or 5th unaspected by benefics, the child doubtlessly dies in the 9th year. Sages declare, that, if the Ascendant Lord is in 8th in aspect to all the malefics, who are with strength, the child dies in the fourth month.

29-30. If the Lord of Moon Sign, the Sun and his son are in 8th, the child dies in the year corresponding to the Rasi concerned. Should the Moon be with malefics, be in 12th, 8th, 6th, or Ascendant and be not aspected by benefics, while benefics are non-angular, the child dies at once.

31-32. If malefics are in the oriental half of the Zodiac (from 10th to 4th Bhava Madhya) with benefics relegated to the occidental half, birth in Scorpio Ascendant causes what is Vajra Mushti Yoga. One born in such a Yoga does hardly live. According to Yavanas, if weak Moon is in Lagna, while malefics are angular, or in 8th, (instant) death is caused.

33-34. One born in twilight does not live long, if the Ascendant falls in lunar Hora, while malefics are posited in the end of the Rasis, which are angular, along with the Moon. Should the Moon be amidst two malefics and be in 7th, 4th, or 8th, even Gods cannot save one from (instant) death.

35-36. If the Moon is hemmed between two malefics, be in the Ascendant, 7th; or 8th and be in aspect to weak benefics, (infant) death follows. Should malefics be in 7th and 8th and be aspected by malefics, the child dies along with its mother. If there be aspect from benefics in such a case, the mother becomes sick (there will not be immediate death).

37-38. If the Moon be eclipsed and be in the Ascendant along with malefics, while Mars is in 8th, the child quits the world along with its mother. The mother dies of weapons along with the child, if it be a solar eclipse with Sun and malefics in the Ascendant, while Mars is in 8th. Should weak Moon be in the Ascendant and malefics be angular, or in 8th; without benefics aspect, death is imminent. This view is of Satyacarya.
39-40. The undermentioned combinations cause death soon. Sun in 7th, while Saturn, or Mars is in Ascendant. Sun in Ascendant, while Saturn, or Mars is in 7th. Saturn, or Mars joining Moon and she not aspected by benefics. Malefics in Ascendant, 8th, 7th, 4th and 10th, the Moon be decreasing in 12th.

41-42. Moon, Sun, Saturn and Mars are capable of inflicting infant death, if they are together in Ascendant, 12th, 9th, or 8th, unaspected by Jupiter. If Ascendant is tenanted by Sun, or Moon, while malefics are in Trines, or 8th and be not aspected by, or conjoined with benefics, according to Yavanas, infant death is caused.

43-44. Venus joining the Sun and Saturn causes instant death. This combination doubtlessly gives death in the 9th year, if aspected by Jupiter. Death in childhood occurs, if Moon is conjoined with Mars, Sun and Saturn, provided unaspected by benefic planets.

45-46. If Sun is aspected by Mars and Saturn in the case of a day birth, it soon leads to death of the father. The Sun joining malefics (for day birth) also indicates the same effect. The childs father and paternal grandfather will face early death, if Sun is in Ascendant along with Mars and Saturn, but unrelated to Mercury, Jupiter and Venus.

47-48. If Sun is hemmed between two malefics, or is conjoined with malefics, one born during day-time loses his father early without any doubt. The childs father at once quits the world, if planet Sun has Mars and Saturn in 8th from him unaspected by benefics.

49-50. If at birth Sun is in a Movable Rasi along with malefics, the father of the child dies of poison, weapons etc. Malefics (or even a malefic) in 8th, 9th, or 7th from Moon can cause death of the child along with its mother.

51-52. The father of the child was away at the time of birth, if Sun is in a Movable Sign, in case of day birth and aspected by Mars. Saturn in a Movable Rasi and in aspect to the Sun in the case of night birth denotes same results.

53-54. In the case of night birth, if Saturn is in a Movable Sign along with Mars, the father undoubtedly dies in a distant place. If Sun joins Mars and Saturn in any Rasi, the father dies before the birth of the native.

55-56. If malefics are disposed in Ascendant, 8th, 7th, 6th and 12th, the child dies along with its mother. There is no doubt in it. Should only 6th and 8th be occupied by malefics, the mother does not die, but the child dies. The reverse is true, if malefics are in Ascendant, 8th and 7th.

57-67. Mars, or Saturn in 12th can deprive the native of his eyes. Saturn right and Mars left eye. The native becomes blind, if Sun and Moon are in 12th, while 6th and 8th are occupied by malefics. Even, if one among the Sun and the Moon is in 12th, damage to eye is indicated (Sun affects the right eye, while Moon affects the left one). If Rahu is in Ascendant, while Sun is in 7th, the native is blind by birth. Should 2nd and 12th be occupied by Moon and Sun, while malefics are in 8th and 6th, the person born is blind. If Moon is in 6th, Sun in 8th, Saturn in 9th and Mars in 2nd; simultaneously, the native is blind. Should Moon be in the company of Mars and Saturn and be posited in 8th, or 6th, the native looses his eyesight due to bilious and phlegmatic imbalances. Should the said Moon be conjunct other malefics, apart from Mars and Saturn, in this combination, if the House involving Moon is the 8th, the damage is to the right eye and, if it be the 6th, the left eye is damaged. Should, however, this combination be aspected by benefics, the damage is not at birth, but will be later on. If Moon is in 8th, or 12th along with Saturn and be aspected by malefics, eyesight is lost due to windy and phlegmatic complaints (here also 8th indicates right, while 12th the left eye). And, if benefics aspect the said Moon in 8/12th, the loss is not at birth, but in the course of time. If Moon is thus associated with Saturn and Sun (in several ways), damage to eyes is to be predicted.

68-70. YOGAS ADVERSE FOR EARS. Moon in 11th, 3rd, or Ascendant along with malefics causes defects of the ears. If she is aspected by malefics, the effect is along with birth (i.e. immediate). Should 9th and 5th be aspected, or occupied by malefics, ear defects at the time of birth exist. Malefics in 9th affect the right ear, while in 5th they damage the left ear. Benefics aspecting, or occupying these Houses cause on the other hand good in respect of ears.

71-73. Whatever Rasi is indicative of a disease shall be treated, as the limb to be afflicted by such disease. The Moon Sign can also be similarly considered. Benefics cause birth marks on the right, or left side of the body, according to their occupation. Should malefics aspect these benefics, loss of concerned limb should be expected. Malefics and benefics according to their association with Moon and the visible and invisible halves (counted from Lagna) cause bad and good results in this respect.

74-76. DEATH IN FEW DAYS. The Sun and the Moon in the 3rd House identical with Pisces cause illness from birth and the child lives only for three days. If the Moon is in the 10th from the Ascendant, while the Sun singly, or with all others is in the 3rd asterism from that occupied by the Moon, the child lives only for one night. The life span is just one week, if the Sun and Mars are in the 7th from the Moon.

77-82. EFFECTS OF TIME OF STARTING OF DISEASES.

The following combinations prevailing at the time of a disease cause death in so many days, as indicated: 1) Malefics in 4th and 8th from Lagna-10 days. 2) Malefics in 2nd and 12th from Lagna10 days. 3) The Sun in 5th, while Moon is in 9th from the Ascendant12 days. 4) The Moon in Angle, while the Sun is in 4th, or 8th 3 nights. 5) The Moon in the 4th, while the Sun is in the 6th 18 days. 6) The Sun in the 5th, or 9th from the Moon20 days. 7) The Sun in the Ascendant, or the 8th and in aspect to Saturn and Mars will finally inflict death on the patient.

83-88. Mars in Lagna, or other Angles, while Jupiter is not so causes death. The Sun in Lagna, Jupiter non angular and malefics in the 8th cause immediate death. Similar results should be predicted, if the Moon is in the Ascendant, while Jupiter is in a place other than Angles and malefics are in the 8th. Malefics in the 7th from the rising decanate, while the Moon is in the Ascendant will also cause death at birth. (In this case, the Moon shall be in the rising decanate, while malefics shall occupy the 19th decanate). A majority of planets in the 8th primarily malefics indicate longevity ranging from seven days to one month. A dead child is born, if Saturn is in the Ascendant, while Mars is in the 8th, with Jupiter being not in an Angle.

89-90. MALEFICS IN RISING DECANATE AND TRINES THEREOF. Saturn in the rising decanate, while a malefic is in the 5th and another in the 9th, the latter two should be exactly on trinal decanates, as Saturn indicates disease. Mars in the place of Saturn in the said combination denotes (infant) death, while the Sun so placed indicates disease, deformity, or death.

91. DEATH. If at birth Mars is in the Ascendant, while Venus is in an Angle, Mars causes death, when he resumes the same point in the next round in his transit.

92. If Jupiter is in a Trine, Ascendant Lord in the Ascendant and Mars in an Angle to one of them, it can cause immediate death.

93-97. EXCEEDINGLY LONG LIFE. The native lives for 108 years, if the 8th House is not occupied, while Ascendant is free from malefic residence and Jupiter is in an Angle. A span of over 108 years is granted, if Jupiter and Venus are in an Angle, while there are no malefics in Trines and the 8th. Predict 120 years of life, if Venus is in the Ascendant, Jupiter is in an Angle other than the Ascendant and the 8th House is not occupied by malefics. Similar span of life is given, if Jupiter is in Cancer Ascendant along with Venus, or the Moon, while the 8th House is not occupied. If Angles, Trines and the 8th House are not occupied by malefics, one's longevity is comparable to that of Gods.

98. ELAPSED LONGEVITY. Weak Moon along with malefics, if posited in the 8th, 7th, 12th, 1st, 5th, or 9th and un-aspected by benefics will only grant elapsed longevity, i.e. immediate death.

99. TIMING INFANT DEATH. When the child with powerful infant mortal combinations is in its first year, death will come to pass, if the Moon with strength passes over the natal position of another qualified planet, or on its own natal position (i.e. Janma Rasi), or natal Ascendant. In all these cases, the Moon should be aspected by malefics.

100-103. DEATH IN CHILDHOOD. Any one group of the following planets joining in one House will cause death in five years: d) The Sun, the Moon, Mars and Jupiter, 2) Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and the Moon, 3) The Sun, Saturn, Mars and the Moon. Even, if a child is on the Gods laps, it will die in 11th year, if the Sun conjunct Mercury is aspected by malefics. Death within 7 years of age will occur, if the Sun is in the Ascendant along with Mars and Saturn, while declining Moon is in the 7th House in a House owned by Venus, provided this combination is not aspected by Jupiter. Should the Sun and the declining Moon be in Angles and be conjunct with, or in aspect to Mars and Saturn, the child has a longevity of only 4 years. In these cases, i.e., where child mortality is indicated, there is no use of making any calculations.
104. DEATH IN THIRD YEAR. If waning Moon, or Lagna Lord be in the Marana Pada and aspected by all the malefics, but not benefics, the length of life is only 3 years.

Notes: Marana Pada has been interpreted, as 8th House by some. But it actually means the Rasi counted so many Signs away from the Rasi, in which the 8th Lord is, as he is away from the 8th. Note how many Signs away the 8th Lord is from the 8th. So many Rasis away from the 8th Lords Rasi is Marana Pada.

105-107. If all benefic planets are in the visible half of the Zodiac, while malefics are relegated the invisible half Rahu be specifically in the Ascendant at the time of birth, the longevity is only 3 years. Should Rahu be in the 7th House in exclusive aspect to the Luminaries and be un-aspected by others, death before the age of 12 is denoted.

108-110. If Rahu is in Aquarius, Leo, or Scorpio identical with the Ascendant and is aspected by malefics, the life span is only 7. If Dhuma Ketu rises followed by fall of meteor and strong gale and, if birth occurs in Raudra Muhurta, or Sarpa Muhurta, the subject invites early death.

111-114. FATEFUL DEGREES OF THE MOON. The Moon is capable of inflicting death, if she is in any of the following degrees at birth: Aquarius 21, Leo 5, Taurus 9, Scorpio 23, Aries 8, Cancer 12, Libra 4, Capricorn 20, Virgo 1, Sagittarius 18, Pisces 10 and Gemini 22. If the Moon is in such degrees at birth, death is indicated in the corresponding year and the native cannot be protected by even God Yama.

115-118. Assess the strengths of Ascendant, Angles etc., at birth. Jupiter is life spirit of all natives. The time of death should be known through Jupiter. If he is in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 7th, 9th, 10th and 11th, or Ascendant, he proves fatal at the age of 5, 10, 15, 20, 30, 40 and 50, respectively.

Thus ends the 10th Ch. entitled Evils at Birth in Kalyana Varmas Saravali

Evils and the Moon

1-2. I now explain the combinations, that are capable of nullifying the said evils, for these are important in the Science of Horoscopy and initially explained below are the Yogas to counteract the evils emanating from, or afflicting the Moon, as done by expounders, like Lord Brahma.

3-4. If the Moon is Full and is aspected by all heavenly bodies, all evils are countered, just as lawbreakers are destroyed by the king. Venusaspecting the Full Moon, while the latter is in friendly divisions is capable of obstructing evils, just as abdominal remedies are able to cure windy diseases.

5-6. Should the Moon be in her deep exaltation and be aspected by Venus, evils are countered, just as phlegm and bile are controlled by induced vomiting. If the Moon be in the divisions of benefic planets and be aspected by benefics, she will not prove evil though she may be waning, just as nutmeg bark treats dysentery.

7-8. Benefics in the 7th, 8th and 6th from the Moon remove all adversities, just as madness is removed by Kalyana Grita. Same is the case, if the Moon is conjunct benefics and be in the decanates owned by benefics, just as saline water controls ear diseases.

9-10. Should the full Moon be in a benefics Dwadasamsa, all evils are removed, just as buttermilk checks piles. If the Moon occupies a benefics Rasi and receives the Lagna Lords aspect, adversities for short-life are counteracted, as even a noble housewife can destroy the fame of the descent, if she seeks union with other men.

11-12. Even though the Moon may be in a House owned by a malefic, or in such Vargas, she does not prove evil, if aspected by her dispositor. This is comparable to a miser protecting his money. If the dispositor of the Moon is strong and be in aspect to benefics, or friendly planets, the Moon is not capable of harming, in comparison to a timid person, who cannot face others even though he may be in war field.

13-14. If the Lord of the Moon Sign is in Lagna and is aspected by all planets, all evils are removed, just as the ointment of holy fig and bamboo bark removes whiteness. The Moon in her exaltation, own, friendly, or benefic Vargas, aspected by benefics, but not malefics counteracts all- evils, as the Sun does remove fog.

15. Just as quartan fever is removed by inhaling Agashya flower, all evils are checked by Mercury and Venus in the 12th of Moon, malefics in the 11th and Jupiter in the 10th.

16-17. Should the Moon be in the 6th, 3rd, 10th, 11th, or 4th from the natal Ascendant and be aspected by benefics, evils are removed, as though a king destroys his opponents. The Lord of the Moon Sign is singly capable of removing all evils, if he is with full strength and aspected by benefics, similar to an inebriated tiger throwing away a thousand deer.

Thus ends the 11th Ch., entitled Evils and the Moon in Kalyana Varmas Saravali.
Chapter 12

Evils Canceled at Birth

1. A very brilliant Jupiter (i.e. not being devoid of rays) is capable of counteracting all evils, if he is in the Ascendant, just as a single sincere Prostration before Lord Vishnu, the wearer of Sudarshana Chakra, relieves one of the greatest sins.

2. Benefics with strength and malefics without it remove all evils, if Ascendant falls in a benefics House and is aspected by benefics, just as those, who worship planets will have no sins left to their liability.

3-5. If malefics occupy the Rasis and Amsas of benefics (i.e. such benefic divisions) and be in aspect to benefics, evils are removed, just as a dejected lady remains away from her husband. Should Rahu be in the 3rd, 6th, or 11th from the Ascendant and be aspected by benefics all evils are destroyed, as though wind carries away a heap of cotton with it. If all planets be in direct motion and in Seershodaya Signs, all blemishes are removed, just as ghee is burnt out in fire.

6-7. A benefic planet victorious in planetary war at birth and essentially aspected by another benefic, destroys all evils, just as a gale can uproot trees. If a planet has a halo (in the sky) and is aspected by a malefic, evils are countered, just as the solar eclipse day bath in Kurukshetra does.

8-9. If there is a pleasant breeze at the time of birth and the sky is with pleasing clouds and the heavenly bodies be with splendour, the evils disappear in a fillip, just as rains settle dust. If birth takes place, when Agasthya and others of Saptharshis (Alfa Carini, or Great Bear) rise, all evils are destroyed, just as darkness disappears, when the Sun rises.

10-11. Rahu in the Ascendant identical with Aries, Taurus, or Cancer protects the native from the clutches of all evils, just as a pleased king forgives the crimes of a person. If all the planets (not of course the nodes) are in their own decanates, all evils are removed, just as the Sun removes darkness.

12. If at birth many planets are capable of giving benefic results, even then there is no blemish, just as the king gets success in journey undertaken, when the Moon is in a Trine to the Sun.

13. Should Jupiter and Venus be in Angles, evils arising out of the various Rasis (i.e. Bhavas) and of the Moon are countered. And the native lives for hundred years.

14. If Jupiter and the Moon be in Cancer, identical with 4th, 10th, or the Ascendant, Mercury and Saturn be in Libra, while others are in the 11th, 3rd and 6th, one has illimitable longevity.

15. I have thus explained the Yogas, that are capable of countering the evils, as laid down by our great ancestors May the astrologers please the king with the knowledge of these.

Thus ends the 12th C h. entitled Cancellation of evils at birth in Kalyana Varnas Saravali.
Chapter 13

Lunar Yogas

1. SUNAPHA, ANAPHA AND DURUDHURA YOGAS. Excepting the Sun, any other planet in the 2nd from the Moon causes Sunapha Yoga, in the 12th Anapha Yoga and in both the 2nd and the 12th Durudhura Yoga.

2. KEMADRUMA YOGA. Kemadruma Yoga is formed, if at least one of the said three Yogas (viz. Sunapha, Anapha and Durudhura Yogas) is not present, or, if the Moons Angles are devoid of planets, or, if she is un-aspected by all the planets. Such Yoga causes extreme difficulties.

3. DIFFERENT PERMUTATIONS. By all possible permutations and transmutations, one can see 30 kinds of Sunapha Yoga, 30 kinds of Anapha Yoga and 180 kinds of Durudhura Yoga.

4. EFFECTS OF SUNAPHA YOGA. One born with Sunapha Yoga will be wealthy, will have self-made prowess (or will reach an exalted position of his own efforts), be very virtuous, be learned in Shastras and their meanings, be very famous, virtuous (like Lord Rama), be peacefully disposed, happy, be a king, or a minister and be highly intelligent.

5. EFFECTS OF ANAPHA YOGA. One born in Anapha Yoga will be eloquent in speech, magnanimous, virtuous, will enjoy food, drink, flowers, robes and females, will be famous, calm in disposition, happy, pleased and will possess a beautiful body.

6. EFFECTS OF DURUDHURA YOGA. One born in Durudhura Yoga will be famous on the earth for his speech, wisdom, valour and virtues. He will enjoy freedom, comforts, wealth and conveyances. He will be liberal, but will come to grief by maintaining his family members. He will have good behaviour.

7. EFFECTS OF KEMADRUMA YOGA. The native with Kemadruma Yoga will be deprived of life, drinks, food, residence, robes and friends, though he may belong to regal scion. He will suffer from poverty, grief, sickness and be dirty. He will live by hard labour, be wicked and be inimically disposed to one and all.

8-9. OTHER KIND OF SUNAPHA ETC. The kind of Sunapha Yoga etc. arising from the Moons Angles are (also) important. These Yogas give effects according to the state of the Moon (i.e. depending on her rays, being Full, New etc.). The strength of the planets, viz. Mars etc., causing these Yogas, natives country and the race he belongs to must be properly understood before evaluating Sunapha etc.

10-11. RESULTS OF SUCH YOGAS CAUSED BY MARS ETC. If Sunapha Yoga is caused by Mars (by being in the 2nd of the Moon), the native will be valorous, wealthy, cruel in speech, be an Army chief, will be fierce, torturous, proud and inimical. If Mercury be the cause of Sunapha Yoga, the native will be expert in Vedas, Shastras and music. He will be virtuous and a poet. He will be high-minded, intent on thinking of good for all and will possess a brilliant physique.

12-14. Should Jupiter cause Sunapha Yoga. a person so born will have high learning, will be famous and himself be a king, or dear to a king. He will have a good family and have plenty of wealth. Venus will give wife, lands, wealth, prowess, quadrupeds and valour. The native will further be honoured by king and will also be courageous. Should Saturn be in the 2nd of the Moon causing Sunapha Yoga, the native will be skillful, be worshipped by the people in his village and city and will have wealth galore. He will be devoted to his work and be brave.

15-19. ANAPHA YOGAS EFFECTS GIVEN BY MARS ETC.

If Anapha Yoga is caused by Mars-being in the 12th from the Moon, the native will head a band of thieves, will be arrogant in disposition, be honoured, fond of war, given to anger, good, praiseworthy, good-bodied and proud. If by Mercury, the native will be an expert in singing, dancing and writing, will be a poet and an able orator. He will be conferred honours by tile ruler, will have a brilliant body and will perform famous deeds. Should the Yoga be caused by Jupiter, the native will be majestic, strong, intelligent, fond of assembly, famous through a king and will be a poet. Venus causing this Yoga gives an exceedingly great liking for women. The native will be dear to the king and will enjoy pleasures. He will be splendidous, famous and will have abundant gold. If Saturn causes this Yoga, the subject will be broad-shouldered, be a leader, be indired to keep up his commitments, be rich with quadrupeds, devoted to an infamous lady and be virtuous.

20. EFFECTS OF DURUDHURA YOGA CAUSED BY MARS ETC. If Durudhura Yoga is caused by the pair of Mars and Mercury, the native will be a liar, be very wealthy, expert, very wicked, greatly miserly, addicted to an old lady and be chief in his race.

21. If Durudhura Yoga is caused by Mars and Jupiter, one will be famous by his deeds, be mighty (or wealthy), inimically disposed to many and disposed to anger, will protect his men and will gather money.

22. If the Moon has Venus and Mars on either side, the native will have a virtuous wife, will be fortunate, argumentative, pure, skilful, will like doing exercises and be bold in war.

23. If Saturn and Mars flank the Moon, the native will be the husband of a bad lady. He will save a lot of money. He will have vices. He will be given to anger and be a tale bearer. He will win over his enemies.

24. Should Jupiter and Mercury be on either side of the Moon, the native will be virtuous, learned in Shastras, garrulous, be a good poet, be wealthy, capable of making sacrifices and be famous.

25. If Durudhura Yoga is caused by Mercury and Venus, the person will be a sweet speaker, be fortunate, splendidous, beautiful, be fond of dance, singing etc., be served, valiant and be a minister.
26. If Mercury and Saturn flank the Moon, the native will move from one country to the other to earn money. He will not be much educated, will be worshipped by others, but be inimical to his own men.

27. Should Jupiter and Venus cause this Yoga, by being on either side of the Moon, the native will be courageous, intelligent, will have political wisdom, will possess gold and gems, will be famous and be in the employ of a king.

28. If Jupiter and Saturn be such planets, as to cause Durudhura Yoga the native will be happy, will have knowledge of politics, will be sweet in speech, learned, peaceful, wealthy and good looking.

29. One, who has Durudhura Yoga caused by Venus and Saturn will conduct himself, like an old man (i.e. so mature), be chief in his race, skilful, dear to women and will have plenty of money. He will be honoured by the king and gather abundant wealth.

30. LUNAR YOGAS FROM THE SUN. If the Moon is in an Angle from the Sun, little effects will be felt in regard to money, wisdom, skill, learning and modesty. These are medium, if the Moon be in Panaphara (i.e. 2\(^{nd}\), 5\(^{th}\), 8\(^{th}\) and 11\(^{th}\)) and exceedingly good in Apoklima (i.e. 3\(^{rd}\), 6\(^{th}\), 9\(^{th}\) and 12\(^{th}\)).

31. MOON IN VISIBLE AND INVISIBLE HALVES. In the case of a night birth, if the Moon is with Parivesha (halo) and be declining in the invisible half of the Zodiac (i.e. being posited between Lagna Bhava Madhya and the center of the descendant7th House), or declining Moon in day time be in the visible half (i.e. between the centres of the descendant and the Ascendant), even results will be felt in respect of fear, grief etc., (that is these positions confer bad results). The Full Moon gives kingdom, if she be contrarily posited.

32. DHANA YOGAS. If all benefics are posited in Upachayas i.e. 3, 6, 10 and 11, the native will acquire much wealth. Two benefics confer moderate wealth, while one confers little wealth in the said Upachaya. These can be deduced from the Moon also.

33. There are other Raja Yogas, like Adhi Yoga arising from the Moon. I have not dealt with them here which I have done infra.

Thus ends the 13\(^{th}\) Ch. entitled Yogas from the Moon in Kalyana Varmas Saravali.
Chapter 14

Yogas from the Sun

1. VASI, VESI, UBHAYACHARI YOGAS FROM THE SUN. Excluding the Moon (and nodes) a planet in the 12th from the Sun causes Vasi Yoga, in the 2nd Vesi Yoga and in both the 12th and the 2nd Ubhayachari Yoga.

2. RESULTS OF VESI YOGA. One born in Vesi Yoga will be weak-sighted, firm in his word, be hard working and will have a bent body. So say Yavanas.

3-5. EFFECTS OF VESI YOGA CAUSED BY DIFFERENT PLANETS. Should Jupiter cause Vesi Yoga, the native will accumulate money, be learned and be good-hearted. If Venus produces this Yoga, the person will be timid, will face obstacles in his missions, will have pleasant (or swift) movements and will be defeated. Mercury causing this Yoga indicates, that the native will be a servant, will suffer penury, be soft-spoken and be modest. He will be bashful. Mars denotes, that the native will resort to base means, but be helpful to others. If it is Saturn, that causes Vesi Yoga, one will join others wives, be wicked, will resemble an old person in appearance,-be fraudulent in disposition and be contemptuous. He will, however, have wealth.

6. EFFECTS OF VASI YOGA. One born in Vasi Yoga will possess excellent speech (voice), good memory, be employed, will have looks towards, sideways, will possess a strong physique about the waist, will be equal to a king and be a genuine person.

7-9. EFFECTS OF VASI YOGA BY DIFFERENT PLANETS. If Jupiter should cause Vasi Yoga, the native will possess courage, strength and wisdom. He will keep up his word. In the case of Venus, the person will be valorous, famous, virtuous and reputed. Mercury emanating this Yoga will make one speak sweetly, be beautiful and obey others orders. The Vasi Yoga caused by Mars indicates, that the subject will be victorious in war, famous and will live with his own fortunes. If by Saturn, the native will be a businessman, wicked, will steal others money, will hate elders and will be the husband of a pious lady.

10. The strength of the planet Sun and that of the planets causing these Yogas and their association with various Rasis and Amsas should be understood and all results be declared accordingly.

11. EFFECTS OF UBHAYACHARI YOGA. One born under Ubhayachari Yoga will have forebearance, will be very fortunate, even bodied, firm, profoundly strong, not very tall, full of everything, learned, happy, will have many servants, will protect his relatives, be equal to a king, ever enthusiastic and will enjoy all pleasures.

Thus ends the 14th Ch. entitled Yogas from the Sun in Kalyana Varmas Saravali.
Chapter 15

Conjunctions of Two Planets

1. INTRODUCTION TO TWO-PLANETARY YOGAS.
Vriddha Yavanas have stated the effects of combinations of two planets (in one House). I state those below without ego.

2. SUN - MOON YOGA. One, who has the Sun and Moon together will be at the disposal of his wife (or females), immodest, be a metallurgist (can be interpreted also, as able to deceive), will be quite wealthy and be an expert in sale of intoxicants.

3. SUN - MARS YOGA. Should the Sun and Mars be in one House the native will be splendidourous, valorous, dull witted, strong, be a liar, be sinful, disposed to kill (or torture) and be fierce.

4. SUN - MERCURY YOGA. If the Sun and Mercury are in one House, the native will be in service, will have unsteady wealth, be sweet in speech, will have fame and money, be noble, dear to king and good people and will possess strength, beauty and learning.

5. SUN - JUPITER YOGA. If the Sun and Jupiter be together, one will be virtuous, be a minister of king, will gain through friends, be with good mind and be a preceptor.

6. SUN - VENUS YOGA. If the Sun and Venus be together, one will be skillful in use of weapons, be mighty, weak-sighted in old age, will be able to amuse the public and will have abundant money earned through women.

7. SUN - SATURN YOGA. If the Sun and Saturn are together, the native will be a metallurgist, be virtuous, mindful of his own duties, will lose his wife and son, will have the qualities suitable to his race, will be pure, but not so upright.

8. MOON - MARS YOGA. One, who has the Moon and Mars together, will be valorous, brave in war, be a boxer, will suffer bloody imbalances, or diseases, will manufacture articles of mud, skin and minerals and will be an artisan and a metallurgist.

9. MOON - MERCURY YOGA. One, who has the Moon Mercury combination will be expert in poems and fables, be wealthy, amiable to his wife, beautiful, smiling-faced and will be endowed with distinct virtues.

10. JUPITER - MOON YOGA. One with Jupiter and the Moon together will be firm in friendship, modest, respectful towards his relatives, wealthy, virtuous and regardful of Gods and the wise.

11. MOON - VENUS YOGA. Should the Moon and Venus be together, the native will be endowed with flowers, incense and clothes, will know to perform duties (kriya also means rites), be dear to his race, very lazy and expert in buying and selling.
12. MOON-SATURN YOGA. Should the Moon and Saturn be together, the native will possess a decayed wife, be dear to public, will breed elephants and horses, be devoid of virtues, be under the control of others, unwealthy and defeated.

13. MARS-MERCURY YOGA. If Mars and Mercury are together at birth, the native will have unlucky wife, little wealth, will work with gold and iron, be an architect, will keep a wicked widow and be expert in making medicines.

14. MARS-JUPITER YOGA. If Mars and Jupiter be together at birth, the native will be an artisan, Vedic expert, intelligent, expert in speech, wise and fond of using weapons.

15. MARS-VENUS YOGA. One, who had Mars and Venus together at birth will be worshipped, be chief among his men, be a mathematician (or an astrologer) and be fond of gambling, untruth etc.

16. MARS-SATURN YOGA. If Mars and Saturn be together, one will be a metallurgist, be expert in jugglery, be deceitful, skillful in thieving, troubled by weapons and poison and be fond of quarrels.

17. MERCURY-JUPITER YOGA. One, who has Mercury and Jupiter together will be a noted dancer, scholar, singer and instrumentalist. He will be wise and happy.

18. MERCURY-VENUS YOGA. Should Mercury and Venus be together at birth, the native will be abundantly rich, a politician, an artisan, will study Vedas, be good in speech, will know to sing, make fun and like scents and flowers.

19. MERCURY-SATURN YOGA. One, who has Mercury and Saturn together at birth, will contract debts, be proud, deceiving, an able poet, intent on moving, expert and will possess auspicious speech.

20. JUPITER-VENUS YOGA. One, who has Jupiter and Venus together at birth will live by education and arguments, will follow a highly virtuous path, will have accurate conception, or notion (of things) and will have a supreme wife.

21. JUPITER-SATURN YOGA. A native, who has Jupiter and Saturn together at birth will be heroic, will have plenty of wealth, will be chief of the city (mayor etc.), famous and will be the head of an assembly, a village, or an association.

22. VENUS-SATURN YOGA. If Venus and Saturn are together at birth, one will be expert in breaking wood, be a barber, painter, or sculptor, boxer, be intent on wandering and be owner of quadrupeds.

23. Whatever results have been stated, as above are likely to become increased, or decreased according to mutual good, or bad Vargas occupied by the planets in question.

Thus ends the 15th Ch. entitled Conjunction of two planets in Kalyana Varmas Saravali.
1. SUN-MOON-MARS YOGA.
Should the Sun, the Moon and Mars be together at birth, the native will be bereft of shame, be sinful, will have knowledge of machinery, will destroy enemies, be brave and will be expert in any kind of work.

2. SUN-MOON-MERCURY YOGA.
If the Sun, Moon and Mercury are together, the native will be splendourous, very intelligent, will be fond of arts, assembly and drinks, be in royal service and bold.

3. SUN-MOON-JUPITER YOGA.
Should the Sun, Moon and Jupiter be in one House; the native will be given to anger, be cunning, expert in service, intent on going to foreign places, be intelligent and fickle minded.

4. SUN-MOON-VENUS YOGA.
Should the Sun, Moon and Venus be in one House at birth, the native will steal others money, will be a debaucher and be expert in Shastras.

5. SUN-MOON-SATURN YOGA.
If the Sun, Moon and Saturn be together in one House, the native will be lustful, be expert in arguments, be a dunce, be at the disposal of others and be poor.

6. SUN-MARS-MERCURY YOGA.
If the Sun, Mars and Mercury are in one House at birth, the native will be famous, hard-hearted, shameless and be devoid of wealth, sons and wife.

7. SUN-JUPITER-MARS YOGA.
Should Mars, Jupiter and the Sun be together at birth, the native will be an expert speaker, very wealthy, either a kings minister, or even a king himself, be truthful and fierce.

8. VENUS-MARS-SUN YOGA.
One, who has Venus, Mars and the Sun in one House, will be subjected to eye diseases, belongs to a good race, will be fortunate, harsh and wealthy.

9. MARS-SUN-SATURN YOGA.
Should Mars, Saturn and the Sun be together, the native will have deformed limbs, be without wealth, always sick, without his people and be a big fool.

10. JUPITER-MERCURY-SUN YOGA.
If Jupiter, Mercury and the Sun be together at birth, the native will be subjected to eye-diseases, be very wealthy, be interested in Shastras, fables, poetry, meetings and stonework and will become a good writer.
11. MERCURY-SUN-VENUS YOGA.
If Mercury, Sun and Venus be together, the native will be insatiable, talkative, intent on wandering and subjected to grief on account of women.

12. SATURN-SUN-MERCURY YOGA.
One, who has Saturn, the Sun and Mercury in one House will be a neuter, will hate others and will be given up by his relatives.

13. VENUS-JUPITER-SUN YOGA.
Should Venus, Jupiter and the Sun be together at birth, the native will be weak-sighted, bold, intelligent, indigent, be a minister and be devoted to others jobs.

14. JUPITER-SATURN-SUN YOGA.
If Jupiter, Saturn and the Sun be together at birth, the native will not have a prominent physique, will be worshipped, will hate his own men, will have good wife, children and friends, be dear to the king and be fearless.

15. VENUS-SATURN-SUN YOGA.
One, who has Venus, Saturn and the Sun together at birth will be emotionally upset due to fear from enemies, will be devoid of honour and knowledge of arts and poetry, will have a mean history and will suffer from Leprosy.

16. MOON-MERCURY-MARS YOGA.
Should the Moon Mercury and Mars be together at birth, the native will be sinful, mean in habits and conduct and devoid of friends and relatives throughout life.

17. MARS-MOON-JUPITER YOGA.
A native, who has Mars, the Moon and Jupiter together at birth will have an even body, be addicted to women, be a thief, be splendourous, dear to women and given to anger.

18. MARS-VENUS-MOON YOGA.
One, who has Mars, Venus and the Moon together at birth is the son of a bad woman and also will wed such a lady. He will be of wandering disposition and will have fear from cold.

19. MARS-MOON-SATURN.
If Mars, Moon and Saturn join at birth, the person concerned will lose his mother in boyhood, be mean, wicked and inimical to people.

20. MERCURY-MOON-JUPITER YOGA.
Should Mercury, Moon and Jupiter be together, the native will be wealthy, skilful, eloquent in speech, bright, famous and will have many sons and brothers.

21. MERCURY-VENUS-MOON YOGA.
One, who has Mercury, Venus and Moon together at birth, will be mean in conduct in spite of his being learned and cultured. be Jealous and miserly.
22. SATURN-MOON-MERCURY YOGA.
If Saturn, Moon and Mercury be together, the person concerned will be dependent, deformed, learned, be an able speaker and respected by the king.

23. VENUS-JUPITER-MOON YOGA.
Should Venus, Jupiter and the Moon be in one House at birth, the native will be a chaste womans son, be a scholar, will have knowledge of arts and many Shastras, be virtuous and beautiful.

24. MOON-JUPITER-SATURN YOGA.
One, who has Moon, Jupiter and Saturn combination at birth will know the inner meaning of Shastras, will seek union with aged women, be devoid of shame and be the head of a village and people.

25. MOON-VENUS-SATURN YOGA.
If the Moon, Venus and Saturn are in combination at birth, one will be a writer, reader of books, Purohita (family guru), will have to his credit merits of past birth and be an astrologer.

26. MERCURY-JUPITER-MARS YOGA.
One, who has Mercury, Jupiter and Mars together will be a good poet, Lord of a group, will marry a virtuous lady, be intent on helping others and an expert singer.

27. MARS-MERCURY-VENUS YOGA.
Should Mars, Mercury and Venus be together at birth, the native will give up his caste, be deformed, fickle-minded, wicked and garrulous.

28. MERCURY-SATURN-MARS YOGA.
Should Mercury, Saturn and Mars be together at birth, one will be a servant, will have dark eyes, be intent on living in foreign places, will have facial diseases and will be witty.

29. VENUS-JUPITER-MARS YOGA.
One, who has Venus, Jupiter and Mars together at birth will be dear to king, will have good sons and enjoy pleasures through women. He will please all persons.

30. JUPITER-MARS-SATURN YOGA.
If Jupiter, Mars and Saturn be together at birth, the native will be honoured by the king, will have wounds on the body, be mean and blamed by friends. He will also be unkind.

31. SATURN-MARS-VENUS YOGA.
If Saturn, Mars and Venus are in one House at birth, the native is born to an immoral lady, will marry such a lady, will be devoid of happiness and will be intent on wandering in distant places.

32. MERCURY-JUPITER-VENUS.
Should Mercury, Jupiter and Venus be together, the native will have good physique, be successful over his enemies, be a king, fortunate, widely famous and truthfully disposed.
33. MERCURY-SATURN-JUPITER.
When Mercury, Saturn and Jupiter are together at birth, it denotes, that the native will enjoy honour, wealth and sovereignty, be learned, will have abundant pleasures, be attached to his wife, be courageous and fortunate.

34. MERCURY-VENUS-SATURN.
One, who has Mercury, Venus and Saturn together at birth will be scurrilous in speech, fraudulent, be a liar, addicted to other women, vehement, (vishama has several other meanings, viz., irregular, uneven, mysterious, inaccessible, rough, painful, troublesome etc.), will have knowledge of arts and be attached to his own country.

35. JUPITER-VENUS-SATURN.
Should Jupiter, Venus and Saturn be in one House at birth one will become a king even though he might be of mean natal order, will be very famous and be a repository of virtues.

36. PARENTS. If the Moon is in the company of malefics, it is detrimental to the mother of the native. Predict similar results regarding the father of the native, if the Sun joins malefics at birth. Benefics in the place of malefics in the said Yogas will prove auspicious to the respective parent. If the planets joining be of mixed nature (i.e. one benefic and another malefic), the effects are medium.

37-38. BENEFICS IN CONJUNCTION AND MALEFICS IN CONJUNCTION.
If benefics are in conjunction at birth, the native will enjoy wealth, sovereignty and fame. Such a combination produces an emperor capable of ruling the earth. Should three malefics join at birth, the native will be unlucky, indigent, grief-stricken, ugly and immodest.

Thus ends the 16th Ch. entitled 3 planets in combination in Kalyana Varnas Saravali.

Chapter 17.

Four Planets in Conjunction

1. SUN-MOON-MARS-MERCURY YOGA.
Should these four planets be together at birth, the native will be a writer, a thief and be scurrilous in speech. He will be sickly, cunning and be capable of deceiving others.

2. MOON-MARS-JUPITER-SUN YOGA.
one, who has these four planets in one House at birth, will be wealthy, dear to women, splendourous, will maintain decorum, be free from grief and expert in work.
3. MOON-MARS-VENUS-SUN YOGA.
If these four planets join at birth, one will speak and conduct himself, as a great person, be happy, expert, intent on gathering money and will have learning, sons and wife.

4. SUN-MOON-MARS-SATURN YOGA.
One, who has these four planets together at birth, will have uneven physique, be short in stature, be unwealthy and will collect food by begging and be a proven dunce.

5. MOON-MERCURY-JUPITER-SUN YOGA.
If these four planets are in one House, the native will be a goldsmith (or a gold dealer etc.), be long eyed, be a sculptor, be very wealthy, bold and beautiful bodied.

6. SUN-MOON-MERCURY-VENUS YOGA.
The native, who has these four planets together at birth, will be deformed, lucky, short-statured and dear to king.

7. SUN-MOON-MERCURY-SATURN YOGA.
If these four planets are together at birth, the native will lose his parents in childhood, be devoid of money and happiness, be wandering, will earn food by begging and will be a liar.

8. VENUS-JUPITER-MOON YOGA.
Should these planets be in one House at birth, the subject concerned will be head of water, animals and forests (i.e. his livelihood may be through such sources), will be happy, honoured by the king and be an expert.

9. SUN-JUPITER-MOON-SATURN YOGA.
If the said planets join at birth, the native will be dark-eyed, fierce, will have many sons, be wealthy and fortunate through women.

10. SUN-MOON-VENUS-SATURN YOGA.
Should one have a combination of these planets in one House at birth, the native will have habits, like a female, be very weak, desirous of coming up and timid at all times.

11. SUN-JUPITER-MARS-MERCURY YOGA.
These four planets together at birth indicate, that the subject will be brave, be a composer of Shastras, or a ruler of province, will lose his wife and money, be undesirable and will wander.

12. SUN-VENUS-MARS-MERCURY YOGA.
If these four planets be together at birth, the native will be addicted to other women, be a thief, will have uneven limbs, will be a bad person and will be bereft of energy.

13. MERCURY-SUN-MARS-SATURN YOGA.
If these four planets are together at birth, the subject will be a warrior, scholar, be fierce, will be meantly disposed, be chief among poets and be a minister, or a king.

14. SUN-MARS-JUPITER-VENUS YOGA.

5. SUN-MOON-MERCURY-JUPITER-VENUS-SATURN YOGA. One with this six-planetary conjunction will be a kings minister, fortunate, patient and will suffer from grief. He will have no wife and wealth.

6. MERCURY-MARS-SATURN-JUPITER-VENUS-SUN YOGA. If the said six planets are together the subject will always wander in shrines, be deprived of issues and wealth and will live in forests and hills.

7. MARS-SATURN-VENUS-MOON-MERCURY-JUPITER YOGA.
One with these six planets will be pure at all times, valorous, will seek sexual union with many women, be dear to king, be a minister and be endowed with wealth, issues and happiness.
8. PLANETARY CONJUNCTIONS.
If 5, or 6 planets join at birth, normally such natives will be penniless, subjected to grief and be dull-witted. Even aspects among such planets will yield similar results according to Kandalas.

Thus ends the 19th Ch., entitled Effects of six planet combinations in Kalyana Varmas Saravali.

Chapter 20.

Combinations For Renunciation

1. Various sages have explained widely the combinations of four, or more planets producing an ascetic. I now explain below such of the Yogas.

2. One born with the conjunction of the Sun, the Moon, Venus, Jupiter and Mars; or the Luminaries, Mercury and Mars; or the Sun, Mars, Saturn, Mercury and Venus becomes an ascetic.

3. The native having the combination of Mars, the Luminaries (i.e. the Sun and the Moon), Mercury and Jupiter; or the Luminaries, Saturn and Mercury; or the Luminaries, Mars and Saturn takes to renunciation and become a mendicant.

4. The Sun, Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury—being together, or Mars, the Sun, Mercury and Jupiter joining denotes a mendicant.

5. Should Venus, the Sun, Mars and Saturn; or Jupiter, Mars, the Sun and Saturn; or Mars, the Moon, Jupiter and Saturn with strength be in conjunction at birth, native takes to asceticism.

6. One will be initiated into a religious vow, if anyone of the following group of planets be found together at birth: d) Mars, Saturn, Mercury and Jupiter; 2) Mars, Saturn, Mercury, the Sun and Venus; 3) the Luminaries, Mars Saturn and Venus.

7. One becomes a mendicant to live in forests and hilly areas, if the planets group themselves in conjunction at birth, as under: 1) Venus, Mars, Saturn, Jupiter and the Sun; 2) Mars, the Moon, Jupiter, Mercury and Saturn; 3) Venus, Mercury, Saturn, the Moon and Mars.

8. The native will become a sage, giving up (even) his food and be honoured by the people, if the heavenly bodies form conjunction, as under: 1) The Moon, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and the Sun; 2) The Luminaries, Mercury, Venus and Mars.

9. The native will be initiated into a religious vow, if 1) the Luminaries, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn, or 2) The Moon, Mars, Saturn, Mercury, Jupiter and the Sun, or 3) Mars, the Luminaries, Saturn, Venus and Mercury, join together at birth.
10. A famous sage is indicated by the combination of 1) the Luminaries, Jupiter, Saturn and Venus, or 2) Venus, the Luminaries, Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury.

11. Note the conjunction of the following planets: 1) Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and the Sun. 2) Venus, the Luminaries, Saturn, Jupiter and Mercury. It indicates an ascetic.

12. If conjunction is found among the planetary group, viz. 1) the Luminaries, Jupiter and Saturn; 2) Saturn, the Luminaries and Venus; 3) Sun, Mercury, Mars and Jupiter, the native will become an ascetic living on roots and fruits.

13. The native will become an ascetic with bark garments, if Mars, the Sun, Mercury and Venus are found together at birth. The same effect follows the conjunction of Mars, the Moon, Jupiter and Mercury.

14. A patient ascetic (awaiting the blessing of the Supreme) is indicated by either the combination of the Moon, Mercury, Mars and Saturn, or of Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

15. A sage living only by eating fruits is denoted by the combination of the Luminaries, Venus and Mercury; or Mars, Mercury, Venus and Saturn; or Saturn, the Moon, Jupiter and Venus.

16. An ascetic, who will be highly honourable, living in forests, is denoted by each of the under mentioned planetary conjunctions: 1) The Sun, Mars, the Moon and Venus, 2) the Luminaries, Mars and Mercury, 3) Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and the Sun, 4) Venus, Jupiter, the Moon and Mars.

17. Find the planets together in individual groups, as under 1) Venus, Moon, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn, 2) the Moon, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Venus, 3) The Luminaries, Mars, Mercury and Jupiter. The result is, that the ascetic will be sorrowful (Unsuccessful mendicant).

18. Mars, Saturn, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury with strength, or Saturn, the Sun, Mercury, the Moon and Mars with strength in conjunction produce one with clotted hair and bark-garments.

19. The Luminaries, Mercury, Mars and Venus, or the Luminaries, Mars, Jupiter, Venus, if be together, the native certainly will become an ascetic.

20. If the Sun denotes asceticism (i.e. being the strongest in the Yoga), there will only be faith in the religious order, while competence (to fulfil the order) will lack. If the planet, contributing to such order is overpowered by another planet (i.e. in eclipse, planetary war etc.) the native will give up the order after being initiated into it. Should many planets denote such an order, there may be many kinds of religious orders, but these will depend on the order of the planet.

21. If the planet indicating asceticism is combust in the Sun, or is aspected by another heavenly body, the native will only have an earnest desire to be initiated into the religious order, but will not attain fruition of his aim. So say Yavanas.

22. The native will attain religious order, if the Moon, posited in a decanate of Saturn, is aspected by Mars and Saturn. The same effect is produced, if the Moon occupies the Navansa of Aries/Scorpio in aspect to Saturn.
23. If the Lord of the Moon Sign receives the sole aspect of Saturn (i.e. unaspected by others than Saturn), one will enter religious order. Even in this context, the earlier Yogas, if present will only prevail.

24. If the Lord of the Moon Sign, bright with rays, lends his aspect to Saturn, while Saturn is in an Angle, the native will lose his fortunes only to enter into a religious order.

25. If one among the Sun, the Moon and Jupiter be devoid of strength and occupy the Ascendant, or the 10th; or the 12th in aspect to strong Saturn, the native will become distressed ascetic.

26. Should the Moon with strength be in the 10th, falling in a benefics Navansa, while others occupy their exaltation marks and all being in aspect to strong Saturn, the native will become the Lord of the earth to only become an ascetic.

27. If waxing Moon, with superior strength, aspects the Ascendant Lord, the latter being bereft of strength and being alone (in that Rasi), the native will be devoid of wealth and own men, be miserable, sorrowful, will take to asceticism and will obtain his food with great inconvenience.

28. One will become a religious mendicant, if Saturn occupying a benefics Navansa aspects others including the Moon. The Moon in this case should only be in Aquarius Navansa.

29. If the Lord of the Moon Sign aspects all the other planets, while these are all together in one Rasi, the native will become an ascetic.

30. The Sun rules the ascetics of the following orders: Those, who worship the Fire God in forests, or on river banks, those, who worship (the omnipotent) Sun-God, Elephant-faced Ganesa and His benevolent mother Parvati, those, who recite the hymns of Gayatri (which are very sacred), those, who are vowed to bathe in the sacred Ganges everyday and those, who maintain (absolute) celibacy.

31. The religious order belonging to the Moon attracts the following various persons: Those disciples, who smear their bodies with sacred ashes, those, who worship the Feet of Lord Shiva, those, who are abandoned by the society, those, who are devoted to Bhagavati, those, who give up company of others, those, who take to Soma Siddhanta and those, who carry bowls in their hands (for begging alms).

32. The Buddhist monks, the tonsured, those, who wear white apparels, those, who beg wearing good robes, those, who wear blood-red clothes and those, that have conquered their five senses-all these mendicants are ruled by Mars.

33. Mercury denotes an aim-seeker, a conjurer, a snake poison curer and one, who eats the flesh of a peacock.

34. The ascetics ruled by Jupiter are: those, who hold a single sceptre (or mace), those, who hold three sceptres, those, who wear red coloured apparels, those, who are in the third stage of their religious life, those, who pull on their lives with fruits and water (alone), those, who still are attached to family ties, those, who maintain celibacy and those, who take to visiting shrines etc.
35. Venus rules the mendicants of Saivite and Vaishnavite sects.
36. Religious hypocrites, bare mendicants and the ascetics, who sit under shadowy trees in forests are ruled by Saturn.
37. Should Raja Yogas be simultaneously present along with the above ascetic Yogas, all the evil results are nullified and the native will become very virtuous, will be adored by all the kings. himself becoming a king and will take to religious order.

Thus ends the 20th Ch., entitled Combinations for Renunciation in Kalyana Varnas Saravali.

Chapter 21.

Nabhasa Yogas

1. NABHASA YOGAS.

Yavanas have explained 1800 kinds of Nabhasa Yogas, out of which I detail below 32.

2-4. KINDS OF NABHASA YOGA.

The following are the 32 Nabhasa Yogas Nau, Chatra, Koota, Chaapa, Sringataka, Vajra, Damini, Pasa, Veena, Kamala, Musala, Vapi, Hala, Sara, Samudra, Chakra, Maala. Sarpa, Artha, Chandra, Yava, Kedara, Gada, Pakshi, Yupa, Yuga, Sakata, Soola, Danda, Rajju, Sakthi, Nala and Gola. The Asraya Yogas, viz. Musala, Rajju and Nala are dealt with by Acharya Manitha.

5-6. Gola, Yuga, Soola, Pasa, Veena (Vallaki), Kedara and Damini arc the seven Sankhya Yogas. The two Dala Yogas viz. Sarpa (Bhujanga) and Mala are explained by Parasara Maharishi. Savitracharya dealt with remaining 20 Yogas.

7. One born with an Asraya will obtain the good effects, viz., happiness, advantages and qualities, provided there is no other kind of (Nabhasa) Yoga present in the horoscope. If other (Nabhasa) Yoga is present in addition to an Asraya Yoga, then the effects of Asraya Yoga do not come to pass, but the other (Nabhasa) Yoga prevails.

8-10. EFFECT OF AKRITI, SANKHYA AND DALA YOGAS.

One born in Akriti Yoga will be satisfied with his own fortunes, will earn through a king, be dear to king and be famous. Should there be a Sankhya Yoga, the native will be happy only with others wealth, will live only through others help and be always not peaceful. A native with Dala Yoga will sometimes enjoy his own fortune, yet sometimes that of others, will pick up the fruits thrown on the ground by others, be sometimes happy and sometimes sorrowful.

11. NAUKA, KOOTA, CHATRA AND CHAPA YOGAS.

If the seven planets occupy continuous Houses starting from the Ascendant and the other three Angles, Yogas called Nauka, Koota, Chatra and Chapa are, respectively, formed.
12. YUPA, SARA, SAKTHI AND NANDA YOGAS.

If the seven planets occupy for continuous Houses counted from the Ascendant and its Angles, the resultant Yogas are known, as Yupa, Sara (or Ishu-arrow), Sakthi and Danda, respectively.

13. ARDHA CHANDRA AND GADA YOGAS.

If the seven planets occupy continuously seven Houses commencing from a House, which is not angular to the Ascendant, the Yoga produced is known, as Ardha Chandra (Ardha Sasi) Yoga. Gada Yoga forms, when all the seven planets occupy two successive Angles from the Ascendant.

14. VAJRA, YAVA, PADMA AND VAPI YOGAS.

If benefics occupy the Lagna and 7th, while malefics are in the 4th and 10th Vajra Yoga is formed. Conversely, if malefics are in the Lagna and 7th, while 4th and 10th are occupied by benefics, Yava Yoga is produced. If all the planets are disposed in four kendras, Padma (Kamala) Yoga is formed. Should the seven planets be relegated either to Apoklima Houses (3, 6, 9 and 12th), or to Panapharas (2, 5, 8 and 11 Houses), Vapi Yoga is formed.

15. SAKATA, VIHAGA, HALA AND SRINGATAKA YOGAS.

If all planets occupy only the Ascendant and the 7th House, Sakata Yoga is formed. Similar participation of all the planets in the 4th and 10th constitutes Vihaga (Pakshi) Yoga. Should all the planets be in mutual Trines, avoiding the Ascendant, Hala Yoga is formed. All planets relegated only to the Ascendant and its Trines give rise to Sringataka Yoga.

16. CHAKRA AND SAMUDRA YOGAS.

Should all the planets occupy alternative Rasis commencing from the Lagna, Chakra Yoga is formed. If these occupy alternative Rasis from the 2nd onwards, Samudra Yoga is formed.

17. ASRAYA AND DALA YOGAS.

Thus, I have explained the twenty different Akriti Yogas. Now, I explain the Asraya Yogas, as per the schools of thought of senior Garga etc.

18. ASRAYA AND DALA YOGAS.

Should all the planets be in Dual Rasis, Nala Yoga is formed. Similarly, if these are in Fixed Rasis, Musala Yoga takes place and in Movable Rasis Rajju Yoga is formed. All Angles occupied exclusively by benefics cause Maala Yoga, while malefics in all Angles produce Sarpa Yoga. These two are Dala Yogas.

19. SANKHYA YOGAS.

If all the seven planets occupy one Rasi, Gola Yoga is formed. Similarly in 2 Rasis-Yuga Yoga, In 3 Rasis-Sula Yoga, in 4 Rasis-Kedara Yoga, in 5 Rasis-Pasa Yoga, in 6 Rasis-Damini and in 7 Rasis-Veena (Vallaki) Yoga.

Chapter 22.

Effects of the Sun

1. The effects of the planets and the zodiacal Signs accrue to all and at all times. I now attempt to explain these according to the teachings of the rest of the preceptors.
2-3. THE SUN IN ARIES.

One, who has the Sun in Aries will comment on the meanings of Shastras, be famous in arts, fond of war, fierce, attached to his duty, fond of roaming, will have strong bones, be good in deeds, will do valorous acts, will be subjected to bilious and bloody disorders, be splendourous and strong. The native will also become a king.

4-9. SUN IN A SIGN OF MARS IN ASPECT TO OTHERS. Should the Sun be in a Sign of Mars (i.e. either in Aries, or in Scorpio) and be aspected by the Moon, the native will be interested in giving away gifts, will have many servants, be charming, be dear to fair sex and will have a soft physique.

Should the Sun be in a Sign of Mars and be aspected by Mars, the native will display his courage in battle, be cruel, will possess eyes, hands and legs of blood-red colour, be splendourous and strong.

Should the Sun be in a Sign of Mars and be aspected by Mercury, the subject will be a servant, will do others jobs, will not have much wealth, be devoid of strength, be subjected to much grief and will possess a dirty body.

Should the Sun be in a Sign of Mars and Jupiter aspects the said Sun, the native will have plenty of money, will donate, be a kings minister, a judge and a supreme person.

If Venus aspects the Sun posited in a House of Mars, the native will be the husband of a bad woman, will have many enemies, but few relatives (or not well-placed relatives), be poor and will suffer from leprosy.

In case Saturn aspects the Sun in a Sign of Mars, the native will be subjected to grief on account of physical ailments, will have intense passion in his undertaking, be dull-witted and a dunce.

10-11. The position of the Sun in the Sign Taurus indicates, that the native will have troubles from disease of face and eyes, will endure difficulties, will have an emaciated body, will not have many sons, will be beautiful (also means fortunate, nice, handsome etc.), will possess decorum, be wise, will hate barren (or confined) women, be endowed with eatables, garlands, robes and scents, will have knowledge of singing, playing musical instruments and dancing and will face risk from water.

Chapter 30.

Effects of Planets in Bhavas

1. In order, that the effects of physique etc. for the various human beings are understood, I explain below things relating to (various) Bhavas (of a horoscope) in a special manner.

2. The Sun in the Ascendant denotes, that the native will have less hair (on the head), be lazy in function, given to anger, will have prominent personality, be honourable, will have weak sight and coarse physique, be courageous, impatient and unkind. If the Ascendant is Cancer and is occupied by the Sun, the native will have swollen eyes, if it be Aries with Sun therein, his sight will be weak and in Leo the Sun makes him night-blind. One suffers poverty and loss of children, if the Sun occupies Libra.

3. SUN IN 2nd. If the Sun is in the 2nd Bhava, the native will be endowed with servants and quadrupeds, will suffer facial diseases, will be deprived of happiness and wealth and will lose money through royal displeasure, or through thieves.

4. Should the Sun be in 3rd, the native will be valorous, strong, will lose co-born, be dear to people, good-looking, very learned and will conquer his enemies.

5. Should the Sun be in 4th, the native will be devoid of conveyances and relatives, will suffer heart diseases, will destroy paternal house and wealth and will serve a bad king.

6. If the Sun occupies the 5th, the native will be bereft of happiness, sons and wealth, will live by husbandry, will move in hills and fortresses, be fickle-minded, scholarly, devoid of strength and be short-lived.

7. If the Sun is in 6th, the native will be very libidinous, will have powerful digestive fire (capable of digesting fast), be strong, affluent, famous for virtues and be either a king, or an Army chief.
8. If the Sun is posited in 7th, the native will be poor, insulted, will suffer bodily diseases, royal displeasures and imprisonment, will take to bad ways and will not be well-disposed to his wife.

9. If the Sun occupies the 8th, the native will have deformed eyes, be devoid of wealth and happiness, be short-lived and will suffer separation from his relatives.

10. If the Sun occupies the 9th, the native will be endowed with wealth, children and friends, will be very interested in worshipping Gods and Brahmins, will not be well-disposed towards his father and wife and be not calm.

11. Should the Sun be in 10th, the native will be extremely intelligent, rich, strong and will be endowed with conveyances, relatives and sons, will succeed in his undertakings, be valorous, unconquerable and great.

12. Should the Sun be in 11th, one will be interested in gathering money, be strong, will hate others, be devoid of servants, be himself a servant, be devoid of affection, be modest and will be successful in undertakings.

If Venus and Saturn join together in the 4th, he will gain abundantly through friends, be highly honoured by his relatives and will be close to the king.
If Venus and Saturn join together in the 7th denotes, that the native will be bestowed with women, precious stones, wealth, fame and sexual pleasures.
If Venus and Saturn join together in the 10th, he will be devoid of all duals (i.e. good and bad, grief and happiness, poverty and wealth etc.), will perform excellent acts and be a famous minister.

87. EFFECTS OF MORE NUMBER OF PLANETS.
Similarly the effects of conjunctions of 3, 4, 5, or 6 planets in Angles should be suitably understood.

Thus ends the 31st Ch. entitled EFFECTS OF TWO PLANETS IN ANGLES in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 32.

Ninth House And Effects Thereof
1. Leaving aside all the other Houses, one should first analyze the House of fortune (or Bhagyasthana) for a native can not obtain benefic results without fortune. So narrated below is an account in this direction.
2. Bhagyasthana (House of fortune) is that, which is the 9th counted from the Ascendant, or from the Moon. Effects of the 9th counted from the stronger of the Ascendant and the Moon will come to pass.
3. The House occupied by the Lord of the 9th and the planet occupying the 9th will have a say on ones fortune. Their strength, or weakness will indicate the fortunes.
4. If the 9th House is aspected, or occupied by its own Lord, the native will make his fortunes in his own country. If others aspect, or join the House in question, the dawn of fortune will be elsewhere.
5. The native will be extremely lucky, if a planet lends full aspect to the 9th from the 3rd, 5th, or Ascendant. The planet in question should be strong in the process.

6-7. JUPITER IN THE 9TH AND ASPECTS THERETO. If Jupiter is placed in the 9th, the native will become a minister.
If Jupiter is in the 9th and is aspected by the Sun, one will be equal to a king.
If Jupiter is in the 9th and is aspected by the Moon one will be splendidous and will enjoy pleasures.
If Jupiter is in the 9th and is aspected by Mars, he will be endowed with gold.
If Jupiter is in the 9th and is aspected by Mercury one will be affluent.
If Jupiter is in the 9th and is aspected by Venus one will have quadrupeds, conveyances and wealth.
If Jupiter is in the 9th and is aspected by Saturn one will possess immovable properties, asses and buffaloes.

8-12. JUPITER IN THE 9TH IN ASPECT TO TWO PLANETS.
If the 9th House is occupied by Jupiter and aspected by both the Sun and Mars, the native will be endowed with sovereignty, precious stones, gold, courage, excellence, strength, conveyances and servants.
If the 9th House is occupied by Jupiter and aspected by both the Sun and the Moon, he will be blessed with plentifulness (of all things), be devoted to his parents, be famous, be equal to a king and will have plurality of wives.
If the Sun and Mercury jointly aspect the Jupiter in the 9th, he will be graceful, splendidous, fortunate, be endowed with an excellent wife, ornaments and wealth and will be expert in poetry and arts.
If the 9th House is occupied by Jupiter and aspected by both the Sun and Venus, one will be festive in disposition, will have (wide) social activities and will be endowed with cows, buffaloes, elephants etc.
If the Sun and Saturn aspect Jupiter in the 9th, one will be head of a country, town, or group, be famous, learned, virtuous, affluent and will have a tendency of accumulating.

13-16. JUPITER IN THE 9TH IN ASPECTS TO TWO PLANETS (continued). If Jupiter occupies the 9th in aspect to both Mars and the Moon, one will be an Army chief, or a minister and be endowed with various kinds of happiness.

Thus ends the 32nd Ch. entitled NINTH HOUSE AND EFFECTS THEREOF in Kalyana Varma's SARAVALI.
Chapter 33.

Tenth House And Effects Thereof

1. Sages have explained effects relating to the Signs coinciding with the 10th House, planets posited therein and planets aspecting the 10th House. I shall now explain those results.

2. The 10th House counted from the stronger among the Ascendant and the Moon, is called Karmasthan and, if the Lord of that (10th) House is with strength, the effects in regard to Karma will prosper. Otherwise, the same will decline.

3-6. The effects relating to the 10th House will depend on the nature of the Sign, viz. watery, biped, Aranya (like Leo), or Jangala (Centipede), the form of such Sign and the places indicated by such Sign. The 10th House should be carefully examined on these lines. The occupant of the 10th House counted from the Moon, or from the Ascendant will influence the livelihood of the native according to his (i.e. planets) nature and disposition.

7. In a previous Ch., results of placements of planets in the 10th House from the Ascendant have been explained, while dealing with angular positions of various planets. Now specially explained are with reference to the Moon.

Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn in the 10th of the Moon denote, that one will be interested in authorship and literature, be wealthy, be a very modest servant, be fond of wandering and be beautiful.

If Saturn, Mercury and Venus be together in conjunction in the 10th counted from the Moon one will be endowed with wisdom, be a boxer, be interested in living in foreign countries, diligent and tamed (like an elephant).

If Jupiter, Saturn and Venus join in the 10th from the Moon, one will be learned, righteous, kind and truthful.

49. Those are the results of planets up to 3 in number joining in the 10th from the Moon. Different results will be experienced, if more than 3 planets join in the 10th of the Moon, as explained below.

50-61. EFFECTS OF 4 PLANETS JOINING IN THE 10th FROM THE MOON.

If the Sun, Mars, Mercury and Jupiter be in the 10th from the Moon, one will be valorous, physically hurt, charitable and interested in all deeds.

With Mars, Sun, Venus and Mercury in the 10th from the Moon one will be a garland dealer, writer, or an artist.

With Mars, Sun, Saturn and Mercury in the 10th from the Moon one will be endowed with wealth, conveyances and elephants.

The Sun, Mercury, Jupiter and Venus in the 10th from the Moon denote, that even though one will have a mean profession, he will be excellent, will have sons and will have agricultural living.

The Sun, Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn in the 10th from the Moon denote, that one will be skillfully cunning, cruel and will cheat others.

The Sun, Mercury, Venus and Saturn being in the 10th of the Moon, will make one hardhearted, fortunate, eloquent and interested in agriculture.

The Sun, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn being in the 10th of the Moon, will make one interested in foreign places and have many an acts to do.

If Mars, Venus, Mercury and Jupiter are in the 10th from the Moon, he will be skillful courageous and unconquerable in battle.

If Mars, Saturn, Mercury and Jupiter are in the 10th from the Moon, one will be dirty, ever longing for war and will destroy enemies.

Should Mars, Mercury, Venus and Saturn join in the 10th of the Moon, one will have abundant learning, be valorous and will be broad-bodied.

Should Mars, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn join in the 10th of the Moon, one will be courageous and endowed with family and wealth.
If Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn are placed in the 10th from J anma Rasi, one will be calmly disposed, intelligent and dear to people.

62. MALEFICS IN THE 10TH FROM THE MOON.
If Malefics occupy the 10th House counted from the Moon and aspected by benefics, one will be a doctor, Purohit (a religious guide), an astrologer, or will be interested in cheating others.

63. Whatever effects have been ascribed so far in this Ch. will specially reveal beneficially, if benefics aspect the 10th House from the Moon. If malefics aspect, the benefic results may not be there.

64. MALEFICS AND EFFECTS. Malefics in the 3rd, or in the 6th with reference to either the Ascendant, or the Moon will prove favourable, while in the 8th, 12th, or the Ascendant they are inauspicious more so in the Ascendant.

65. LIVELIHOOD. Ones livelihood should be predicted based on the 10th from the Moon, or from the Ascendant; whichever is stronger will prevail. The earnings (livelihood) will also be indicated by the stronger of the Lords of the 10th counted from the Moon, or from the Ascendant.

66-80. SIGNS AND PROFESSIONS. If Aries, or many of its divisions be in the 10th, one will live through gardens, intelligence, service, agriculture, trading in juices (Rasa has other meanings, like liquor, poison, mercury, mineral/metallic salt etc.), or be an envoy. With Taurus, or a majority of its divisions in the 10th, one will live through carts, quadrupeds, birds, wild animals and by gathering grains. Similarly Gemini denotes trading through water, precious stones, vessels, conch, writing, accountancy etc. Cancer in this context means weapons, golden ornaments, arrows and hunting. Leo on the 10th, or many of Leo divisions related to the 10th denote livelihood through precious stones, gold, stones (like construction material) agriculture, cows and the like and grains. Wealth comes through vehicles, gems, gold, scents, music, arts and writing, if Virgo features, as above. Libra in similar condition indicates livelihood through teaching, dealing in gold, many ways and means, friends, cows, buffaloes, many salable articles, things emanating from water, grains, fruits, agriculture and arts. Similarly Scorpio denotes livelihood through female association, agriculture, thieving, serving the king, sinful acts, rendering physical treatments (i.e. medical profession), blacksmithing and grains. Ministership under a king, protection of forts, cattle, horses, firewood, indicating omens, machinery, mathematics, medical treatment etc., are denoted by Sagittarius in a similar manner. Capricorn in similar condition denotes livelihood through cots, gardening, chemicals etc. and abundant income through waterborne items. Aquarius indicates weapons, burning, separation (or creating inimical relationship between two), thieving, carrying headloads and through physical stamina. Pisces in similar manner denotes living through weapons, waterborne items, sale of horses etc.

81. PLANETS IN THE 10TH AND THEIR EFFECTS.
The Sun in the 10th indicates income through father, the Moon mother, Mars enemies, Mercury friends, Jupiter brothers, Venus females and Saturn servants.

82. There will be gains in many ways, if the Ascendant, the 2nd and the 11th are, respectively, occupied by strong (favourable) planets, so say the preceptors.

Thus ends the 33rd Ch. entitled 10th HOUSE AND EFFECTS THEREOF in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 34.

Different Houses and Worldly Affairs

1-7. EFFECTS OF SEVERAL PLANETS ASPECTING THE ASCENDANT. If the Sun aspects the Ascendant, the native will be valorous, will be irascible with females, be cruel, will gain wealth from paternal side and will serve the king. If the Moon aspects the Ascendant, he will be under the control of women, fortunate, be very courteous, be very wealthy, softly disposed and will gain by dealing in water-born articles. If Mars lends his aspect to the Ascendant, one will be fond of valorous acts and battles, irascible, will have severed relationship, be very righteous and will have a long penis. Should Mercury aspect the Ascendant, the native will have rich knowledge of arts and will thereby gain and be quite intelligent, famous and honourable. If Jupiter be the aspecting planet with reference to the Ascendant one will be interested in religious observations, be honoured by the king, be famous and will be endowed with (the company of) virtuous people, elders and guests. Venus aspecting the Ascendant denotes, that he will be addicted to many prostitutes, be youthful, will have happiness of wealth and pleasure and will be beautiful in appearance. If Saturn aspects the Ascendant one will be troubled by heavy loads, travels and diseases, be irascible, will be attached to aged women (i.e. will be fond of seeking union with aged females), be devoid of happiness, be dirty and foolish.

8. GENERAL ASPECTS TO ASCENDANT. If a planet (whether natural benefic, or natural malefic) aspects the Ascendant identical with its own Sign, that confers happiness and wealth, apart from close relationship with the king. If the Ascendant is not owned by the aspecting planet, a benefic then confers auspicious effects and a malefic evil results.

9. UNASPECTED ASCENDANT. Should the ascending Sign be not in aspect to even one planet, the native will be devoid of (other) qualities and will acquire exclusive qualities of the Sign concerned.
10-11. SPECIAL EFFECTS. If two, or more planets aspect the Ascendant, the native acquires happiness and wealth. Even one benefic aspecting the Ascendant is auspicious, while a malefic so aspecting is inauspicious. If the Ascendant is aspected by all the planets one rules over the earth. Should all the planets be endowed with strength, he will enjoy all kinds of happiness, be free from fear and be long-lived.

12. PLANETS CONJUNCT IN THE ASCENDANT. If three planets are together in the Ascendant, the native will be devoid of miseries and will lord over the earth. But, if these are (exclusively) malefics, he will be distressed due to fear, grief etc., will eat much and will be disregarded by one and all.

13. ADHI YOGA FROM ASCENDANT. If benefics exclusively occupy the 6th, 7th and 8th, without the company of malefics, Lagnadhi Yoga is caused. This Yoga confers ministership, leadership over Army (justiceship) and kingship, lordship over many women, long life, freedom from diseases and miseries, possession of virtues and happiness. So say Yavana kings.

14. A planet in own Sign, or in exaltation/friendly Sign, according to sages, confers its effects fully. If it is in fall, or is inimically placed, it is incapable of giving the results (due to the above mentioned Yoga).

15-20. PRINCIPLES RELATED TO THE 2ND HOUSE. If Mars, Saturn and the Sun occupy the 2nd House, the natives wealth is destroyed.
If weak Moon aspects the 2nd House, such effects are more pronounced.
Mars and the Sun in the 2nd cause afflictions to skin apart from causing poverty.
If Saturn, posited alone in this House, is aspected by Mercury, he will be greatly rich.
Even, if the Sun is posited in the 2nd House in aspect to Saturn, without aspect of others, penilessness will come to pass.
Benefics in the 2nd House cause advent of money in many ways.
But, if Jupiter posited in the 2nd House remains under Mercury's aspect, or Mercury so posited in the 2nd House in aspect to the Moon, the entire wealth earned by the native will be deprived.
Weak Moon in the 2nd House in Mercury's aspect denotes, that even the ancestral property will be destroyed; not only this, other sources of income will also be hindered.
Should the 2nd House [from the] Moon be aspected by Venus, plenty of wealth will be earned.
Same is the result by aspect of another benefic (i.e. Jupiter).

21-24. PRINCIPLES RELATED TO THE 3RD HOUSE. When the 3rd House is owned by a malefic and is occupied by a malefic, the co-born are destroyed. Conversely, a benefics Sign being the 3rd and occupation of benefics therein will cause happiness thereof. Now explained below is the method to ascertain the number of co-born. The number of Navansas past in the 3rd House denotes the number of brothers following the native. If other planets aspect the 3rd House, the said number (caused by Navansas) stands increased. Saturn placed in the 3rd in aspect to Mars causes destruction of co-born. But Venus in the 3rd and in aspect to Jupiter increases happiness thereof. Mercury placed in the 3rd House, in aspect to Mars (or in aspect to the Sun, as some texts read Bhaskara Drishtah instead of Angaraka Drishtah), the natives friends are destroyed. Rest (relating to the 4th House) may be understood from Bhavadhyaya (Ch. 30).

25-26. ABOUT THE 5th HOUSE. If the 5th House contains a benefic, or is aspected by a benefic, or be a benefics Rasi, the native will surely beget children. If it is different, he will not obtain progeny. If the 5th House counted from the Moon, or the Ascendant, the stronger prevailing, has at least one Jupiters division in the various Varga calculations, or has a benefics Rasi in it and is aspected by a benefic, the native will have legitimate issue.

27. NUMBER OF CHILDREN.
If the Navansa of the 5th falls in a benefics Rasi the number of children equals the number of Navansas past in the 5th House. The aspect of a benefic on the 9th Bhava doubles the number, while malefic Rasi, as 5th House Navansa and the said House receiving a malefics aspect confers progeny with difficulty.

28. AUTHORIZING OTHER KINSMAN TO RAISE PROGENY FOR THE NATIVE. If the 5th House falls in the divisions (like Rasi, Navansa, drekkana etc.) of Saturn and be with Mercurys aspect, but without that of Jupiter/Mars/Sun, the native obtains progeny by authorizing his kinsman to raise the same for him from his (the natives) wife. Similar result prevails, if Mercurys Rasi be in the 5th House containing Mercury in it and is in aspect to Saturn, but without the aspect of the others, as cited above.

29. ADOPTED OR BOUGHT PROGENY.
If the 5th House belongs to Saturn and be occupied by Saturn himself with the aspect of the Moon, one procures a child by adoption, or by an act of purchase. Identical effect follows the position of Mercury in the 5th House owned by him receiving the Moons aspect.

30. ADOPTION SANS CONSENT.
Should the 5th House contain Saturn un-aspected by others and fall in a Sapthamsa owned by Mars, the native will adopt a grown up child without the consent of its natural parents.

31-32. BASE CHILDREN.
If the 5th House contains the Sun and falls in the divisions of Saturn receiving the aspect of Mars, the children so obtained will be abject. Should the Moon be in the 5th House and receive exclusively Saturns aspect, while the 5th House falls in a Navansa of Mars, even then the progeny will be foolish and base.

33. IF THE 5th HOUSE IS OCCUPIED BY MARS FALLING IN MANY OF SATURNS DIVISIONS AND BE IN ASPECT TO THE SUN, one will obtain a son, that is adopted by a stranger after its being cast off by its original parents, so says sage Karuna.

34. ISSUE BY A REMARRIED WIDOW.
Should the 5th House fall in Saturns Vargas and contain both the Moon and Saturn therein, in aspect to both the Sun and Venus, progeny will be begotten by a widow given to the native in remarriage.

35. PROGENY BY A VIRGIN.
Should the Moon be in the 7th along with the Sun, or the Moon being in the 5th in aspect to, or in the company of the Sun, one will obtain issue through an unmarried girl.

36. PROGENY BY A WOMAN PREGNANT AT MARRIAGE.
If the 5th House falls in the divisions of the Luminaries and contains the Moon and the Sun in aspect to Venus only, one will have progeny by a woman, who will already be pregnant at the time of marriage.

37. ISSUELESSNESS.
If the 5th House falls in a malefics Sign and be occupied by strong malefics without benefics aspect, the native will be childless.

38. PROGENY BY A FEMALE SLAVE.
If the 5th House be in a Navansa of Venus and be aspected by Venus, one will beget progeny by a female servant. Some scholars opine, that even, if the Moons Navansa and the Moon so come in the picture, the said effects will come to pass.

39. SONS AND Daughters.
When the 5th House has exclusively the divisions of the Moon and Venus and be with aspects of Venus and the Moon alone, or be occupied by these two alone, or, when the said House has the divisions of only even Signs, the native will beget only female children. In a contrary situation, (i.e. 5th House falling in divisions of odd Signs only and be excluded from the occupation, or aspect of Venus and the Moon but others), there will be birth of only male children.

40. Childlessness.
When the Moon occupies the 10th House, Venus is in the 7th and malefics are in the 4th, the natives dynasty does not descend any further.

41. Loss of Children.
Should Mars be in the 9th, the children of the native will pass away, as they are born. However, if Jupiter, or Venus lend aspect to the said position, the loss relates only to the first child. If all planets aspect (the said Mars), then there is no loss at all of children.

42. Special Effects.
Should the 5th House be occupied exclusively by malefics, the native will be devoid of wealth, own men and happiness. If Mars is in the 5th House, he will be distressed (or deformed). Saturn so posited denotes sickness. The occupations of Mercury, Jupiter, or Venus will confer abundant happiness and wealth.

43-44. Enemies.
If the 6th House is aspected by Saturn and occupied by Mars, the native will have fear from enemies. Occupation, or aspect of benefics will keep one free from such fear. The number of enemies (causing trouble) will correspond to the number of planets posited in the 6th House. Rest of the related matters may be understood from the previous pages, (Ch. 30).

45 ABOUT THE 7th HOUSE. If Jupiter, Moon, Venus and Mercury be in the 7th, in any manner (i.e. one of them, two, three, or all of them in the 7th), or other divisions falling in the 7th House, or, if the 7th House be in aspect to these, one will procure a wife corresponding to the planet/s and Rasi/s in question.

46. Should the 7th House contain malefics, or fall in malefic planets divisions, the wife of the native will be destroyed (i.e. adversely affected). These results can be deduced from the Ascendant and the Moon, the stronger of them having more significance. If the Moon be in the 7th (from the Ascendant) along with Saturn, the native will marry a widow.

47. The number of wives will correspond to the number of heavenly bodies aspecting the 7th, or the Navansas part in the 7th House. There will be a single wife, if Leo, Aries, or Scorpio rise in Navansa, or, if Mercury and Jupiter join together in the 7th House.

48. If the 7th House has many divisions of Venus and the Moon, or is occupied by these two, there will be plurality of wives. Specially Venus in the 7th will cause such an effect.

49. Jupiter and Venus related to the 7th House will confer a bride of the same caste, while the Sun, Mars, Saturn and the Moon denote a female belonging to a mean order. As per Ketumalacharya, Venus and Moon related to the 7th House will cause relationship with whores.

50-51. Mars in the 7th House will make one go devoid of wife. If he is, while so posited in aspect to only Saturn, the wife will certainly pass away. Should Mars and Venus be together in the 7th, or 5th, or 9th, the native will beget a languid, or deformed wife.

52. It is the unanimous opinion of all the sages, that, if the Moon and the Sun are, respectively, in the 12th and the 6th, both the native and his wife will be one-eyed.

53. If Saturn occupies the Ascendant, while Venus is in the 7th identical with Ganda Rasi and the 5th is bereft to beneficial aspect, the person acquires a barren wife.

54-55. One will be devoid of a wife and an issue, if malefics occupy the Ascendant, 12th and 7th, while decreasing Moon is in the 5th. Both the native and his wife will be immoral, if the 7th House falls in the various divisions of Saturn and Mars, while Venus is posited in the 7th in aspect to Mars and Saturn.

56. When the 7th House is occupied by Mercury and Venus, the native will be bereft of both wife and progeny. If however this combination receives the aspect of a benefic, there will be obtainment of a wife at an advanced age.

57. Should the Moon, along with even one of Mercury,
58. ABOUT THE 11TH HOUSE.
The native will gain through kings, wars, thieves, forests, quadrupeds etc., if the Sun is placed in the 11th House, or, if the 11th House is aspected, or owned by the Sun.

59. Should the Moon be in the 11th House, or her division so related to the 11th House the native will gain through females and through sales of elephants. If the Moon is declining, these are not much, but an increasing Moon increases these gains greatly.

60. Mars, or his divisions related to the 11th House, as above denotes gains through gold, coral, ornaments, ruby, money, valour, coming and going (i.e. travels), fire and weapons.

61. Should Mercury, or his divisions be related to the 11th, as above, the native will gain by writing, arts, literature and arguments.

62. Jupiter, or his divisions so related to the 11th House indicates gains through headship of a city, royal mercy, Sacrifices (religious), meritorious acts, gold and horses.

63. When the planet Venus, or his divisions are so connected with the 11th House, one will gain through connections with prostitutes, travels, pearls and silver.

64. Saturn, or his divisions so connected with the 11th House indicates gains through towns and villages, acts of lasting nature, iron, donkeys and buffaloes.

65. The effects attributed above stand increased, if benefics aspect the 11th House, will decrease by malefic influence and will remain mixed with the interference of both benefics and malefics.

66. If the 11th House is aspected by (or associated with) all the planets, advent of wealth will be in several ways. The strongest of those will have the highest influence.

67. A planet in its own Sign, or in a friendly Sign will give half of the effects attributed. These effects are full, if it is in its exaltation Sign, very meagre, if it is combust and just one fourth, if inimically placed.

68. The effects relating to the 11th House, as mentioned above will be experienced right from birth, according to Yavanas. But according Lokaksha (a preceptor by that name), kings and heads of zones stand to enjoy abundant gains (as against a common man).

69-70. ABOUT THE 12TH HOUSE.
If the Sun, or weak Moon is placed in the 12th, the natives wealth will be lost to the king. Mars posited in the 12th in aspect to Mercury, will cause losses in several ways Jupiter, the Moon (with increasing rays) and Venus in the 12th will cause growth of wealth, provided there is no aspect from Mars on them. Rest may be understood from the previous portion (Ch. 30).

71. MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.
Even a person born in regal scion will become an artisan, if the Ascendant in Mercurys decanate receives the aspect of the Moon from an Angle.
72. Should Venus be in the 12th House in Virgo identical with Saturns Navansa, while the Luminaries are in the 7th in aspect to Saturn, the natives mother though belonging to a noble race will become a slave.

73. Should Saturn occupy the 2nd House counted from the Sun, while the Moon and Mars, respectively, are in the 10th cusp and 7th House with reference to the Ascendant, the native will always be distressed.

74. The native will suffer from pulmonary and spleen disorders apart from tuberculosis, if the Moon is hemmed between malefics, as Saturn occupies the 7th House.

75. Should there be an exchange between the Sun and the Moon in the Navansa, the native will suffer from phlegmatic disorders. Should the Sun and the Moon be in one Rasi having identical longitudes, the native will be emaciated at all times.

76. Should the 8th, 2nd, 6th and the 12th be, respectively, occupied by the Sun, Moon, Mars and Saturn, the native will lose his eyes due to the affliction caused by the strongest of the tour.

77. If malefics occupy the 6th, 11th, 3rd and 5th, the native will suffer from ear defects, provided there are no aspects from benefic planets. Malefics in the 7th un-aspected by benefics will produce dental afflictions.

78. There will be diseases of the mind, if Saturn occupies the Ascendant, while Mars is in the 5th, or the 9th. Alternatively, Saturn, while being in the Ascendant should be conjunct decreasing Moon to cause the said effects.

Thus ends the 34th Ch. entitled DIFFERENT HOUSES AND WORLDLY AFFAIRS in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 35.

Raja Yogas

1. This science is mainly useful to rulers. Hence I explain in this Ch. the configurations, that make one a king.

2. Kingly/Wealthy Yogas.

One born in a royal scion will become a ruler, if 3, or 4 planets, with strength, occupy their exaltation/Mulatrikona Signs at birth. If 5, or 6 planets be so placed, even a person of mean birth will attain rulership. If one, or two heavenly bodies be so, the native will only be rich, being equal to a king, but not really be a king.

3. According to Yavanas, if only malefics are exalted, the native will become a king indulging, in cruel deeds. But, as per Jeevasarma, such planets will make one valorous, but not a king.
One with such a Yoga (according to Kalyanavarma) will be honoured and will become the head of a region.

4. Explained below are the Yogas, that will make even a person of base birth a king, according to Shastras.

5. If all the four of the Sun, Mars, Saturn and Jupiter, or three of them, be exalted and one of them be simultaneously in the Ascendant, a total of 16 kinds of Raja Yogas are formed. One born even in a mean caste with such a Yoga will become a ruler. Again a different group of 16 Raja Yogas are formed, if one, or two out of the above four planets are in exaltation, while one of the exalted planets occupies the Ascendant, as the Moon remains in Cancer. According to great sages, these 32 Yogas will make one a ruler, who reigns the whole earth, as though it is just a garden.

6. If at the time of birth either the Ascendant, or the Moon be in Vargottama Navansa and be in aspect to 5, or 6 planets other than the Moon (when the Ascendant being considered) one will become a king in spite of his having taken birth in a mean family.

7. If at birth Aries be the Ascendant containing the Moon, Mars and Jupiter one will become an emperor of the whole earth encircled by the seas and the Udayagiri (i.e. the mountain, from which the Sun etc. are supposed to rise) and will roaringly destroy his enemies.

8. Should Jupiter be in Cancer, while Mars occupies Aries identical with the Ascendant, or should both Jupiter and Mars be in Aries Ascendant, the native will become a ruler whose enemies dare not approach him, while his minister will be favourable to him.

9. Should the Moon be in the 11th House along with Venus and Jupiter, while Aries, Capricorn and Virgo are occupied by their Lords, one born in Virgo Ascendant will doubtlessly become a very knowledgeable king.

10. If Cancer Ascendant contain the Moon with full bright rays, while the 7th, 6th, 4th, 10th and 3rd are, respectively, occupied by Mercury, Sun, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn, the native will become a ruler. Simultaneously Mars should be conjunct Saturn.

11. Should Taurus ascend at birth with the Full Moon, as Aquarius, Leo and Scorpio are tenanted, respectively, by Saturn, the Sun and Jupiter, the native will become a king with abundant riches and with conveyances.

12. If Capricorn Ascendant birth along with Saturn, while Pisces, Gemini, Virgo and Sagittarius are, respectively, occupied by the Moon, Mars, Mercury and Jupiter, one will become a ruler equal to Indra, Lord of the Lords.

13. If the Moon is in Pisces identical with Ascendant, while Capricorn, Aquarius and Leo are in their order occupied by Mars, Saturn and the Sun, one will become a ruler well versed in all arts.

14. One will become an unconquerable king, with knowledge of the Vedas, if he takes birth in Capricorn Ascendant with exalted Mars, if it opposed by Full Moon in Cancer.
15. If exalted Sun is in the Ascendant along with the Moon, the native will become a ruler, who will be endowed with pleasing appearance and with whose very reminiscence the enemies will shed tears and will sparkle fire of grief in their hearts.

16. Should Venus, Mars and Jupiter by respectively placed in Aquarius, Aries and Cancer, one born so will become a king spreading his fame to all the directions.

17. If the planet Jupiter, with the splendour of heated yellow metal, be in Cancer identical with Ascendant, while the Sun is in the 10th in Aries and the Moon, Mercury and Venus are in Taurus (in the 11th), one will conquer the entire earth with his own prowess.

18. The native will become a king, if the Moon occupies Sagittarius along with Jupiter, while Mars occupies Capricorn and Mercury in Virgo in Ascendant.

19. If the Luminaries occupy the first half of Sagittarius, while Saturn is exalted, with exceeding strength, in Libra Ascendant and Mars is in Capricorn, one will become a ruler whose valour will provoke only honour from his foes.

20-21. CHANDRADHI YOGA. Adhi Yoga is caused by all benefics being in the 6th, 7th and 8th from the Moon. These Houses should exclude the Sun and not receive any aspect from malefics. One born with this Yoga will become a king possessing a kingdom boundaried by seas whose band of intoxicated elephants will eke out ichor, which the black forest bees will drink (mistaking the ichor to be flowers honey). Such a native will be immune to senescence and sickness, be bereft of fear from enemies, be valorous, fortunate and happy.

22. Mercury in exaltation in the Ascendant, the Moon and Jupiter in Pisces, Mars and Saturn in Capricorn, while Venus is in Gemini: this configuration will produce a ruler destroying his enemies. The dust formed by the movements of his elephant Army will darken the entire earth.

23. One will become a king with the following planetary configuration prevailing at the time of birth: The Sun and Jupiter in Leo, Saturn in Aquarius, the Moon in Taurus, Mars in Scorpio and the Ascendant in Aries.

24. A famous king will be produced, if Aries be the Ascendant at birth along with the Sun therein, Jupiter be in Sagittarius and the Moon with Saturn is in Libra.

25. If the three planets, viz. Jupiter, Mercury and Venus occupy such Rasis, which are angular to their respective own Rasis and be in the process conjunct Saturn, Mars and the Sun, while the Moon is in Taurus, the native will become a king purifying the (four) directions with his unstained fame. The native born in Aries Ascendant with the Sun in deep exaltation will rule the earth boundaried by the seas.

26. Should the Moon be in the 4th House simultaneously falling in a watery Navansha and be with all her splendour, while a benefic is in its own House identical with the Ascendant and malefics are away from Angles, a king is born.
27. The Moon in the state of her Fullness, if be in aspect to Venus, Jupiter and Mercury, while the Lord of the Ascendant is endowed with strength, one so born will become a king. The Ascendant in question should be in a Dual Sign and be in Vargothamamsa.

28. The native, who has three, or four benefic planets in Vargothamamsa will become a king. These planets should be in Angles, not combust, be not weak and be free from the company of malefics.

29. Even, if a single benefic is in Vargothamamsa, the native will become a king, provided the planet in question is strong and be in aspect to a friendly planet.

30. The Full Moon in Cancer Ascendant not falling in inimical subdivisions, will make one a king endowed with gems elephants and horses, provided he has a benefics aspect, while all the other planets occupy Seershodya Signs.

31. If the dispositor of the Moon is in the 3rd, 6th, 10th, or 11th counted from the Moon herself, one born so will become a ruler comparable to Lord Indra provided malefics are bereft of strength and benefics be in Angles identical with Rasis owned by benefics. Alternatively, these benefics instead of falling in such Rasis may be in such Navansas ruled by benefics.

32. The native will become such a valorous king whose Army’s very roaring will quake the earth, if in his radix all planets, being strong, occupy their respective deep exaltation points in aspect to friendly planets and without inimical aspects.

33. Should the Moon be in her deep exaltation degree in aspect to Venus, while all malefics are relegated to 3rd, 6th, 9th and 12th Houses, one will become a king.

34. If the Ascendant Lord and the Moon Sign Lord are together in an Angle at birth, in aspect to auspicious and friendly planets, unaspected by malefics and not being defeated by enemies, the native will become a plentiful king. Alternatively the Moon should be in Lagna and the Lagna Lord in the 9th thereof. The black forest bees consuming the ichor of his Army elephants will sing the glory of such native in all directions.

35. Find out, if the Ascendant is the exaltation Sign of any planet. If the planet in question is aspected by a benefic from an Angle a king is born. However, the first mentioned planet should be in own Navansa, or friendly Navansa, or exaltation Navansa.

36. Saturn with strength, the Sun, Mars, the Moon, Venus and Mercury, respectively, positioned in the second half of Capricorn, Leo, Aries, Cancer, Libra and Virgo will make one an emperor, who will be endowed with spotless fame protecting his population.

37. If all the planets are in Vargothamamsa and are radiant the native will become an emperor of the whole earth subduing all his enemies.

38. The subject will become a ruler, if the Ascendant Lord is in an Angle in aspect to a friendly planet, while the Ascendant is tenanted by a benefic.
39. Should Jupiter and the Moon be in Taurus identical with the Ascendant, while its Lord (Venus), is in his Moolatrikona (or in a Trine from the Ascendant) unaspected by the Sun, Saturn and Mars, the native will be a famous ruler controlling all his foes.
40. If at birth all planets, avoiding inimical and debilitational divisions, occupy their own, or friendly divisions in aspect to friendly planets, while the Moon is Full with her rays, the native will become a ruler.
41. If the Full Moon is exalted and is in Vargothamamsa, in aspect to a benefic planet, the person so born will become a famous ruler in the Dasa of the benefic planet in question. There should not be a strong malefic in an Angle in the said Yoga.
42. If the Lord of the Ascendant and the Moon Sign Lord with strength are together in an Angle, while the Moon occupies a watery Sign identical with a Trine, the native will become a king.
43. Should all the planets at birth be in their own Rasis and in friendly Navansas, or vice versa, the subject will become an emperor.
44. Should all the other planets be in their deep exaltation points, while Mercury is in his exaltation Amsa, the native will rule over the three worlds, receiving honours from Gods and Demons.
45. One will become an emperor devoid of any foes, if the 4th, 1st, 7th and the 10th are, respectively, occupied by Vasishta (one of the Saptharishis), Jupiter, Venus and Agasthya (again one of the Saptharishis).
46. If the Full Moon is in her exaltation Rasi, or in own Rasi, or in own Navansa, while Jupiter posited in an Angle is in aspect to Venus, the native becomes a great emperor provided the Sun is in the Ascendant with strength identical with his own House.
47. Should the Full Moon receive the aspect of all the planets the native will live long and will not be subjected to adverse results, that may be caused by Kemadruma and such other Yogas.
48. The Sun approaching his exaltation Sign (i.e. being in the end of Pisces), while Jupiter and the Moon are in Cancer, the native will become a king endowed with various precious stones.
In this Yoga, the Sun should be simultaneously in a Trine from the Ascendant.
49. Should six planets be in simultaneous exaltation, endowed with radiance and occupy their own Navansas, with strength, the native will become an emperor comparable to Yayati, Sagara and Vena.
50. Should all the benefics with radiant rays occupy the Ascendant, being not combust and unaccompanied by malefics, the native will become a ruler, who will take to penance in forests and hills. The benefics in question should occupy the Rasi and Navansas of benefics.
51. If all benefic planets be in benefics Rasis identical with Panaphara Houses (i.e. 2nd, 5th, 8th and 11th), while malefics occupy Dual Signs, the native so born will become a king, destroying all his enemies and be equal to Brihaspati (Jupiter) in terms of intelligence.
52. If the Lord of the Ascendant is in the Ascendant itself, or is in a friendly Sign in aspect to a friendly planet, the native will become a ruler, destroying his enemies, provided there is a benefic in the Ascendant.

53. If the Full Moon is aspected by Jupiter and be unaspected by others, while there is no planet in debilitation, the native will become a ruler. The said Moon should occupy Aries Navansa. This Raja Yoga is conceived by Yavanas.

54. If the Full Moon occupies an Upachaya House, i.e. 3rd, 6th, 10th, or 11th in exclusive aspect to Jupiter, while the Lord of the Moon Sign occupies the 10th, or 7th, the native will become a ruler.

55. If the Full Moon be exalted and aspected by all the planets the native will become a famous ruler endowed with a vast Army consisting of elephants, horses and armed men and will rule over the entire earth akin to Adisesha (the Divine Snake) painfully bearing the whole earth on its hood.

56. Should the Moon, being fully splendidourous, occupy Leo Navansa, while all other benefics, devoid of malefic connections are angular from the ascending Sign, the native will become a ruler endowed with various elephants.

57. Should the Moon be with Jupiter in the 5th House, while Mars, Mercury and the Moon be not in fall in Rasi and be in their own Navansas, one will become a king with everlasting fame. In this Yoga, Mars and Mercury should be in the 12th and, or the 3rd without combustion.

58. If three planets be in such Signs, which are not inimical, or debilitational, be with full strength, be aspected by benefics and be endowed with splendidourous rays, the native will become a ruler.

59. If the Moon, who is in Vargothama Navansa, or in Cancer in Navansa, is aspected by a strong planet, while the ascending Sign is free from malefic occupation, the native will become an emperor endowed with physical splendour.

60. If the Moon is in a watery Sign/Navansa, while benefic is in the Ascendant and in his own Amsa, the native will become a ruler endowed with many elephants and the like. In this Yoga, malefics should, however, not be in Angles.

61. If the Full Moon occupies Vargothama position, the native will become a ruler of the earth whose horses kicks will spread dust making even the brilliant sun in the sky look, like an early mornings Moon.

62. If at birth all planets are endowed with roles of Yoga karaka, the native will become an emperor. If one planet be so, he will rule a province.

63. Even, if one planet occupies its own Panchamsa, the subject will become a ruler. If all are endowed with strength he becomes an emperor. Notes: Panchamsa division is a little bit different from Trimsamsa. In odd Signs the Panchamsa (i.e. 6 degrees in length) rulerships are in order: Mars, Saturn, Jupiter, Mercury and Venus. The reverse holds good in the case of even Signs.

64. If the Moon is aspected by Jupiter from Taurus, the native will rule over the entire earth.

65. If the Moon is aspected by any planet from its exaltation/Moolatrikona/own Sign, even a hunter will become a king.

66. Should the Moon be in her own Rasi and in her own decanate, one will become a ruler. If simultaneously a benefic is endowed with strength, the native will become a great king.

67. Should the Sun be in his own Navansa, while the Moon is in Cancer Rasi, the native will become a king, endowed with elephants.

68. Even a villager will become a king, if he has Saturn in the Ascendant and Jupiter in the 7th, one of them being in aspect to Venus.

69. The native will doubtless become a king, if Venus rises in a Rasi of Jupiter in aspect to Jupiter himself, while Mercury is in exaltation.

70. If the Sun, the Moon and Venus occupy one single House in exclusive aspect to Jupiter, the native will become a ruler.

71. One will become a ruler, if Mars, Mercury and Venus are in the Ascendant, while both the Moon and Jupiter are in the 7th in aspect to Saturn.

72. If strong Jupiter be in aspect to Mars, while the Sun is in the 10th in Aries, even a base person will become a ruler. However, it is necessary, that the said Jupiter be in Aries Navansa, or in Scorpio Navansa.

73. If the Moon, the Sun and Venus are in the 3rd House, while Mars and Jupiter are, respectively, placed in the 7th and 9th Houses, even a person of mean strata will become a king. The Ascendant in this case should be in Vargothamamsa.

74. One, two, three, or all of Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and the Moon occupying the 9th House with strength and in aspect to a friendly planet, the native will be a king akin to God.

75. If the 9th House is occupied by an exalted planet, or the said 9th House is in aspect to the planet, that will be in exaltation there in (in the 9th), while two others are independently in their Signs of exaltation, the native will become a king and a pater familias.

76. Should the 5th House be occupied by the Moon and Jupiter in aspect to its Lord, as Venus is in Pisces, even a person of base birth will become a king.

77. If the Moon is in the 3rd, or the 10th House, while Jupiter is exalted, the native will be a ruler of the entire earth endowed with Lakshmi, the Goddess of wealth.

78. If Jupiter is exalted and is simultaneously in an Angle, while Venus occupies the 10th, the subject will be a famous king, lording over the entire earth.

79. One born even, as a Brahmin will become a king, if the full Moon is in her own House, while Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn are in the 4th House. The latter 3 should be in the own Navansas simultaneously and be aspected by the Sun.
80. If the Sun is in the 10th identical with his Moolatikona Rasi, or Venus, Jupiter and the Moon are in 3rd, 6th and 11th in own Houses the native will become a king.

81. If the 7th House contains a benefic planet and be in aspect to a friendly planet, while Mars is exalted, one will become a ruler of the earth. The benefic in question should fall in a friendly Navansa also.

82. Should the Sun, the Moon, Mercury and Mars occupy the 10th House and also friendly Navansas, while Venus is in the 9th House, the native will become a ruler, whose elephants ichor will settle the dust emanating by their own treadings. In this Yoga, the planets in the 10th shall not be in fall, in enemies camps, or be in combustions.

83. Should the Sun endowed with strength be exalted in the 10th House in the company of Jupiter, as strong Venus is in the 9th House and in own Navansa, while the Ascendant shares benefic sub-divisions, or has a benefic planet in it and is aspected by Mercury, the native will become a ruler illumining the entire world with his fame.

86. One born in Abhijit star will become a valorous king even though he may be of base order by birth.

87. One born with the Moon in Krittika and simultaneously in Gandanta Lagna, or Vishti (Bhadra) Karana, or Parigha Yoga, or Vyatipata Yoga will become a king.

88. The Moon in the 4th House identical with Cancer, while Mercury, Jupiter and Venus are, respectively, in the Ascendant, 7th and 10th Houses: the native will become a king.

89-90. If all the planets occupy six alternative Signs from the Ascendant, Chakra Yoga is formed producing a king.

91. Should all the planets occupy the first six Houses commencing from the Ascendant, one will become a king. Should these be in only four Houses from the Ascendant, he will become a kings minister.

92. Should all the planets be relegated to the 5th, 4th, 3rd and 10th Houses, one will become a king endowed with wealth, sons, relatives, conveyances and servants.

93. Nagara Yoga is formed, if all the planets are disposed in the 10th, 7th, 4th and Ascendant, which will make one rule the earth.

94. Should the benefic planets be entirely in the 4th Ascendant and the 7th, 4th and 11th Houses, while Mars, the Sun and Saturn are in the 3rd, 6th and 11th Houses, one born will become a ruler according to Yavanas.

95. A Raja Yoga known, as Kalasa Yoga is formed, if all benefics are in the 11th and 9th Houses.

96. Again a Raja Yoga named, as Kumbha Yoga is formed, if the 3rd, 5th and 11th Houses are occupied by one each, while the 6th and 7th are occupied by 2 planets each.

97. Explained above are such Raja Yogas, which will make even people of base birth reach royal status. The following are royal combinations exclusively applicable to those of royal scion.
98. One will be a king receiving honours from the entire world, if the Sun, the Moon, Saturn and Mars are, respectively, in Leo, Aries, Aquarius and Capricorn. Jupiter in this Yoga should be in Sagittarius, or Pisces, while Leo be Ascendant.

99. If a single benefic occupies the Ascendant with strength, while other benefics are in the 9th and yet other planets be in the Ascendant, 2nd, or Upachaya Houses, one will become a king with perennial wealth. The elephants of his Army will rain ichor misleading it to be a cloudy atmosphere.

100. Should Jupiter be in the 4th identical with own House, while the Full Moon is in the 9th and others are in the 3rd and Ascendant, an intelligent king is born endowed with all kinds of wealth and conveyances.

101. A very famous king is born, if the Moon is exalted in the Ascendant, while Jupiter, Venus, Mercury, Mars and the Sun are, respectively, in the 2nd House, Libra, Virgo, Aries and Leo.

102. A king famous for his virtues is born, if the Sun and the Moon are in the 10th, Saturn is in Ascendant Jupiter in the 4th and Venus, Mercury and Mars are in the 11th House.

103. If Jupiter occupies the Ascendant, other than Capricorn, one born will be a king endowed with elephants etc.

104. One will become a king, if Mars is in the Ascendant and Saturn and the Sun are in the 10th, while Jupiter, Venus, Mercury and Moon are, respectively, in the 7th, 9th, 11th and 4th Houses.

105. When even the weak Moon in exaltation can herself produce a king what of Full Moon in exaltation?

106. If the Full Moon occupies an Angle other than the Ascendant, the native will be a king endowed with wealth, conveyances and valour.

107. If Venus is in aspect to Jupiter, the native will become a valorous king possessing many elephants.

108. Should Mercury be aspected by Jupiter at birth, the native will become a honourable king.

109. Should the Ascendant Lord in exaltation aspect the Moon, the subject will become a king endowed with wealth and conveyances and will conquer his enemies.

110. One will become a fortunate king and endowed with fame and success over rivals, if exalted Moon aspects both Mercury and Venus.

111. The subject will be a ruler endowed with perennial wealth, if the Moon occupies the Navansa of a bosom friend in aspect to Venus.

112. For a day birth, if the Moon is in Cancer Navansa, or in a very friendly Navansa and is aspected by Jupiter, the native will doubtlessly become a king.

113. When even a Brahmin can become a king, if the Lord of Moon Sign is in Angle with strength, what doubt is there of a person of royal scion with a similar configuration becoming a ruler?
114. Should the Sun be in a thick friends Sign in aspect to the Moon, the native will rule over Anga (a province so named in olden days related now to Bhagalpur) and be endowed with wealth and virtues.

115. Should Mercury be exalted and be in conjunction with the Moon, the native will rule over Magadha (the southern part of modern Bihar) the ichor of whose elephants will spread perfume to all the comers.

116. If the Full Moon is endowed with strength the native will become a king, who will conquer his foes.

117. When even a cowherd will become a king, if the Ascendant Lord is strong and in an Angle, what is there then for a person born of a royal scion with a similar Yoga not to become a king?

118. If Jupiter occupies Cancer identical with the 10th House counted from the Moon the native will become a Lord of the entire earth.

119. If the Sun is in Aries along with the Moon, the native will rule over the region consisting of Kerala, Karnataka andhra, Dravida and Chola (identified with the modern southern India).

120. If Jupiter occupies Cancer along with the Moon, the subject will rule over Kashmir.

121. If Jupiter and Venus are in their exaltation Signs, or in their own Houses a person belonging to royal scion will surely become a king. But one of these two Signs should be one of Angles, 9th, 2nd and 11th Houses.

122. If a benefic planet, endowed with directional, positional and temporal strengths, is in an Angle and be bereft of aspect, or conjunction of a malefic planet, the native will become a king. Alternatively, if 3 heavenly bodies be with such strengths occupy Angles, even then the native will become a king.

123. If Mercury, Jupiter and Venus occupy the 2nd Sign from the Sun, without combustion and without malefic aspects/conjunctions the native will rule over the land with 3 seas, as its boundaries.

124. If the Full Moon akin to a splendourous lotus (i.e. endowed with full rays) is aspected by her disposer and by a strong benefic, the native will become a king skillful in causing injury to womens honour, be widely famous and be just.

125. Should the 2nd House be occupied by both Jupiter and Venus, one will become a king, who will overpower his enemies.

126. These Yogas, as explained supra will make a person of royal scion a king. The skies will be covered with the dust emanating by the treadings of elephants, horses and armed men of such natives Army.

127. If Mars and Saturn occupy the Ascendant, while Mercury, Venus and Jupiter are in the 4th, or, when Capricorn rises with Mars in it and the Navans Ascendant is owned by Saturn himself, the native will become a king.
128. One will become the Lord of an island, if Cancer ascends with Jupiter and the Moon therein, while Venus, Saturn and the Sun are exalted, as Mars is in his own divisions.

129. If Jupiter and Venus together occupy Pisces, while the Full Moon is exalted (in Amsa), as the Sun occupies Aries in aspect to a malefic planet, the native will become a king and the dust emanating, as a consequence of the movements of his Army will cloud the Sun, so that the lotus will close its petals due to misconception of the sun having set.

130. If the 3rd and the 6th are occupied by fallen/inimical planets, while a strong benefic is in an Angle with due deep exaltation, as the Moon is in Cancer identical with the 10th House, one born during night time will become an emperor holding all the three worlds under a single (royal) umbrella.

131. Should Jupiter with his splendourous rays be in the Ascendant, while the Moon is in the 11th in aspect to Mercury and the Sun is in the 2nd from the Moon un-aspected by Mars one will become an emperor of the entire earth endowed with elephants, horses etc.

132. The Sun with deep exaltation in Aries Ascendant along with the Moon and Mars, as Venus is in Taurus along with Saturn and Jupiter in the 9th in Sagittarius: this Yoga will produce a learned king, who will conquer his enemies.

133. A virtuous, famous and valorous ruler is born, if Mercury, Jupiter and Venus are together in the 5th, while the Sun and Saturn are in the 6th and 9th Houses in their order, as Mars is exalted.

134. If the Sun, Venus and Saturn, respectively, are in aspect to Jupiter, Moon and Mars, while a Movable Sign is Ascendant, a famous and successful king is born.

135. Mercury in Virgo identical with the Ascendant, Mars in the 3rd House, Saturn in the 6th House and Venus in the 4th House: this configuration will give birth to a king, who will conquer the world with his own strength.

136. One will be a king lording over the earth, if Saturn is in Capricorn Ascendant, while the Sun, Venus, Mars and the Moon are, respectively, in the 7th, 8th, Scorpio and Cancer.

137. A fickle minded king is born, if Mars is exalted in the Ascendant, as the 9th and the 7th are, respectively, occupied by Saturn and the Luminaries.

138. Capricorn Ascendant containing Saturn, Cancer containing its Lord and Jupiter, Virgo containing its Lord in aspect to Venus: this configuration will produce an unconquerable ruler.

139. Venus in the Ascendant, Jupiter in Sagittarius with friendly aspect and the Moon in Cancer: this group of heavenly bodies will make one a king, who will construct wells, tanks and temples and will honour Brahmins and Gods.

140. With even a single planet with unobstructed rays, if exalted in an Angle and the Sun being in Angle with extreme power in aspect to Jupiter posited in the 5th House, the native will become an honourable king.
141. If Saturn, Mars and the Sun are in the 6th, or even in the 3rd House, while Jupiter occupies the 11th House identical with Leo one will become a king conquering his enemies with his own might. In this Yoga, Jupiter should be aspected by other benefics, but not by the Luminaries.

142. If Libra is Ascendant with Jupiter in it, while Venus is in Taurus, a king is born. While the two heavenly bodies are so disposed at birth there be blowing pleasant breeze, the skies be clear and the other planets should be enjoying full rays and temporary friendship (by stipulated placements).

143. A famous king is born with the following planetary map: Mars, the Moon and Mercury in the 12th and the 3rd avoiding debilitation/combustion; but being in their respective own Navansas, while the 5th House is occupied by Jupiter and the Moon.

144-145. If the Moon Sign Lord and the Ascendant Lord be with strength and be posited in an Angle identical with a close friends Sign and aspect the Ascendant, Pushkala Yoga is formed. The effects are: the native will become a king on whose invasion the band of elephants of his enemies will exude ichor perfuming all the corners.

146. If the Ascendant Lord is in the beginning of a Sign, the native will be an Army chief, or Justice with the king. If the planet in question be in the middle of a Sign, he will be the head of a state. He will only be a village chief, if the Ascendant Lord is in the end of a Sign.

147. The sun in Revati, Poorva Phalguni, Uttara Phalguni, or Moola identical with Ascendant will make one the head of a country extending to only hundred yojanas.

148. If Venus is in the Ascendant, one becomes a ruler, provided the planet in question simultaneously occupies one of the asterisms, viz. Krittika, Revati, Swati, Pushyami and Aswini.

149. If the Navansa Ascendant Lord be exalted in an Angle, the native will become an emperor. If the Lords of the Moon Sign and Ascendant are in an Angle, the subject will be a wealthy king.

150. If the Full Moon in Pisces is in aspect to a friendly planet, the subject will become an emperor whose orders be obeyed by all.

151-152. Should exalted Sun be in the 11th along with Jupiter, while Mars is in the 10th and the Moon with Venus in the 9th, a king is born. Even the celestial horses of the Sun-Gods chariot will take pleasure at the pleasant smell emanating from the dust spread over on the earth by the treading horses the natives Army.

153. Even though the native may have been born out of wedlocks, the Moon with Saturn in an Angle will make on wealthy king.

154. One will become a king with broad chest defeating all his enemies, if the 2nd House contains Venus, Jupiter and Mercury, while relegated to the 7th are the Moon, the Sun (?) and Mars.

155. Strong Sun and Moon in Cancer, another planet with clear rays exalted elsewhere, Jupiter in the Ascendant and Mars in the 6th: the five heavenly bodies so disposed will make one a king whose Armys movements will cover the skies with dust.
156. If the Moon is in the 8th degree of Aquarius identical with a Trine one will become a king, who will be favourable to all.

157. If Mars is placed in the 7th degree of Aries, or in the 21st degree of Gemini, the native will become a king.

158. If at birth the Moon is positioned in the 15th degree of Aquarius, or in the 10th degree of Cancer, one will become a king.

159. A famous king is born, if Sagittarius 20 is occupied by Jupiter. Similarly Leo 15 occupied either by the Sun, or by Mercury will produce a king.

160. A valorous king is denoted, who will acquire kingdom with his own might, if the Moon is placed on the 15th degree of any Sign, but obtaining 5 Vargas of one and the same Sign.

161. If Saturn occupies the 5th degree of Capricorn, a fortunate king is born, who will be adorabe on the earth, be meritorious and be interested in Shastras.

162. If both the Moon and Jupiter are on the 5th degree of Cancer, one will become an inviolable king, just as the Sun is head of the planets.

163. If the Moon is in Pushyami, or in Vargothama, or in Krittika, or Aswini Nakshatra an emperor is born. Similar effect will come to pass, when birth is in Tripushkara. Notes: The first Yoga is clear in this Sloka. The second one needs clarification about Tripushkara.

164. If Mars is in Aswini, or Anuradha, or Dhanishta, a Raja Yoga is formed. This applies only, if the said planet is in Vargothama Navansa, or in exaltation Rasi simultaneously.

165. An excellent king is born, if the Moon with rays akin to white conch is in the 10th House, while strong Venus is in the 9th House and all others relegated to the 11th House.

166. If all the other planets are disposed in 3rd, 6th, 10th and 11th Houses counted from the Moon, a king is born, who will be a repository of honour and will rule over the entire earth.

167. If Jupiter, Moon and Sun, respectively, occupy 5th, 9th and 3rd Houses, when counted from Mars, the native will become a king, equal to Kubera (the Lord of celestial riches and regent of the North).

168. Counted from Mercury, if the Sun is in the 3rd, Venus in the 4th and all others in the 5th, a king is born, who will have 3 seas in the form of periphery for his land. In this Yoga, no planet shall be in fall, or in inimical Sign.

169. If the 2nd, 4th and 10th Houses counted from Jupiter are, respectively, occupied by Saturn, the Sun and the Moon, while all others are in the 6th, a prince will become a ruler.

170. If Mercury and Saturn are in the 4th and 8th counted from Venus, while all others are in the 3rd and 11th, one will become a king.

171. If Venus and Mercury occupy an Angle from Saturn, while the rest are in their exaltation Signs, an excellent king will be born.

172. If all the planets are in the 3rd, 5th and 11th Houses from the Sun, one will become a king, or a minister, or an Army chief.
173. Should there be a malefic in the 11th from the Ascendant Lord, who has clear rays, while a benefic is in an Angle (from the Ascendant), the native will become a king, who will have self-earned kingdom.

174. A virtuous king is denoted, with honours from other kings, if all malefics occupy the 11th, 3rd and 6th Houses counted from the Moon Sign Lord and be in aspect to benefics.

175. If Jupiter occupies Aries/Leo, while Mars is in his own Sign in aspect to the Sun one of royal descent will become a king. It is understood, that no other planet shall be in fall in the nativity.

176. If Sunapha Yoga etc. from the Moon are found operating in Angles, one born in a royal scion will definitely become a ruler of men.

177. Should the Moon and Jupiter be in an Angle from the Ascendant in aspect to Venus, the native will become a king with wide spread fame provided there is no debilitated planet in the nativity.

178. If Venus is in the Ascendant in aspect to Mercury and Saturn, while Jupiter is in the 5th, the native will become an emperor. However, the said Venus should be strong and in his own Navansa simultaneously.

179. If the Sun and the Moon are in their own Houses (while one of them is) in aspect to Jupiter, the native will become a king.

180. Mercury in Cancer and Jupiter in Sagittarius in aspect to both Mars and the Sun will make the native a ruler.

181. Should the Moon, Jupiter and Venus be, respectively, positioned in Pisces, Cancer and Aquarius, the native will become a ruler.

182. If Saturn is in Aquarius in aspect to Venus, while the Sun is in the 11th and the Moon in a watery Sign, one will become a king.

183. If Mars posited in his own House is aspected by Jupiter and the Sun, or Mercury posited in Taurus, if aspected by Jupiter, a ruler is born.

184. If the Full Moon is in her exaltation/own Rasi, or Navansa and be aspected by 5 planets having temporary friendship, while no planet is fallen, the native will become a ruler.

185. Saturn in the 11th, Jupiter with Venus in the Ascendant, the Moon in the 10th, the Sun in the 4th, Mercury in the 2nd along with Mars: this configuration will make one a king endowed with vast Army, wealth and conveyances.

Thus ends the 35th Ch. entitled RAJA YOGAS in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.
Chapter 36.

Planetary Rays
1. The rays possessed by a planet are important (in delineation of a horoscope) according to Manindhacharya. I explain below the same.
2. When in exaltation, the number of rays possessed by the Sun are 10, the Moon 9, Mars 5, Mercury 5, Jupiter 7, Venus 8 and Saturn 5.

3-4. ANOTHER SCHOOL OF THOUGHT.
The above view is held by Manindha, Maya and Badarayana, as enunciated by Mahendra Shastra. However, according to another school of thought, all planets uniformly possess 7 rays each, while exaltation. While these two are authoritative schools, majority lean towards equal distribution of 7 rays. All agree, that at debilitation, the figure is zero for each planet.

5. ABHIMUKHA AND PARANMUKHA RASMI.
When a debilitated planet transits towards its exaltation Sign, the rays are Abhimukha (i.e. facing upwards) and, when an exalted planet goes towards its debilitation Sign, the rays are Paranmukha (facing downwards). For the intermediary positions, the rays should be calculated by rule of three process.

6. TO ARRIVE AT NUMBER OF RAYS.
Note the position of the planet in Rasis, degrees etc., for which the number of rays is to be computed. Deduct from this its (deep) debilitation point. If the remainder is in excess of six Signs, reduce it again from 12. Multiply the product by the maximum number of rays allotted to the planet concerned and divide by six. The resultant figure will represent the number of rays obtained by the planet by virtue of its position at birth.

7-9. RECTIFICATION OF RAYS.
If the planet is in the dwadasamsa of its friend, double the product, as obtained above. If it is in its own dwadasamsa, own Rasi, retrogression/exaltation Sign the product should be trebled. If it is in its enemies dwadasamsa, 1/16th of the rays will be lost. The same applies to a debilitated planet. A combust planet, excepting Venus and Saturn, loses all the rays. A planet, that has just begun to retrograde will have two-fold rays, while the one, that has just assumed direct motion from retrogression will lose only 1/8th of the number of rays.

10-11. EFFECTS OF NUMBER OF RASMIS TOTALLY CONTRIBUTED BY THE SEVEN PLANETS.
If the rays be a maximum of five, the native will be miserable, is of ignoble descent, will depend on others, be indigent and will join base men. Should it be from 6 to 10, he will be a servant, will be intent on going to places other than of his birth (for living), be devoid of good luck and be dirty.
12-16. If the rays are between 11 and 15, one will be, respectively, very learned, virtuous, righteous, beautiful and will possess merits due to his descent. If the rays are between 16 and 20, he will be, respectively, supreme among his men, be wealthy, be famous among men, be glorious and be honoured by his men. The effects stated apply to the number of rays in the ascending order. If the rays are from 21 to 25 in number, the effects, respectively, are: honour, fortune, courage, scholarship and kingship. 26 rays denote a person, who will have all-round success in his efforts. 27 to 32 rays, respectively, denote: a dependent on the king, wealth and gains through the king, ministership, honours from the king, royal patronage and rulership over fifty villages. 17-20. If the total number of rays is 33, he will rule over 1000 villages, while with 34 rays he will obtain leadership over 3000 villages. 35 rays denote abundant wealth, strength, provincial rulership, fame, fortune etc. One will head over a lakh villages with 36 rays. Three lakh villages will come under his control with 37/38 rays.

21-25. If the total rays be 39, he will become a ruler causing happiness to all. With 40 rays he will rule over vast lands and the wives of the enemies crushed by him will reach their cries all over, so that he will become prominent. One, two and three seas will be the boundary/boundaries of the kingdom of the native/s with 41/42/43 rays. One with 44 rays will be an emperor, will honour Gods and Brahmins, be long-lived and be mighty. According to the rays crossing 44, one will rule over other islands, be free from obstacles, be honoured by one and all and be equal to Indra in valour.

26. SPECIAL EFFECTS.
If the total rays are 45, or 46, the native will always enjoy auspicious effects and will lord over the entire earth.

27. If the rays are 47, the native will undertake the responsibility of maintaining the whole earth, be devoid of enemies, be an emperor akin to Indra and be honoured by all.

28-29. ABHIMUKHA AND PARANMUKHA.
If a planet has Abhimukha rays the good effects stated will increase, while Paranmukha rays will reduce the good effects. More number of rays will multiply the results, while less number of rays will diminish the effects. According to rays only, ones baseness, or excellence will come to pass.

Thus ends the 36th Ch. entitled PLANETARY RAYS in Kalyana Vamases SARAVALI.
Chapter 37.

Panchamahapurusha Yogas

1. Sri Devakirti Raja explained the Panchamahapurusha Yogas (denoting Great Men), which I explain below clearly.

2. Venus, Mars, Saturn, Jupiter and Mercury remaining in their respective own Houses, or exaltation Signs, identical with Angles, cause Malavya, Ruchaka, Sasa, Hamsa and Bhadra Yogas, respectively. The effects thereof have been elaborately explained by the ancient preceptors, which I briefly narrate here.

3-4. MALAVYA YOGA.

One born in Malavya Yoga will have thin (not fleshy) lips, even physique, gray complexion, thin waist, splendour equal to that of the moon, majestic voice akin to that of a tusker, pleasant odor of the body, piercing sight, even and white teeth, hands extending to the knees and a longevity of seventy years. His face will be 13 inches in length and 10 inch broad, while the two ear-holes are 10 inch apart. (Angula denoted here, as an inch means 8 barley-corn-wide) He rules Laata, Malawa and Sindhu.

5-7. RUCHAKA YOGA.

The native of Ruchaka Yoga will have a long face, pure splendour, great strength, valour, attractive eye brows, blue (very black) hair, penchant for war, knowledge of Mantras, be a leader of thieves, will have blood-red complexion, be very valorous, be a conqueror of enemies, will have a neck akin to conch, be chief, cruel, will honour Gods and Brahmins, thin shanks, will have marks of a staff (actually means a staff with a skull at the top deemed to be Shivas weapon and carried by ascetics), cord, bull, arrow, diamond, lute etc. on the hands and legs, will be 100 inch tall, be skilled in Mantras and black magic, will weigh 100 tulas (one tula is 100 palas) and the circumference of his loins will correspond to the length of his face. He will rule places consisting of Vindhya and Sahya. He will live up to seventy and will attain his end through weapons/fire and will go to heavens.

8-10. SASA YOGA. One born in Sasa Yoga will have small teeth small face, fast pace, be crafty, very valorous, interested in forests, hills and forts, will have weak loins and long body, be famous, be an Army chief, skillful in all assignments, will have somewhat protruding teeth, be a metallurgist, be fickle minded, will have eyes resembling the lotus, be interested in the fair sex, will enjoy others wealth, be devoted to his mother, weak waist, be very intelligent and will fault others. His hands will contain marks of couch, conch, wheel, garland, lute etc. According to sages he will be a ruler of some place and will die at 70.

11-13. HAMSA YOGA. One born in Hamsa Yoga will have a reddish face, elevated nose, beautiful feet, great virile power (indriya is here interpreted, as virile power coming under Jupiter), be whitish in complexion, will have broad cheeks, reddish nails, (mellifluous) voice, like that of the swan, be phlegmatic, will possess palms and soles with marks of trident, fish, arrow etc., honey-coloured and round eyes, be fond of sporting in water, will be delighted in sexually uniting with females, will weigh 1600 tulas and be 96 inch tall. He will lord over Sura Sena, Gandharva and places between the Ganges and Yamuna. His end will come later on in a forest. His longevity will be hundred years.

14-15. BHADRA YOGA.

One born with the Bhadra Yoga will have a face, akin to that of a tiger, will imitate the elephant in gait, will have broad chest, long and strong hands and square body, will be sensuous, will have soft hair over cheeks, be learned, will possess hands and legs akin to lotus, be endowed with prowess and will be conversant with Yoga. His palms and soles will contain symbols of conch, sword, elephant, arrow, wheel, lotus, plough etc. His body will emanate smell akin to earth settled with fresh drizzles (particularly first of the season), sandal paste and elephants ichor.

He will know the meanings of Shastras, be valorous, will have well-knitted eye brows, will walk, like an elephant, will have genital organs in concealed position (like that of a horse, or a tusker) and a beautiful belly, be righteous, will have attractive fore face, be valorous, firm in prowess, will have black and short hair, be independent in all his undertakings, will not forgive (even) his own men, will allow his friends to enjoy his wealth, will weigh 2000 palas, will rule over the mid portion of the country, will possess females etc., be always happy and will die at 80.

19-21. GENERAL.

He can become a monarch, if his voice is similar to the sound of a conch, drum, tusker, bull, or a roaring cloud. In such case he will rule over the entire earth and will conquer his enemies. One with viscid tongue, skin, teeth, eyes, nails and hair will become a ruler. If these are rough, he will experience penury. One with glossy, splendourous and bright complexion will become a king. Otherwise he will be poor and miserable. If these are meddling, he will be a middle class person with wealth, children, happiness etc.

Thus ends the 37th Ch. entitled PANCHA MAHA PURUSHA YOGAS in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.
Chapter 38.

Effects Of Natural Constituents And Primordial Compounds

1. Mars denotes ones prowess, Mercury greatness (or physical weight), Jupiter voice, Venus splendour (or friendship) and Saturn complexion (physical brightness).

2. EFFECTS OF SATTTVA GUNA.
If Sattva is predominant in a native, he will be highly merciful, will possess many wives and attendants, will be firm in disposition, will be a sweet and truthful speaker, will honour Gods and Brahmins and will be of forgiving temperament.

3. EFFECTS OF RAJO GUNA.
One with predominant RajoGuna will be valorous, be skillful in fine arts and literature, be fond of uniting with women, be skillful, showy, jocular, spirited and be interested in music and gambling.

4. EFFECTS OF TAMOGUNA.
With TamoGuna predominant, the native will be foolish, indolent, will cheat others, be irascible, miserable, be a talebearer, be devoid of good conduct, unkempt. blind due to lasciviousness, miserly and careless.

5. PRIMORDIAL COMPOUNDS (PANCHA BHUTAS).
According to the strengths of Jupiter, Venus, Saturn, Mars and Mercury, the native will acquire the effects of the five Tatwas, viz. Ether, Water, Air, Fire and Earth. The strongest of the planet will impart corresponding temperament, viz. windy, bilious, or phlegmatic. If many planets attain strengths, these derivations will be mixed.

6. EFFECTS OF AKASA TATWA (ETHER).
One with predominant characteristics of Ether will be skillful in grammar and meanings, be an expert in justice, be bold, know ledgeable, will have a broad face and peculiar physical joints, weak hands and feet and be quite tall.

7. EFFECTS OF JALATATWA (WATER).
The native with predominant Watery nature will be quite charming, will endure heavy loads, will speak sweetly, be tremulous in appearance, will have many friends, be a king and will not be lastingly bold.

8. EFFECTS OF VAYU TATWA (AIR).
One of predominant Airy nature will have an emaciated body, be easily given to anger, be deeply merged in his work, be of wandering disposition, be liberal, fair in complexion and be an inviolable king.

9. EFFECTS OF FIERY TATWA.
One with predominant Fiery character, will be valorous, be hunger-stricken, be very sharp, learned, emaciated, fair in complexion, inimical, will have beautiful arms, will be a voracious eater and be tall.

10. EFFECTS OF PRITHVI TATWA (EARTH).
One with Earthy nature will emanate the good smell of camphor, of jasmine and of blue lotus from his person, will enjoy abundantly, will possess voice, akin to that of a (roaring) lion, or clouds, be firm in disposition and be endowed with prowess.

11. BIRTH WITH AKASA TATWA.
One born with the reflection of AKASA TATWA (ether) will be endowed with a physique with the brightness of crystal and of a gem. Just as wealth confers happiness this reflection will make one achieve effects of TriVargas (i.e. the three objects of worldly existence, viz. Dharma, or moral merits, Artha, or attainment of riches, or worldly prosperity and Kama, or desire of sensual enjoyment these three ends form the well known triad excluding Moksha, or final emancipation).

12. BIRTH WITH JALA TATWA (water).
One born with the reflection of watery tatwa will be glossy, will have the complexion of white Durva grass, will receive protection as, if from the mother and will prosper.

13. BIRTH WITH VAYU TATWA (air).
One born with the reflection of Vayu Tatwa will be akin to black clouds (that are going just to cause heavy rains), will emanate foul smell, be very foolish, will have a dirty and coarse physique, be subjected to great miseries and will experience poverty, diseases, evils and financial destruction.

14. BIRTH WITH AGNI TATWA.
One born with the reflection of Agni (fiery) Tatwa will be bright, as the burning flame, will confer severe punishments, will conquer all his enemies and the earth by his own valour, will possess jewels, gold etc., will attain success in all his undertakings and will be free from diseases and grief.

15. BIRTH WITH EARTHY TATWA.
One born with the reflection of Prithwi (earth) Tatwa will emanate smell from the body akin to the smell coming out of earth, when sprinkled with fresh drizzles. He will have charming teeth, nails, hair and body. He will attain merits and happiness and be dear to all.

16-17. SIGNS OF PREDOMINANT WINDY TEMPERAMENT.
One with predominant windy temperament will be benumbed with cold and shivering, will speak much and will walk fast, be fond of moving in boats, be valorous, spiteful, sickly, unfortunate, unjust, will not be very friendly disposed, will have knowledge of music, be emaciated, be skilful in acquiring friends, will fly in the skies in dreams, be devoid of courage and gratitude, will have rough hair, will have splay feet and crooked arms, be irascible, will have lost splendour and will face financial losses.

18-19. SIGNS OF PREDOMINANT BILIOUS TEMPERAMENT. One with predominant bile will emanate foul smell from his person, be less distressed, greatly intelligent, be easily satisfied, will have large transparent nails, large eyes, hands and feet, will resemble an old man, will suffer morbid heat, be a scholar, be fearless, fond of cold articles, will not fear even at the hands of his enemies, will be affectionate to all and will be fond of food. His dreams will be about gold, sun, light, forest-conflagration, kimsuka (a kind of tree, which yields charming red blossoms, which however have no fragrance), precious stones, karnikara (the pericarp of a lotus, alternatively a kind of flower with excellent hue, but no smell and hence disliked), red lotus, eunuch, blood and lightning.

20-21. SIGNS OF PREDOMINANT PHLEGMATIC TEMPERAMENT. One with predominant phlegmatic temperament will be wealthy, will have clung joints, be courageous and strong, will have a bright and charming physique, be a recipient (of gifts, benefits etc.), be Sattvik, will have voice akin to the sound of a drum and roaring clouds, be enduring, fair in complexion, will have reddish eyes, will enjoy sweet drinks, (sometimes) will be highly inimical, be grateful, be friendly to all and will honour elders. His dreams will be seas, rivers, coral stones, lakes, swan, conch, stars, lily, snowfall etc. These effects are attributed by the sages.

22. LUMINARIES IN MAHAPURUSHA YOGAS.
Though Mars etc. may be strong in the respective cases of Pancha Mahapurusha Yogas (vide Sloka 2 of this Ch.), if the Sun and the Moon are weak, the person will not attain kinghood, but in the period of the concerned planet will be endowed with children and wealth.

Thus ends the 38th Ch. entitled GUNA TATWA PHALA in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 39.

Obstructions To RajaYogas
1. Earlier, the Yogas of kinghood have been explained. There can be some factors, which prevent the effects of such Yogas, which I explain in this Ch..
2. Out of Mars, Saturn, Jupiter and the Sun, if two, or more be in fall and one of them simultaneously be in the Ascendant, as the Moon is in Scorpio, the RajaYogas will become futile.
3. The RajaYogas in the horoscope are only name sake, if the Moon being weak is in the last Navansa of a Movable Sign, or in the 8th Navansa of a Fixed Sign, or in the first Navansa of a Common Sign and is without aspect from any other planet.
4. Same effects will come to pass, if all malefics occupy Angles identical with debilitation/inimical Signs, while benefics are shunted to the 12th, 6th and 8th Houses.

5. If the Ascendant is in Vargottama position without aspect to any planet, the Raja Yogas will only be a failure.

6. Even a hundred kingly Yogas will be of no avail, if Aquarius rises, while 3 heavenly bodies are in their Signs of fall.

7. If there is no benefic in an Angle, or with the Moon, while 4 planets are either in fall, or in combustion, or in inimical Signs, the Raja Yogas are marred.

8. Should the Sun be in his own Navansha, while the Moon is in combustion and in aspect to malefics without the aspect of benefics, the native will enjoy rulership (with the help of other Raja Yogas) only to relinquish the kingdom soon and will become miserable.

9. Should the Moon lend her inimical aspect to the Ascendant Lord, while the Sun, Mars and Saturn are in their order in the 3rd, 6th and 7th, the Raja Yogas will become ineffective. Benefics should in this case be not in Angles, but suffer combustion.

10. If five heavenly bodies are in fall at birth the Raja Yogas will not come to pass.

11. If meteor, noise of contending winds in the sky (or earth quake, or thunder), Vyatipata, or Upaketu be seen at the time of birth, the good Raja Yogas stand nullified.

12. If Trisankhu Nakshatra (Trisankhu was a monarch of the solar race, who remained suspended with his head towards the earth, as a constellation in the southern hemisphere) rises at the time of one's birth, while the Ascendant is occupied by Saturn, as there is fall of a comet, the Raja Yogas do not come to pass.

13. If the planets capable of causing Raja Yoga are inclined to enter in war, or are becoming splendourless, or about to lose their strength, the Raja Yogas will stand cancelled.

14. If weak Moon is in her deep degree of debilitation the Raja Yogas get destroyed, just as a king going against an astrologer.

15. The Sun in the 10th degree of Libra will destroy all Raja Yogas, just as miserliness eclipses all the good attributes of a person.

16. This Sloka is repeated in the original. The meaning is identical with that of Sloka 15 above.

17. Even though other planets may be in their Mulatrikona, exaltation, or own Signs, while the Sun is singly in deep fall, the Raja Yogas will be unavailable.

18. If Jupiter occupies Capricorn, as Ascendant, while the Moon is not in Cancer, the native will become miserable, just as a penniless lewdster in the place of a courtesan.

19. If in the formation of Kemadruma Yoga, the Moon is without the aspect of another planet, the Raja Yogas lose their existence and the native will be devoid of good conduct.

20. If 3, or more planets be in fall even the son of an emperor ruling over the entire earth will take to begging, be miserable, be dirty and penniless.
21. If 5 planets occupy inimical Signs, or are in combustion, while the Sun, or the Moon is not in exaltation, the kingly Yogas will become ineffective.

22. If Venus occupy his debilitation Navansa, even a vast kingdom is deprived from the native.

23. RajaYogas have been explained earlier. The combinations marring such kingly states are given in this Ch.. The stronger one of these two will only prevail.

24. RAJA YOGA.
The Sun in Virgo, Mars in Scorpio along with Jupiter, as the Moon is in Aries: this configuration will produce a king the dust of whose elephants will darken the-skies.

Thus ends the 39th Ch. entitled OBSTRUCTIONS TO RAJAYOGAS in Kalyana Varnas SARAVALI.

Chapter 40.

Calculation of Longevity

1. The people all over remain perplexed over the question of longevity. So I narrate the relative principles based on the Shastras here under.

2-3. SELECTION OF SYSTEM FOR LONGEVITY COMPUTATION. Out of the trio the Sun, the Moon and the Ascendant, if the Ascendant is the strongest, Amsayurdaya should be resorted to. Pindayu is the best, if the Sun is predominant, while Nisargayu is the apt choice with Moon prevailing. If the three in question are bereft of strength, then Jeevasarmas system can be used.

4. AMSAYURDAYA CALCULATIONS.
The longitudes (counted from Aries first point) of the (seven) planets and the Ascendant should be divided by 200 to get the number of years. The quotients in later processes should be multiplied by the respective multipliers to get months, days and Ghatis.

5. ADDITIONS FOR ASCENDANTS CONTRIBUTION.
If the Ascendant is strong the number of years equal to the Rasis it has traversed should be added. Months etc. thereof should be guessed by rule of three method.

6.RECTIFICATIONS FOR PLANETARY CONTRIBUTIONS.
The contribution made by a planet, that is in Vargothama, own Sign, own decanate, or own Navansya should be doubled. If it is retrograde, or in exaltation the figure should be trebled.

7. If a planets contribution gets doubled by virtue of position in own Sign, own decanate etc. (as per Sloka 6 above) and further warrants trebling by virtue of retrogression/exaltation, the trebling should also be done. So say the learned.
8. According to Chudamani Acharya, if a planet is in Angle contributions by each rectification shall be considered. If it is in Panaphara (2nd, 5th, 8th and 11th) only two multiplications be done. If it is in Apoklima (3rd, 6th, 9th and 12th) only one (i.e. the highest) should be taken.

9. According to Varaha Mihira, if many multiplications are warranted, only the highest be considered. But this view is not acceptable to ancestors.

10. REDUCTIONS FOR AMSAYURDAYA CONTRIBUTIONS.
If a planet is in its inimical Sign, a third of the earlier (final) figure should only be taken. If it is combust in the Sun, only half need be computed. The contributions by Venus and Saturn do not suffer reductions on account of their combustion.

11-12. VYAYADI (CHAKRARDHA) HARANA.
A malefic in the 12th loses all his contribution. If in the 11th half, in the 10th a third, in the 9th a fourth, in the 8th one fifth and in the 7th one sixth of the contribution suffers. Benefics in these places lose just half of what malefics lose. Further, if there are two, or more planets in one and the same House, only the strongest suffers reduction.

13-15. PINDAYU.
In this system the planets from the Sun onwards through Saturn contribute, respectively, 19, 25, 15, 12, 15, 21 and 20 in their order, when they are in (deep) exaltation. From the longitude of the planet (for which the contribution is being computed) deduct its highest exaltation degree (counted from Aries first point). In case the minuend is greater than the subtrahend, then increase the former by 12 Signs i.e. 360 degrees). Multiply the latest product by the number of years allotted for the planet and divide by 12 to get years. Dividers for months equal to Amsas (or degrees i.e. 30) and for days Vikalas (i.e. 60).

16. In the case of Pindayurdaya also the same multiplications and rectifications apply. Leaving aside a retrograde planet, one in inimical Sign loses a third, while the one in fall retains only half of the contribution. The planet in exaltation retains the entire contribution.

17. ASCENDANTAL CONTRIBUTION IN PINDAYURDAYA.
If the Navansa Lagna Lord is strong, then the years contributed will equal the Navansas past, If, however, the Lagna Rasi Lord is stronger, then the Rasis past up to Lagna (counted from Aries) will be the number of years.

18-19. REDUCTION FOR RISING PLANETS.
If malefics occupy the Ascendant, convert the Ascendant into degrees, minutes etc. Multiply this by the number of years contributed by the malefics in question. Then divide the product by 21,600. Respective products should be reduced from the earlier contributions of each of the malefics occupying the Ascendant. (This will be the net contribution by each malefic in case he occupies the Ascendant). If the malefics in Ascendant are aspected by the benefics suffice it to say half of the reduction need only be done.

20. NISARGA YURDAYA.
In the Nisargayu scheme, the planets from the Sun to Saturn contribute 20, 1, 2, 9, 18, 20 and 50, respectively.

21. FULL SPAN OF LIFE.
The full span of life (120 years and 5 days) will be enjoyed by the native, who has Pisces Ascendant with its 9th Navansa and Mercury in 25 degrees of Taurus, while others are in their deep exaltation points.

22. UNLIMITED LONGEVITY.
Jupiter along with the Moon in Cancer identical with the Ascendant, Mercury with Venus in an Angle (or separately in Angles), while the rest are in the 3rd, 6th and 11th: One with this combination will enjoy a limitless life span.

23-24. SPAN OF FULL LIFE FOR VARIOUS ANIMALS.
The full span of life of elephants and men are 120 years and 5 days. For horses it is 32 years, for goats etc. 16 years, for camels and donkeys 25 years, for cows and buffaloes 24 years and for dogs 12 years. Just as for the mankind, the longevity for the various animals can be computed. The computations should be done, as explained supra, multiplied by the figure representing full life span and divided by 120.

25. Only those, who consume wholesome diet, those, who are virtuous, those, who have good conduct and those, who conquer their senses will enjoy the longevity, as laid down by the sages.

Thus ends the 40th Ch. entitled LONGEVITY CALCULATION in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 41.

Moola Dasa
1. The Dasa duration of a planet is equal to the number of years it contributes (as per Moola Dasa scheme). All planets yield in their Dasas pleasant, or unpleasant results according to their (natal) dispositions.

2. ORDER OF THE SCHEME.
According to Manitha, those, who are born during day time will have the Dasas commencing with that of the Sun, while the night-born will have it from that of Venus. But this view is not acceptable to other preceptors.

3. SATYAS VIEW.
The first Dasa will be of the strongest of the Ascendant, the Sun and the Moon followed by the ones in Angle, Panaphara and Apoklima. This is the view held by Satyacharya.
4-5. The first Dasa will be of the strongest of the Ascendant, the Sun and the Moon. Then the planets in Angles will be Dasa Lords. Thereafter the planets in Panapharas (2nd, 5th, 8th and 11th Houses) will lord over the major periods, while the last Dasas will be headed by the planets posited in Apoklimas (3rd, 6th, 9th and 12th Houses). If Angles etc. are occupied by more than one planet, the strongest will have its Dasa first. Even, if the strengths of these be identical, then the order will be according to maximum years donated by these planets. Granting, that these durations are also similar, then the risings of planets will prevail. Even, if one of the triad, viz. the Ascendant, the Sun and the Moon, is strong, then Satyas scheme, as above should be resorted to. If none is strong enough, then the Dasa scheme of other preceptors may be considered.

6. AUSPICIOUS PERIODS.
Planets in exaltation, own Rasi, own Navansa, friendly Sign, possessing full rays and those with full strength prove auspicious in their Dasas. At the commencement of a Dasa a planet, that is strong, or is in a friendly division, or is in aspect to a benefic will also yield similar good results.

7. INAUSPICIOUS PERIODS.
The planet, that is in its Sign of fall, Sign ruled by an enemy, Navansa of an enemy, combust in the Sun, devoid of splendour, or is in aspect to malefics will yield inauspicious effects in its Dasa.

8. If a planet has departed from its exaltation, its Dasa is known, as Avarohini (stepping down) Dasa. If, however, it is in own, or friendly divisions, the effects will be medium, i.e. neither good nor bad. The Dasa of a planet approaching its exaltation, departing from debilitation, is known, as Arohini (climbing) Dasa. If the said planet is in inimical, or debilitation divisions, it will inflict difficulties.

9. The Sun is the ripener (or baker) of the effects of a Dasa, while the Moon is the sustaining agent. That is why the Moons transit position at the time of the commencement of a Dasa should be duly considered.

10-14. EFFECTS OF THE MOON.
If the Moon at the commencement of a Moola Dasa is in Virgo, the native throughout the period will be related to courtesans and be associated with them. This view is held by Yavanas. If she is in Cancer at the beginning of Dasa, the native will gain wealth through virtuous ladies. If in Aries, or in Scorpio he will injure the honour of virgins and also bring evils to his own female. If the Sign in question be of Mercury knowledge of Shastras and acquisition of friends will come to pass. In a Sign of Venus, it brings plenty of food and drinks, happiness and destruction of enemies. In a House of Jupiter, it brings happiness, wealth, honour and commandability. Saturns Sign endows with association with old ladies. Leo denotes movements in forts and forests, agriculture and misunderstanding with wife and children. These are the effects accruing out of the Moons placement at the commencement of a Dasa.

15. ASPECTS TO MOON AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF A DASA. If the Moon at the commencement of a Dasa receives the aspect of Mars, or Saturn there will be loss of relatives and of wealth followed by diseases. Mercurys aspect confers learning, while the aspects of other planets will give effects according to their nature.

16. MAJOR LORDS PLACEMENT AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF A DASA. If the Lord of the Dasa is in the Ascendant prevailing at the moment the Dasa begins, or in the 3rd, 6th, 10th, or 11th from the said Ascendant, the Dasa then proves excellent.

17-18. AGAIN MOONS PLACEMENT. If the Moon at the commencement of a major period occupy a friendly Sign, exaltation Sign, or an Upachaya House (3rd, 6th, 10th, or 11th House), 9th, 6th, or 7th counted from the major Lord, good effects will come to pass in the Dasa in question. If the Moon is otherwise placed, even a planet in exaltation at birth will give inauspicious results in its Dasa.

19. SPECIAL EFFECTS BASED ON NAVANSA. Even though a planet may be in friendly Sign, if it occupies simultaneously a Navansa belonging to its enemy, or be in fall in Navansa, the effects in the Dasa concerned will be mixed. A weak planets Dasa will be futile.

20. LAGNA DASA. The Ascendants major period will prove auspicious, if it is in the first decanate of a Movable Sign; medium in the second decanate and poor in the 3rd decanate. The reverse is true with a Common Sign ascending, i.e. third, second and first decanate will, respectively, be auspicious, medium and poor. As for a Fixed Sign ascending first, second and third decanates will, respectively, give poor, auspicious and medium effects.

21. NAISARGIKA DASA. The Naisargika Dasa follows in the order of the Moon, Mars, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter, the Sun, Saturn and the Ascendant.

22-24. If the planet is exalted, or is endowed with temporal strength, or full strength, in its Dasa incomparably auspicious results will come to pass. The planet, that is in its own Sign, Moolatrikona Sign, own Navansa, or hemmed between benefics will yield moderately auspicious effects. The planet, that is going towards its exaltation (departing from Sign of its fall), or is placed in friendly Signs etc., feebly auspicious effects will be felt. Similar deductions should be made in regard to planets otherwise placed.

25-26. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE SUN’S DASA. If the Sun is favourable, in his Dasa, there will be gains from forests, medicines, travels, poison, evil friendship, forests, ivory, skin, fire and royal association. Courage, diligence, intelligence, fame and valour will be on the increase. Excellence and kingship will be achieved by the native.

27-28. EFFECTS OF ADVERSE SUN’S DASA.
If the Sun is adverse, in his Dasa there will be grief on account of servants, wealth, theft, eyes, weapons, fire, water and king and the native will be tormented by children, wife and relatives. He will be interested in sinful acts and be troubled by hunger, thirst (or morbid fever), heart ailments, bilious diseases and bodily damages.

29-30. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE MOON’S DASA.
If the Moon is favourable, in her Dasa there will be gains through female association, soft disposition, journey, water, ice, milk, juice, jaggery, sugar, sports, initiation into Mantras through Brahmins, flowers, robes, sweet food etc. He will achieve success in his undertakings out of his intelligence, will receive honours from elders and the king and will be endowed with increased courage and wisdom.

31-32. EFFECTS OF ADVERSE MOON’S DASA.
If the Moon is evil, in her Dasa there will be fear in family, misunderstanding with one’s family members, difficulties, loss of wealth, enmity with royal assembly, sleep, indolence, evils through women and grief.

33-34. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE MARS’ DASA.

35-36 EFFECTS OF ADVERSE MARS’ DASA.
During the Dasa of evil Mars, there will be enmity with friends, wife, children and brothers, sufferance from thirst, swooning, bloody defects, loss of limbs and wounds. There will be attachment to others’ wives and irreligious acts, followed by aversion to elders and to truth. Bilious excesses will trouble the subject.

37-39. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE MERCURY’S DASA.
In the Dasa of favourable Mercury, there will be gains via friends, children, wealth, king, businessmen, priests, gambling etc. The native will acquire horses, lands, gold, fame, ambassadorship, limitless happiness, fortunes, high intelligence, fame, success in religious activities, fond of amusement, destruction of foes and enthusiasm in mathematics and drawings.

40. EFFECTS OF ADVERSE MERCURY’S DASA.
If Mercury is evil, in the concerned Dasa the native will be tormented by imbalances of the three temperaments (viz. bile, phlegm and wind), hard disposition, imprisonment, mental grief and excitement.

41-43. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE JUPITER’S DASA.
If Jupiter is favourable, the native in that Dasa will gain through ministers (or advisers), kings, dances and statesmanship. He will gain honours, virtues, courage, wide friendship, life partner, gold, quadrupeds, conveyances, auspicious acts, destruction of enemies, royal acquaintance and will obtain wealth through public, king, businessmen and elders.

44. EFFECTS OF ADVERSE JUPITERS DASA.
If Jupiter be inauspicious one will in such Dasa have physical defects, excessive grief, lameness, diseases of the stomach and ears, loss of semen and marrow and fear from kings.

45-46. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE VENUS DASA.
If Venus is auspicious one will in the Dasa be successful and will gain lands, residences, bed comforts, wife, garlands, robes, good food, fame, happiness and treasure. He will have liking for music, will develop acquaintance with females, will gain through kings and lands, will derive wisdom, desired happiness and friends and gains through articles used for sexual enjoyments.

47. EFFECTS OF UNFAVORABLE VENUS DASA.
If Venus is inauspicious the native will in the Dasa have litigations with virtuous people, will have troubles from conveyances, furniture, females and kings and will develop intimacy with unsocial elements.

48-49. EFFECTS OF FAVOURABLE SATURNS DASA.
If Saturn is favourable in his Dasa the native will gain camels, asses etc., association with unchaste, or old ladies, gain through pulses, sesamum and grains eaten by poor people, leadership over villages and iron etc. His people will acquire a permanent position.

50-51. EFFECTS OF ADVERSE SATURNS DASA.
If Saturn is adverse, there will be loss of conveyances, excitement, enmity, separation from wife and other family members, loss in battles, liking for intoxicants and gambling, windy diseases, loss of meritorious acts, confinement, lassitude, affliction to limbs and enmity with children and servants.

52. The good and bad effects for the Dasas have been explained above in a general manner. Narrated below are the effects arising out of special considerations.

53. SUNS DASA. There are five kinds of placements, which enable us to derive five different types of Suns Dasa. These positions are: exaltation, fall, Moolatrikona, Angle and enemies Sign.

54-59. The Sun in Ascendant gives kingdom during his Dasa; while posited in other Kendras ruled by inimical planets there will be disorders of hip, throat and eyes. Debilitated Sun in his Dasa causes destruction of eyes, fever and head disorders, confinement, leprosy and other disorders. If the Sun is exalted, there will be gain of kingdom with royal insignia in such Dasa. Apart, there will be acquisition of elephants, steeds etc. The Dasa of the Sun placed in his Moolatrikona will indicate destruction of all kinds of miseries and leadership of large provinces. In the Dasa of the Sun placed in inimical Sign, one will incur affliction of eyes, hump-back, disorders caused by fire, facial diseases and humiliation due to misconduct. The 8th House placement of the Sun will cause in his Dasa affliction to the entire body and wanderings in various countries.

60-65. MOONS DASA. The Moons Dasa is generally differentiated in six categories, viz. exalted, debilitated, friendly Sign, inimical Sign and diminishing and increasing Moons Dasas. The different dignities of the Moon give following results in the Dasa concerned: exalted kingdom, debilitated death, inimical Sign confinement, friendly Sign association with own men, decreasing Moon fever and disorders of abdomen, head and eyes. If the Moon is full and is endowed with strength, in such Dasa the native will be surrounded by thousands of superior females. If she be relegated to the 8th House, the native in such Dasa will be humiliated by his own men, will live through machinery, grass, firewood, cowdung, bamboo, medicinal plants, fruits and water. He will acquire only deteriorated food and rags and even a king will have to resort to servitude.

66-68. OTHER PLACEMENT OF PLANETS.
Those exalted in the Ascendant confer rulership of a province in their Dasas, while those in  exaltation in other Angles will bestow, wealth, conveyances and rulership of a country. If a planet is in the 6th, the native will be subjected to evils, misfortunes etc. In the Dasa of a planet placed in the 8th, death will be inflicted. There will only be confinement in the Dasa of a combust planet. The Dasa of a retrograde planet will cause wanderings, like that of a wheel, evils and enmity. This applies only to malefics in retrogression, but not to benefics.

69. Though one may be a king, he will become a servant of his own servants in the Dasas of a planet devoid of strength, a planet totally devoid of strength, a planet in fall, a planet in deep fall, a planet in inimical Sign and a planet in dead enemies.

70. In the Dasa of a planet placed in enemies Sign, there will be circumstances to leave ones own country (in distress), diseases, loss of position, frequent quarrels and confinement.

71. Even a king with vast number of elephants, that can wet the earth with their ichors, will surely wander in difficulty in the Dasa of a planet occupying an inimical Sign.

72-73. In the Dasas of the planets placed in the 6th, 5th, 9th, or 7th Houses identical with inimical Signs, there will be troubles to limbs and secondary limbs (like the nose), while the Dasa of the planet in the 8th House identical with its inimical House will cause beheading (or affictions to head), fear from enemies, wanderings in foreign places, troubles of confinement, diseases etc. If the Dasa of a planet, that is in fall be in operation humiliation from royal sources will follow.

74. The Native will derive (good) effects of a weak planets Dasa in dreams and thoughts. The effects due to Pancha Maha Purusha Yogas will come to pass in the Dasas of the concerned planets.

75. The planets in Seershodaya Signs will give their effects in the beginning of the Dasas; those in Ubhayodaya will give in the middle of the Dasas effects due to them and those in Thus ends the 41st Ch. entitled MOOLA DASA in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Effects Of Sub Periods

1. DISTRIBUTION OF SUB PERIODS TO PLANETS IN MOOLA DASA. A planet, that is conjunct the Dasa Lord will sub rule half of the period. The sub rulership further goes to planets, as under: one third to that in the 5th/9th from the Dasa Lord; one seventh to that in the 7th from the Dasa Lord and one fourth to that in the 4th/8th with reference to Dasa Lord.

2-3. The sub-Lords will ripen the sub-period effects according to their own nature. Should there be more than one planet in the Houses specified above, the strongest of them will rule over the sub period (and not others). The sub periods of benefics will yield benefic results, while those of malefics will give inauspicious effects. According to some authorities, planets in Angles will first lord over the sub-periods followed by those in Panaphara (2nd, 5th, 8th and 11th) and Apoklima (3rd, 6th, 9th and 12th).

4. According to Satyacharya, the sub periods will rule according to the orders of strength in case there is more than one planet in one House.

5. Take the fractions (as mentioned in Sloka 1) and reduce them to equivalent fractions with a common denominator. Add up the aliquot parts of the Dasa representative of the various numerators leaving out the denominators. The sub periods will be arrived at, when the various aliquots are converted into years within the main Dasa and divided by a common factor.

6-7. Planets, that are conjunct the major Lord will cause confinement and loss of wealth in their sub periods. If, however, the major Lord is in an Angle, or in a Trine from the Ascendant, there will be great happiness. If a planet conjunct 2, or more planets be in an inimical House, in such sub period, only diseases, evils, quarrels and royal displeasures will come to pass.

8. In the sub period of a planet in the 7th from the Mooladasa Lord, death of wife, or the wifes becoming a servant of an enemy, or getting attached to another man is denoted.

9-10. Death, destruction of wealth, or imprisonment will result in the sub period of the planet in the 8th from the Moola Dasa Lord. If 2, or 3, or 4 malefics join in one House other than an Angle, or a Trine, imprisonment, destruction and poverty will be the order of the sub period.
11. In the sub period of a planet in the 4th from the Moola Dasa Lord there will be gain through friends, happiness and increased honours.

12. SUN DASA MOON BHUKTI. In the major period of the Sun, the Moons sub period will subdue the valour of the enemies of the native. He will gain health, wealth and happiness.

13. SUN DASA MARS BHUKTI. In the sub period of Mars and in the major period of the Sun, the native gain corals, gold, success in battle, splendour and happiness.

14. SUN DASA MERCURY BHUKTI. In the sub period of Mercury under the Suns major period, the native will suffer from itch, leprosy etc. and will face increase of enemies.

15. SUN DASA JUPITER BHUKTI. If the Sub period of Jupiter be in operation in the major period of the Sun, there will be destruction of diseases, enemies, sins and poverty and gain of virtues and happiness.

16. SUN DASA VENUS BHUKTI. In the sub period of Venus under the Suns major period, one will suffer from head throat diseases, fever and gout, followed by defeat from enemies and leaving the native country.

17. SUN DASA SATURN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Saturn and in the major period of the Sun, there will be royal wrath, poverty and defeat from enemies.

18. MOON DASA SUN BHUKTI.
During the Suns sub period, in the major period of the Moon, the native will suffer from tuberculosis, but will be valorous, will earn wealth through kings and will enjoy all kinds of monetary gains.

19. MOON DASA MARS BHUKTI.
In the major period of the Moon and in the sub period of Mars, there will be bilious complaints, diseases of the blood, fear from fire, evils, ill health and fear from thieves.

20. MOON DASA MERCURY BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Mercury and in the major period of the Moon, one will gain positions with formal seal (or insignia), elephants, horses and wealth and will enjoy incomparable happiness.

21. MOON DASA JUPITER SUB PERIOD.
In the major period of the Moon and in the sub period of Jupiter, there will be gain of wealth, sudden acquisition of robes, jewels and conveyances.

22. MOON DASA VENUS BHUKTI.
In the major period of the Moon and in the sub period of Venus, there will be acquisition of conveyances run in waters, robes, ornaments and many wives.

23. MOON DASA SATURN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Saturn in the major period of the Moon, there will be separation from ones own men, fear from diseases and great grief.

162
24 MARS DASA SUN BHUKTI.
If the Sun's sub period, in the major period of Mars be in operation, the native will be fierce, valorous, be honoured by the king, be successful in battle and will acquire wealth in various ways.

25. MARS DASA MOON BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Moon in the major period of Mars, the native will procure wealth in various ways, be happy, will have many friends and plenty of corals etc.

26. MARS DASA MERCURY BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Mercury under the major period of Mars, one will have fear from thieves and enemies, loss of horses and elephants and burning sensation.

27. MARS DASA JUPITER BHUKTI.
In Mars Dasa and in Jupiter's sub period there will be good conduct, virtues, meritorious acts etc.

28. MARS DASA VENUS BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Venus in the major period of Mars, the native will have fear of war, diseases, evils and loss of wealth.

29. MARS DASA SATURN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Saturn, in the major period of Mars, there will be evils after evils and loss of wealth and of near and dear.

30. MERCURY DASA SUN BHUKTI.
There will be sudden income of wealth, gold, horses, coral, elephants etc. in the sub period of the Sun and in the major period of Mercury.

31. MERCURY DASA MOON BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Moon in the major period of Mercury, one will be afflicted by itch, leprosy, tuberculosis, loss of limbs, fear from elephants and destruction of conveyances.

32. MERCURY DASA MARS BHUKTI.
During the sub rulership of Mars in the major period of Mercury, there will be diseases of the head, gout, many kinds of miseries etc.

33. MERCURY DASA JUPITER BHUKTI.
One will be free from enemies, diseases and sins, be virtuous and become a royal adviser in the sub period of Jupiter under the major leadership of Mercury.

34. MERCURY DASA VENUS BHUKTI.
If the sub period of Venus be in operation in the major period of Mercury, one will honour elders, Gods and guests and will acquire robes and ornaments.

35. MERCURY DASA SATURN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Saturn in the major period of Mercury the native will seek sexual gratification, like a eunuch (or, like a bull) and be deprived of virtues, wealth, pleasures and issues.

36. JUPITER DASA SUN BHUKTI.
The native will be free from enemies and diseases and will be honoured by the king in the sub period of the Sun in the major period of Jupiter. He will either be endowed with valour and happiness.

37. JUPITER DASA MOON BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Moon in the Dasa of Jupiter one will marry a thousand women, will conquer diseases and enemies and will prosper in all fronts akin to a king.

38. JUPITER DASA MARS BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Mars in the major period of Jupiter, one will be rude, will win over enemies, be valorous, be famous in war and will enjoy all kinds of happiness.

39. JUPITER DASA MERCURY BHUKTI.
There will be destruction of diseases, acquisition of friends and respect for parents in the sub period of Mercury in the major period of Jupiter.

40. JUPITER DASA VENUS BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Venus in the major period of Jupiter, the native will have fear from enemies, will face destruction and grief and will live through Brahmins.

41. JUPITER DASA SATURN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Saturn and in the major period of Jupiter, the native will be attached to prostitutes and intoxicants and will be insulted in gambling. He will be endowed with buffaloes and asses and be devoid of virtues.

42. VENUS DASA SUN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Sun in the major period of Venus, there will be disease, of the throat, stomach and eyes and punishments from the king.

43. VENUS DASA MOON BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Moon in the major period of Venus one will suffer from diseases of nails, teeth and head apart from jaundice.

44. VENUS DASA MARS BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Mars and in the major period of Venus, one will suffer from diseases related to blood and bile, will gain lands, royal patronage and enthusiasm.

45. VENUS DASA MERCURY SUB PERIOD.
In the sub period of Mercury and in the major period of Venus one will gain through women and will enjoy happiness and fulfilment of desires.

46. VENUS DASA JUPITER BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Jupiter in the major period of Venus, there will be growth of virtues, good qualities and wealth and acquisition of kingdom.

47. VENUS DASA SATURN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Saturn and in the major period of Venus, one will sport with old women (i.e. be associated with them), will head over cities, men etc. and will destroy enemies.
48. SATURN DASASUN BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Sun in the major period of Saturn, there will be destruction of wealth, wife and children and abundant fear from enemies.

49. SATURN DASA MOON BHUKTI.
In the sub period of the Moon and in the major period of Saturn, one will lose his wife, or she will be kidnapped. The native will incur separation from relatives, or enmity with them.

50. SATURN DASAMARS BHUKTI.
During the sub period of Mars in the major period of Saturn, one will leave the country (in adverse circumstances) and will incur diseases and grief in many matters.

51. SATURN DASAMERCURY BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Mercury in the major period of Saturn, the native will enjoy fortunes, happiness, success and honour and will financially gain.

52. SATURN DASAJUPITER BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Jupiter and in the major period of Saturn, one will gain a high position and will acquire villages and happiness from his wife.

53. SATURN DASAVENUS BHUKTI.
In the sub period of Venus and in the major period of Saturn, one will have increased number of friends, freedom from grief, increase of fame, happiness from wife, wealth and success.

54-57. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.
The effects of sub periods, as above will stand modified according to the exaltation, fall etc. of the planet. One will have abundant income, happiness etc. in the major period of a benefic planet and in the sub period of another benefic planet. If a planet is combust, during such planets period, one will have a dirty body and will incur destruction of wealth, happiness, valour, beauty and enthusiasm. In the Dasa of planets inimical to Ascendant Lord, or to the Moon Sign Lord, one will be very foolish, will be deprived of kingdom, will be insulted by enemies and will depend on others.

58. The planet, that is close to the 10th cusp will confer kingdom. If there is none in the 10th, the strongest of the planets will give the said effect.

59. One will be opulent, if Mercury, Jupiter and Venus occupy the Ascendant, Saturn the 7th and the Sun the 10th. If Angles are occupied by benefics, while malefic planets are not there, the native will be wealthy becoming leader of forest tribes.

Thus ends the 42nd Ch. entitled EFFECTS OF SUB-PERIODS in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.
Chapter 43.

Evil Effects Of Dasa

1-4. In the sub period of a malefic planet and in the major period of another malefic, the native will be troubled by doubts and enemies. It is certain, that death will be inflicted upon the native though he may have long life indications, in the Dasa of Mars and in the sub period of Saturn. If a malefic is in the 6th, or the 8th in aspect to another malefic placed in a malefics Sign, death will come to pass. In the Dasa of a planet, that is inimical to Ascendant Lord and in the sub period of the Ascendant Lord himself, there may be death, according to Satya.

Thus ends the 43rd Ch. entitled EVIL EFFECTS OF DASAS in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 44.

Antidotes For Evils Of Dasas

1-3. If at the time of commencement of a Dasa, even, if one planet occupies the divisions of a benefic, or of an intimate friend and is aspected by a benefic, the evils due to come out of the said Dasa will disappear. If the Lord of the Dasa is not strong enough to cause evil, while the planet functioning, as an antidote (as stated in the previous Sloka) is stronger, the evils are then surely destroyed. Even, if a single planet occupies its exaltation Sign, Moolatrikona Sign, or own Sign and is aspected by a benefic, or is conjunct a benefic, at the start of a Dasa the evils of the Dasa are nullified.

Thus ends the 44th Ch. entitled ANTIDOTES FOR EVILS OF DASAS in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 45.

Effects of Planetary Dignities

1-4. EFFECTS OF EXALTED PLANETS.

If the Sun is exalted at birth, the native will be fierce, be very wealthy and be pre-eminent. With exalted Moon, one will enjoy sweet food, possess superior clothes and will acquire good ornaments. If Mars is exalted the native will be splendidourous, valorous, blame worthy and will live in other places.

When Mercury is exalted the native will be intelligent, be supreme among his family members and be a skillful speaker. One will be famous, wealthy, learned, honourable and skillful with the exaltation of Jupiter.

If Venus is exalted one will be fond of sports, amusements, music, dance etc.
Saturns exaltation denotes association with royal assignment, leadership over villages and towns, gain of forest-born grains and mean females.

5-7. EFFECTS OF PLANETS IN MOOLA TRIKONAS.
Should the Sun be in his Moolatrikona Sign, the native will be wealthy, intelligent and skillful. The Moon in Moolatrikona indicates one with enjoyments and virtues. Mars in Moolatrikona will make one a leader of thieves, adventurous and unkind. The placement of Mercury in his Moolatrikona Sign denotes a jocular and successful person. One will be helpful to others, be preeminent and will have knowledge of justice with Jupiter in Moolatrikona. Venus in such a Sign will make one a prominent person in his villagetown, wealthy and fortunate. If Saturn is so posited the native belongs to a good family, be wealthy and valorous.

8-11. EFFECTS OF PLANETS IN OWN SIGNS.
If the Sun is placed in his own Sign, the native will be very fierce and will do very great acts. The Moon in her own Sign denotes one virtuously disposed, who is very intelligent and beautiful. If Mars occupies such a Sign, the native will be opulent, impetuous and firm in disposition. Should Mercury occupy his own Sign the native will be a sweet speaker and be learned. If Jupiter be in his own Sign one will be versed in Vedas, literature etc., be rich and will perform great deeds. If Venus be in his own Sign one will be farmer and a rich person. Should Saturn be in his own House, the native will be honourable and happy.

12-14. EFFECTS OF PLANETS IN FRIENDLY SIGNS.
If the Sun is in a friendly Sign, one will be firm in friendship and be charitable. The Moon in a friendly Sign denotes the native will be happy and very honourable. Mars placed in friendly Sign will make one protect the wealth of friends. One will be skilful, jocular and rich, with Mercury in a friendly Sign. Jupiter in a friendly Sign will make one respectable and a performer of famous deeds. If Venus be in a friendly Sign the native will be fond of friends, rich and adventurous. Saturn in a Sign of his friend will force the native to depend on other for food and inclined to do unethical deeds.

15-18. EFFECTS OF PLANETS IN DEBILITATION.
The various planets in fall denote the under mentioned effects: The Sun in debilitation causes servitude and humiliation in the hands of ones own men. The Moon in debilitation causes one to be not very meritorious in his acts, sickly and unfortunate. Mars in debilitation causes evils, distressed mind and meanness. Mercury in debilitation indicates one to be mean and causes enmity with his cousins and other relatives. Jupiter in debilitation brings dirtiness, dishonour and utter poverty. Venus in debilitation causes subordination, loss of wife and crooked disposition. Saturn in debilitation causes fall into adversity, blameworthy conduct and pennilessness.

19-21 I/2 EFFECTS OF PLANETS IN INIMICAL SIGNS.

If the Sun is placed in an inimical Sign, the native will be poor and be sensually tormented.
Should the Moon be so placed, one will be devoid of beauty (or brightness) and will suffer from heart diseases.
Mars in an inimical Sign denotes, that native will face confinement and defeat at the hands of enemies, poverty, distress and misfortunes.
If Mercury be placed in a Sign, that is ruled by his enemy, the subject will be devoid of intelligence, will experience many miseries and will be very poor.
Should Venus be in his enemy's Sign, this person concerned will be a servant, will resort to wrong ways of doing things and be very miserable.
If Jupiter is placed in a Sign owned by his enemy, one will be a eunuch and be devoid of justice and wealth.
When Saturn occupies an inimical camp, the native will be dirty and be distressed due to diseases and the like.

22.EFFECTS IN NAVANSA.

If a planet is in its exaltation Navansa, the (good) effects due to the planet will be full. If it is in its own Navansa, it will give such results, as applicable to its own Rasi placement. If it is in Navansas of its enemy, or of fall, the (good) effects will be quite little, while moderate results will come to pass, if it is in a friendly Navansa.

23-26. EFFECTS OF MORE PLANETS IN EXALTATION.

If two planets are simultaneously exalted at birth, the native will be rich and famous.
Three planets in simultaneous exaltation will make one head a town, wealthy and an Army chief.
If four are so placed, that they are in exaltation, one will be rich, be honoured by the king and will be of regal disposition.
Should five heavenly bodies occupy their exaltation Signs the native will be famous, be a kings patron and be very rich.
When six planets are posited in their exaltation Signs, the person will be a king, be charitable, honourable and endowed with many conveyances.
When all are in their respective exaltation Signs, the native will be an emperor ruling over the land surrounded by seas.

27-31. EFFECTS OF MORE PLANETS IN MOOLATRIKONA SIGNS.

If two planets be so placed, as to be in Moolatrikona Signs, the native will be a householder contributing to the growth of his race, be pre-eminent and famous.
When three planets are similarly posited one will be quite wealthy and will head a group of men, or villages.
If four planets occupy their Moolatrikona Rasis, the native will be very wealthy, will receive royal honours and be dear to all.
Should five be so placed, as they are in Moolatrikonas one will be a protector, be principal among men, will head an Army, town and royal treasury, be a householder and be very happy. With six planets disposed in their Moolatrikona Rasis, though one may belong to a cowherds race, he will be endowed with learning, charitable and various kinds of wealth, will acquire a kingdom and be famous.
If seven are in their Moolatrikona Rasis, one will become a king, be endowed with wealth, wife, strength, learning and be skilful in archery.

32-34. EFFECTS OF MORE PLANETS IN OWN HOUSES.
If two planets are in their own Houses at birth, one will be important in his race, be honoured by his relatives and be fortunate.
Three planets occupying own Houses indicate growth of the dynasty (i.e. birth of children), acquisition of wealth, position and fame.
If four planets occupy their own Houses, one will be famous, will perform significant acts and will lead over men and cities.
If five planets be placed in their own Houses, the native will be equal to a king, be endowed with abundant quadrupeds, lands and females.
If six planets are in their own Houses, one will acquire famous titles, abundant wealth, relatives and honours and one born in a royal family will become, a ruler.
If seven planets be so placed one will be a king of kings and will conquer his enemies.

35-37. EFFECTS OF MORE PLANETS IN FRIENDLY HOUSES. If two planets occupy their friendly Sign, the native will be endowed with the company of friends and will have good conduct.
If three are so, one will patronize his relatives, be endowed with good qualities and be pre-eminent.
If four are so, one will honour Brahmins and Gods, be skilful and be famous.
If five are so, one will serve the king, be wealthy and be chief of men.
When six are so, one will have wide enjoyments, abundant conveyances and wealth and be equal to a king.
With seven planets in such placement one will have many servants, many conveyances, paraphernalia and be a king.

38-41. EFFECTS OF MORE PLANETS IN FALL.
If two planets occupy their Signs of fall, one will be mean in thoughts and be very irascible.
Three being so, he will be foolish, not virtuous, be poor and be a servant.
Four being so, he will be indolent, be devoid of (useful) deeds and be a servant.
Five being so, he will be bereft of a house and a female and be a servant.
Six being so, he will be tormented by fear and labour and be emaciated.
All being so, he will eke out his food by begging, be devoid of everything and will wear torn robes, or will wander without clothes.

42-45. EFFECTS OF MORE PLANETS IN INIMICAL CAMPS.
If there are two planets, that are placed in inimical signs one will be miserable and ever fond of quarrels and be subjected to humiliation.
With three such planets he will be tormented by many expenses and miseries and will lose wealth in spite of hard labour.
With four being so placed, he will be at a loss in regard to his near and dear and wealth.
Five heavenly bodies in such a state indicate, that the native will be troubled by many evils.
With six planets in inimical camps, he will be very miserable.
If seven planets are in their inimical Signs, the native belongs to a loathsome family and will be devoid of food, robes, beds etc.

Thus ends the 45th Ch. entitled EFFECTS OF PLANETARY DIGNITIES in Kalyana Varma SARAVALI.

Chapter 46.

Female Horoscopy

Whatever horoscopic effects have been stated for males are equally applicable to females too.

2. IMPORTANT HOUSES.
From the 8th House, her widowhood can be deduced, while the Ascendant deals with her physique, the 7th House with her husband’s good for tunes and the 5th House with her offspring.

3-4. THE MOON AND ASCENDANT.
If the Moon and the Ascendant are both disposed in even Signs, the female will be virtuous and extremely good-looking. Should these two be in aspect to auspicious planets, she will be endowed with ornaments and virtues. In case these two occupy odd Signs, she will be akin to a male in appearance and in disposition. With these two receiving aspects of malefics, she will be sinful and bereft of virtues.

5. TRIMSAMSA POSITIONS.
Note the stronger of the Moon and the Ascendant. Whoever of the two is placed in the Trimsamsa of Mars, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, or Saturn, such effects will come to pass, (as detailed below).
6-10. EFFECTS OF THE MOON/ASCENDANT IN VARIOUS TRIMSAMSAS. If it is a Sign owned by Mars, the Trimsamsa of Mars denotes a harlot, that of Venus a female devoid of virtuous history, that of Mercury one with cunning disposition, that of Jupiter a chaste lady and that of Saturn one in servitude. Should a Sign of Mercury house the Moon/the Ascendant in the Trimsamsa of Mars, the female will be cunning, in the Trimsamsa of Venus one with high degree of lust, in the Trimsamsa of Mercury a chaste girl, in the Trimsamsa of Jupiter a virtuous housewife and in that of Saturn impotent. If it is a Sign of Venus, the Trimsamsa of Mars denotes a female with wicked nature, Venusian Trimsamsa one with fame for her virtues, Mercurial Trimsamsa skilful, Jupiterian Trimsamsa a virtuous female and Saturns Trimsamsa a woman given in marriage, as a second wife. In the Sign owned by the Moon the Trimsamsa of Mars bestows her freedom not due to a housewife, Venusian Trimsamsa will make her unchaste, Mercurial Trimsamsa will bestow skill in arts, Jupiterian Trimsamsa will make her quite virtuous and in Saturns Trimsamsa she will betray her husband. In Leo the Trimsamsa of Mars will make the female garrulous, Venusian Trimsamsa chaste, Mercurial Trimsamsa male-natured, Jupiterian Trimsamsa a queen and Saturns Trimsamsa fallen.

In a Sign of Jupiter the Trimsamsa of Mars will make her a gentlewoman with many (of the seven principal) virtues, the Trimsamsa of Venus a female with evil speech, the Trimsamsa of Mercury one with knowledge, the Trimsamsa of Jupiter one with many virtues and the Trimsamsa of Saturn a female desiring limited physical union. Lastly in a Sign owned by Saturn, a Trimsamsa of Mars will make one servant, that of Venus intelligent, that of Mercury cruel and devoid of conduct, that of Jupiter a chaste lady and that of Saturn himself one addicted to base men.

14. BEASTLY LUST OF A FEMALE.
When Venus and Saturn are in mutual aspects in the case of a birth in Taurus, or Libra Ascendant with Saturns Navansa, the female concerned burnt with sexual lust will unite with a woman playing the role of a male. Venus and Saturn should simultaneously be in exchange in Navansas owned by them.

15-17. THE 7th HOUSE.
Should the 7th House be vacant, her husband will be a contemptible fellow. With the said House bereft of aspect of a benefic, he will be bereft of strength. He will be disposed to living in other places, if the 7th House is a Movable Sign. He will be a eunuch with Mercury, or Saturn in the 7th House. She will be discarded by her husband, if the Sun is in her 7th House. Mars in the said House will cause early widowhood, while Saturn in the 7th with malefic aspects will make her old soon. Again she will be given up by her husband with malefics being weak and combust in the 7th receiving aspects from malefics. Benefics and malefics combust in the 7th will give away the woman native in second marriage.
18. UNCHASTITY.
If Venus and Mars exchange their divisions, the female will go after other males. If the Moon be simultaneously in the 7th House, she will join others with consent of her husband.

19. MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.
If a Sign of Mars, or Saturn be ascending with Venus and the Moon in it in aspect to malefics, the female along with her mother may be deemed unchaste.

20. MISCELLANEOUS.
If the 7th House falls in a Navansa of Mars and be in aspect to the Moon (Saturn, according to some texts), the female will have a diseased vagina. A Navansa of Venus denotes a fortunate female, who will be dear to her husband.

21-24. EFFECTS OF RULERS OF 7th HOUSE/NAVANSA.
If the 7th House, or its Navansa be ruled by Saturn, the females husband will be old and foolish. The ruler ship of Mars in such a case will give a husband, who will be addicted to other women and be irascible. If Venus heads the 7th House, or its Navansa the husband will be very beautiful and be fortunate. The husband will be skilful and knowledgeable, if Mercury be such a planet. A sexually tormented husband, who will, however, be soft in disposition will be bestowed by the Moon in such circumstances. The husband will be virtuous and be a conqueror of the five senses, if Jupiter rules the 7th House, or its Navansa. Leo, as the 7th House, or the 7th Navansa will indicate an industrious and a very intelligent husband. Thus the effects relating to the rulership of the 7th House and 7th Navansa be declared in respect of males.

25-26. EFFECTS OF PLANETS IN THE ASCENDANT.
She will be jealously disposed and be happy with Venus and the Moon in the Ascendant. Mercury replacing Venus in the said Yoga will make the female happy, skilful in arts, virtuous and modest. If Mercury and Venus are together in the Ascendant, the female will be beautiful, fortunate and skilful in arts. Benefics in the Ascendant will endow a female with servants, happiness and robes, while malefics give adverse effects in regard to these.

27. EFFECTS OF THE 8th HOUSE.
Malefics in the 8th will cause widowhood. This will occur in the Dasa periods of the Lord of the Navansa occupied by the 8th Lord. A benefic in the 2nd will, however, cause the females death in this Yoga, instead of widowhood.

28. LIMITED PROGENY.
If the 5th House be one of Virgo, Scorpio, Taurus and Leo receiving the aspect of a benefic, there will be limited number of children Alternatively, the said 5th House may be conjunct a benefic, or the Moon.

29. FEMALE WITH MASCULINE DISPOSITION.
Should Mercury, Venus and the Moon be in the Ascendant and be weak, while Saturn has moderate strength, as the rest are strong, the female concerned will be akin to a male in appearance and in acts. The Ascendant should in this case necessarily be an odd Sign.

30. TAKING TO RELIGIOUS ORDER.
A female will be initiated into a religious order, if a malefic is in the 7th House, while the 9th House is occupied by any planet. The order will relate to the planet in the 7th House.

31. VEDIC EXPONENT.
If strong Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, or the Moon be in the Ascendant identical with an even Sign, the female will be a teacher/exponent of Vedas (or be a follower of Vedanta Philosophy). And she will be an expert in interpretation of various Shastras.

32. APPLICATION.
Whatever has been stated in this Ch. should be wisely applied to females relating to their births, selection of grooms, marriage and query. These effects are applicable to their husbands also.

Thus ends the 46th Ch. entitled FEMALE HOROSCOPY in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 47.

Aphorisms of Death

1. REASONS OF DEATH.
If the 8th House is occupied by any planet from the Sun to Saturn, the reason for death in the same order will be fire, water, weapon, fever, indigestion (or constipation), thirst and hunger. According to the 8th House being a Movable, Fixed, or Dual Sign, the place of death will be a foreign place, own place, or on the way.

2. Death may be due to the imbalance of that humour belonging to the planet aspecting the 8th House. If there is no planet in the 8th House, the aspeciting one may indicate the kind of death. If many are thus related, the strongest one will prevail.

3. DEATH BY DROWNING, FALL ETC.
If the 10th and 4th are occupied by the Sun and Mars, the native will die due to fall from hills. If the 10th, 7th and 4th Houses are occupied by Mars, Mercury and Saturn, it may be due to fall in a well. Death due to imprisonment will follow, if the Luminaries are placed in Virgo in aspect to malefics. The end will be by drowning, if Pisces is occupied by the Sun and the Moon.

4-5. DEATH BY FIRE ETC.
If the Moon and Saturn, respectively, are in Capricorn and Cancer, death will be due to affliction of stomach. If the Moon be hemmed between malefics and occupies a Sign of Mars, fire/weapons will cause death. Death will be certainly inflicted by dryness of blood, if the Moon is in Virgo hemmed between malefics.

6-7. DEATH BY HANGING ETC.
If the Moon in Capricorn, or Aquarius be hemmed between benefics, death will be due to hanging, fire, or fall, which is doubtless according to Chanakya. The same effect will come to pass, if the 5th and 9th Houses are occupied by malefics in aspect to malefics. If the drekkana of the 8th House be one of Pasa, Sarpa and Nigala, death will be reticent.

8. DEATH DUE TO A FEMALE.
If the Sun be in Pisces Ascendant, while the Moon is in the 7th (in Virgo), or in the 2nd in Aries, or in the 5th in Cancer, a female will be reason for the natives end.

9. DEATH DUE TO A TRIDENTS HIT.
If the 4th House is occupied by Mars, or the Sun, while Saturn is conjunct weak Moon in the 10th House and malefics are in the Ascendant and its Trines, hit of a trident will cause the end.

10. DEATH BY HIT OF WOOD.
If the Sun is in the 4th, while the Moon devoid of strength is in the 10th along with Mars, or in aspect to Saturn, the native will be hit by a log.

11. DEATH BY HIT OF A CLUB etc.
If weak Moon, Mars, Sun and Mercury along with Saturn are in the 10th, 8th, 4th and Ascendant (in any way), the subject will have his end due to a club beat. If these planets fill the 10th, 9th, 5th and Ascendant, death will be by smoke, fire, confinement, or a blow of fist.

12. DEATH DUE TO ROYAL WRATH.
If the 4th, 7th and 10th Houses are occupied by Mars, the Sun and Saturn, death will be due to weapon, fire, or royal wrath.

13-14. DEATH DUE TO INSECTS, INTOXICANTS AND MACHINERY. Ones end will be due to insects, if the 10th, 4th and 2nd Houses at his birth are occupied by Mars, the Moon and Saturn. If the 10th House is constellated by the Luminaries and Mars, the native will end his life on account of intoxicants, or fall from height. Machinery will be the source of ones death, if the 7th House is occupied by Mars, as the trio of weak Moon, Saturn and the Sun afflict Ascendant by occupation.

15-16. DEATH IN FILTHY SURROUNDINGS.
One will die amidst ordure, if Mars is in Libra, the Sun in Aries/Scorpio and the Moon in Capricorn/Aquarius. The Sun, weak Moon and Mars in the 8th, 10th and 4th Houses, will kill one amidst excrement. So says Siddhasena.

17-18. DEATH BY THIRST, WEAPONS AND BIRDS.
If the 8th House contains both the weak Moon and Saturn in aspect to strong Mars, the subject will die due to spleen disorders, colic, thirst, or weapons. The Sun and Mars in the 7th, while Saturn occupies the 8th and the Moon the 4th, ones death will be caused by birds.
19. If the Ascendant, 8th, 5th and 9th Houses are occupied by the Sun, Mars, Saturn and the Moon, death will be due to fall from a hill, hit of a weapon, or fall of a wall etc.

20. Yavanas indicate, that the place of death will correspond to the Navansa Lagna Lord. The aphorisms stated in this Ch. should be suitably interpreted according to other aspects and other conjunctions.

21. The duration of the state of loss of consciousness (or insensibility, delusion, pain etc.) will correspond to the portion elapsed in the radical Ascendant. The duration will remain doubled and trebled according to the Ascendant Lord, or a benefic aspecting the Ascendant.

22. KHARA DREKKANA.

   The 22nd decanate from the Ascendant will denote the nature of ones death. For example, by the nature of its Lord, (i.e. the humour, place etc.)

23-24. EFFECTS OF ARIES DECANATES AS RELATED TO DEATH. If the first decanate of Aries be the 22nd decanate from the Ascendant and be in aspect to a malefic the natives death will be due to water (i.e. drowning etc.), snake, poison, or bilious imbalances. If the 2nd decanate of Aries be so related, water, insects, ice and forests will cause death. The 3rd decanate of Aries denotes tanks, well etc.

25-26. DECANATES IN TAurus.

   If the first decanate of Taurus be the 22nd decanate at birth, death will be caused by animals, like ox, horse, donkey, camel etc. The second decanate in Taurus denotes the end due to bilious/windy complaints, fire and thieves. The concluding decanate of Taurus leads to ones death in journey, or due to fall from the back of a horse, or due to hit by weapon in battle.

27-28. DECANATES IN GEMINI.

   If the first decanate of Gemini be the 22nd decanate at birth, ones end will be due to tuberculosis, or pulmonary disorders. The second decanate in Gemini identical with 22nd decanate denotes death through a buffalo, or through poison, or delirium. If the 3rd decanate in Gemini becomes the 22nd decanate the end will be through forest tribes, quadrupeds in general, or elephants in particular.

29-30. DECANATES IN CANCER.

   If the 22nd decanate is the first decanate of Cancer, the reason of death will be a crocodile (or a shark), wine, thorn, or dreams. The second decanate will cause end by beating, or by consuming of poison. The terminating decanate indicates death by respiratory diseases, urinary diseases (viz. gleet, diabetes etc.), spleenary disorders, affliction to blood, or by swooning caused by excessive labor.

31-32. DECANATES IN LEO.

   The 22nd decanate identical with the first decanate of Leo will cause ones end due to water, poison, or diseases of the foot. The second decanate of Leo indicates death by diseases caused by water, or movements in forests. The last decanate thereof will bring ones end through poison, weapons, calumny, or fall from heights.

33-34. DECANATES IN VIRGO.
Should the death decanate be the first decanate in Virgo, ones life will end due to diseases of the head, or by wind, (gale, hurricane, or outburst of violent wind etc..) The middle decanate in Virgo will cause death by snake-bites, or in hills, forts, forests etc., or by the son of a king. The concluding decanate in Virgo will bring death by camels, asses, weapons, water, deep pits, females and unhealthy eating and drinking.

35. DECANATES IN LIBRA.
When the 22nd decanate at birth is held by the first decanate of Libra, death will be through a female, or quadrupeds, or fall from heights. The middle decanate of Libra denotes end on account of stomach diseases, while last decanate indicates snakes, or animals living in water, as a source of death.

36-37. DECANATES IN SCORPIO.
The first decanate in Scorpio, if designated, as the 22nd decanate at birth, poison, weapons, females, (unhealthy) food and drinks will bring ones death. The second decanate in Scorpio indicates death through robes, weights, falls and diseases. The last decanate of Scorpio will inflict death by being stoned, or by breakage of shank bones.

38-39. DECANATES IN SAGITTARIUS.
The first decanate of Sagittarius being the 22nd decanate at birth, denotes, that death will be due to various windy disorders, or due to diseases of the anus. The second decanate will cause ones end to poison, or faults of elders, or windy diseases. The concluding decanate will inflict death in water, or through abdominal disorders.

40-41. DECANATES IN CAPRICORN.
The opening decanate of Capricorn will bring death through royal torture, or through tigers. The middle decanate will inflict death on account of damage to thighs, or through creatures/animals living in water, poison, snake, fire, weapons, robbers, fever and living beings other than human beings. The last decanate will bring end through a female.

42-43. DECANATES IN AQUARIUS.
The first decanate in Aquarius will bring death through females, water, hills, elephants and stomach disorders. The middle decanate denotes ones end through miseries caused by a female, venereal diseases etc., while the third decanate will cause death through copulation, facial diseases and quadrupeds.

44-15. DECANATES IN PISCES.
If the first decanate of Pisces be related to death, it will be due to diarrhea, spleen, or urinary disorders affliction to stomach/thighs, females, elephants, or planetary evils. If the second

2-3. BIRTH RITU ETC.
The strongest of the planets in the Prashna Lagna indicates the Ritu (season) at birth. Should there be none in the Ascendant, the Lord of the ascendant decanate is the ruler of Ritu at birth. Should there be a clash in the Ayana and Ritu arrived at, the Ritu Lords arrived should be interchanged thus: the Moon for Venus, Mercury for Mars and Jupiter for Saturn. The respective month of the Ritu is decided depending on the first, or second half of the decanate being Ascendant. The degrees elapsed in the decanate will be to the knowledge of the natal Tithi. Some say, that this will lead to locating the natal Sun.

4-9. OTHER NATAL FACTORS.
The query Ascendant be multiplied by 2 and divided by 5 to get the natal Jupiters placement. This should be adjusted to actual placement guessing the natives age approximately, by increasing, or decreasing multiples of 12. If the query Ascendant is in a day Sign, declare birth during night. Otherwise, the contrary prevails. The degree elapsed in the query Ascendant will lead to the knowledge of elapsed portion of night, or day, as the case may be. Out of the query Ascendant, the 5th and the 9th therefrom will indicate the natal Rasi (Moon Sign), the strongest of the three prevailing. The parts of the body, viz. head etc. touched by the querist at the time of query will also indicate the Moon Sign at birth. Alternatively the distance between the query Ascendant and the query Moon may be added to the query Moon to get the position of the natal Moon. This does not apply to the Moon in Pisces at the time of query, (i.e. the natal Moon is in Pisces itself). The Navamsa Lagna at the time of query may also be the natal Ascendant. The number of decanates between the query Ascendant and query Sun, when added to the query Sun, will yield the natal Ascendant. The longitude of the planet in the query Ascendant should be multiplied by the figure indicated by Chayangula (length of shadow) at that time. This should be divided by 12, the remainder of which will indicate natal Ascendant.

10-11. POSITION OF THE QUERIST.
The following positions of the querist will indicate the natal Ascendant. Standing, lying on the bed, sitting, or getting up will, respectively, denote the first, 4th, 7th, or 10th from query Ascendant becoming natal Ascendant.

12. PERSONAL NAME. The name formally given by parents to the native will indicate the natal star. Multiply the Matras (units) of the given name by 2 and add to it the Chayangula length. Divide this by 27 and the remainder, when counted from Dhanishta will lead to the knowledge of birth star.

13-15. ANOTHER METHOD. Note the longitude of the query Ascendant. It should be multiplied by 10, if the Ascendant is Leo, or Taurus, by 8 in case of Gemini, or Scorpio by 7 in case, or Aries, or Libra, by 5 in case of Virgo and Capricom, while for the rest of the Signs by the number denoted, when counted from Aries. (That is 4 for Cancer, 9 for Sagittarius, 11 for Aquarius and 12 for Pisces). If the Ascendant is occupied by Jupiter, the Ascendant converted into minutes of arc be multiplied by 10, if occupied by Mars by 8, if by Venus by 7 and, if by others by 5. Both the products so multiplied be added together. This product by multiplied again by 10 to know the year, Ritu and month; by 7 to know the Tithi and by 5 to arrive at Navamsa Lagna and Ishta Ghati (birth time) and be, respectively, divided by their individual dividers (i.e. 120 for year, 2 for Ritu, 15 for Tithi and the like). Addition, or reduction of 9 may be made in case of anomalistic answers.

16. I have explained lost horoscopic rules, as expounded by Yavana, Bhadasana etc. But some of their rules are ambiguous. The student better understand using his judgement.

17-21. LOST HOROSCOPY BASED ON MOON.
Just as the ascending degree helps trace back the lost details, the Moon Sign may also be used. If the Moon Sign at the time of query be a night Sign, natal Moon was in a day Sign and vice versa. Note in what quarter of the Sign is the Moon at the time of query. Proportionately understand the natal Moon during day, or night, as the case may be. Multiply the query Moon by the same Rasi multiplication factor, as explained supra and, if necessary by planetary multipliers, as applicable. Multiply the resultant product (arrived by adding the two) by 7 and divide by 27. The remainder will represent the birth star counted from Aswini. In case of rectification by adding 9 the counting is from Moola and, if subtraction of 9 is done count from Makha. The pre-division product (i.e. the product before dividing by 27, as above) should be processed variously, as suggested earlier to know the Ritu, month, Tithi etc. at birth.

Thus ends the 52nd Ch. entitled LOST HOROSCOPY in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.

Chapter 53.

AshtakaVarga

1. In order to evaluate the auspicious and inauspicious effects in day-to-day life due to planetary transits, Yavanacharyas have explained AshtakaVarga (which are detailed below).

2. THE SUNS ASHTAKAVARGA.
The Sun contributes benefic dots in his Ashtaka Varga, as under. From his own self in the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th Signs; from Mars and Saturn in similar Signs; from the Moon in the 3rd, 6th, 10th and 11th Signs; from Jupiter in the 5th, 6th, 9th and 11th Signs; from Venus in the 6th, 7th and 12th Signs; from Mercury in the 3rd, 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th Signs and from the Ascendant in the 3rd, 4th, 6th, 10th, 11th and 12th Signs.

3. THE MOONS ASHTAKA VARGA.
The Moon contributes benefic points in her AshtakaVarga, as under. In the 3rd, 6th, 7th, 8th, 10th and 11th Signs from the Sun; in the 1st, 3rd, 6th, 7th, 10th and 11th Signs from her position; in the 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th and 11th Signs counted from Mars; in the 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 7th, 8th, 10th and 11th Signs counted from Mercury; in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th, 10th, 11th and 12th Signs from Jupiter; in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 7th, 9th, 10th and 11th Signs counted from Venus; in the 3rd, 5th, 6th and 11th Signs from Saturn and in the 3rd, 6th, 10th and 11th Signs counted from the ascending Sign.

4. THE ASHTAKAVARGA OF MARS.
Mars in his AshtakaVarga drops auspicious points in the various Signs from the various planets and Ascendant, as denoted below. From the Sun in the 3rd, 5th, 6th, 10th and 11th Signs; from the Moon in the 3rd, 6th and 11th Signs; from his own position in the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 7th, 8th, 10th and 11th Signs; from Mercury in the 3rd, 5th, 6th and 11th Signs; from Jupiter in the 6th, 10th, 11th and 12th Signs; from Venus in the 6th, 8th, 10th and 11th Signs; from Saturn in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th Signs and from the ascending Sign in the 1st, 3rd, 6th, 10th and 11th Signs.

5. THE ASHTAKAVARGA OF MERCURY.
Auspicious points are contributed by Mercury in his AshtakaVarga, as under: From the Sun in the 5th, 6th, 9th, 11th and 12th Signs; from the Moon in the 2nd, 4th, 6th, 8th, 10th and 11th Signs; from Mars and Saturn in the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 12th Signs, from his own self in the 1st, 3rd, 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th Signs; from Jupiter in the 6th, 8th, 11th and 12th Signs; from Venus in 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs and from the ascending Sign in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs.

6. THE ASHTAKAVARGA OF JUPITER.
Jupiters AshtakaVarga gains auspicious points, as under. From the Sun in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 7\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from the Moon in the 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 5\textsuperscript{th} 7\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Mars in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 7\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th} 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Mercury in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from his own self in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 7\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Venus in the 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Saturn in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs and from the ascending Sign in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 7\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs.

7. THE ASHTAKAVARGA OF VENUS.
Mark benefic dots in the following places. From the Sun in the 8\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from the Moon in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Mars in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Mercury in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Jupiter in the 5\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from his own self in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Saturn in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs and from the ascending Sign in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs. This is called the AshtakaVarga of Venus.

8. THE ASHTAKAVARGA OF SATURN.
Saturns AshtakaVarga is prepared by inserting benefic dots in places, as denoted below. From the Sun in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 7\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from the Moon in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 6\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Houses; from Mars in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Mercury in the 6\textsuperscript{th}, 8\textsuperscript{th}, 9\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Jupiter in the 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from Venus in the 6\textsuperscript{th}, 11\textsuperscript{th} and 12\textsuperscript{th} Signs; from his own self in the 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 5\textsuperscript{th}, 6\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs and from the ascending Sign in the 1\textsuperscript{st}, 3\textsuperscript{rd}, 4\textsuperscript{th}, 10\textsuperscript{th} and 11\textsuperscript{th} Signs.

9-10. The places mentioned above are auspicious for the various planets and the others are inauspicious. Planets transiting Signs with more benefic dots will reveal auspicious results, while inauspicious results will come to pass in case of transits in Signs with less benefic dots. Benefic results will be predominant, if these Signs happen to be exaltation, own, friendly etc. and malefic effects will be ordinary. Similarly in debilitation/inimical Signs, malefic results will be more and benefic effects will be ordinary. In giving transit effects, the Sun and Mars will be effective, while in the beginning of the Sign, Jupiter and Venus, while in the middle of the Sign and lastly Saturn and the Moon, while in the end of the Sign. Mercury is effective in his transit through the whole Sign.

Thus ends the 53\textsuperscript{rd} Ch. entitled ASHTAKAVARGA in Kalyana Varmas SARAVALI.
Chapter 54.

Effects Of AshtakaVarga

1. Draw 13 horizontal lines intersected by 9 parallel (horizontally) lines (thus getting 96 squares) noting the names of the 12 Signs from Aries onwards in a rightward manner and the names of the 7 planets and Ascendant in the left hand side vertical columns. Mark the benefic dots for each planets AshtakaVarga and malefic points (where benefic points are absent), as per the positions told earlier.

2. GENERAL EFFECTS.

If a planet is associated with 8 Bindus in the Sign occupied by it, even an ordinary person will become a king; with 7 Bindus fulfilment of all desires; with 6 Bindus fame and financial gains; with 5 Bindus happiness and friendship; with 4 Bindus eradication and misery; with 3 Bindus loss of money; with 2 Bindus worries; with 1 Bindu bodily emaciation and with the complete absence of Bindus there will be evils at all times.

3. EFFECTS OF THE SUNS A.V.

The association of the Sun with particular number of Bindus (auspicious points) in the Sign occupied by him will lead to respective effects, thus; with 8 Bindus wealth from the king; 7 Bindus transcendental beauty, happiness and riches; 6 Bindus increase of valour and fame; 5 Bindus influx of money; 4 Bindus neither gainful nor losing; 3 Bindus fatigue due to (frequent) travels (or difficulties on account of travels, proneness to accidents and the like); 2 Bindus fear of diseases; 1 Bindu difficulties; and absence of Bindus death (or troubles of a very severe nature).

4. EFFECTS OF THE MOONS A.V.

Note the Bindus in the Sign occupied by the Moon. If she be associated with 8 Bindus, the native will enjoy affluence and pleasures; 7 Bindus financial gains through robes, food, scented articles etc., 6 Bindus acquaintance with the virtuous; 5 Bindus acquisition of courage and intelligence due to association with Brahmins (or the learned); 4 Bindus equilibrium of happiness and grief; 3 Bindus enmity with relatives; 2 Bindus separation from kith and kin and deprival of wealth; 1 Bindu evils and absence of auspicious points; grief and difficulties following excitement.

5. EFFECTS OF THE A.V. OF MARS.

If Mars be associated with various benefic points, as denoted below in the Sign tenanted by him, the results due will be: 8 Bindus acquisition of wealth and land and victory over foes; 7 Bindus increase of fortunes and splendour; 6 Bindus royal favours; 5 Bindus increase of fame; 4 Bindus equality of wealth and calamity; 3 Bindus separation from co-born and conjugal partner; 2 Bindus troubles from king, fire and bilious disorders; 1 Bindu ulcer and stomach diseases and absence of Bindus diseases of the eye and difficulties comparable to death.

6. EFFECTS OF MERCURYS A.V.

The effects of Mercury's association with various auspicious points in the Sign occupied by him will be: 8 Bindus honour from the ruler; 7 Bindus wealth, knowledge and happiness; 6 Bindus success in all undertakings; 5 Bindus new acquaintances; 4 Bindus unemployment; 3 Bindus mental worries on account of financial losses; 2 Bindus enmity with wife, children and friends causing loss of courage and wisdom; 1 Bindu evils of all kinds and absence of Bindus will bring about death.

7. EFFECTS OF JUPITERS A.V.

Based on the number of auspicious points, the Sign occupied by Jupiter will produce the following effects: 8 Bindus spotless fame, happiness and growth of wealth; 7 Bindus fortunes and happiness; 6 Bindus acquisition of robes, conveyances, gold etc.; 5 Bindus destruction of enemies and success in undertakings; 4 Bindus no loss, no gain; 3 Bindus loss of hearing, sight and masculine vigour; 2 Bindus incurring royal wrath; 1 Bindu distress due to diseases and absence of Bindus destruction of relatives, wealth and progeny.

8. EFFECTS OF A.V. OF VENUS.

The association of Venus with various number of Bindus will generate the under mentioned effects: 8 Bindus enjoyments of all kinds and acquisition of robes, wife, scents, food, drinks etc.; 7 Bindus abundance of ornaments and pearls; 6 Bindus acquisition of a girl of choice; 5 Bindus association with friends; 4 Bindus equality of inauspicious and auspicious results; 3 Bindus enmity with people of his community and senior members of the village; 2 Bindus displacement; 1 Bindu phlegmatic disorders and absence of Bindus becoming a synonym of all kinds of evils.

9. EFFECTS OF SATURNS A.V.

If Saturn is associated with a certain number of Bindus, the effects due will be: 8 Bindus lordship over villages, towns and people; 7 Bindus acquisition of female servants, asses and elephants; 6 Bindus gains from thieves, hunters and Army heads; 5 Bindus advent of wealth, corn and happiness; 4 Bindus happiness caused by association with others; 3 Bindus destruction of progeny, wife, attendants and money; 2 Bindus imprisonment, emotions and diseases; 1 Bindu/absence of Bindus loss of wealth, family etc.

10-12. May the astrologers be pleased with the Science of Astrology thus described by Kalyana Varma. Ancestors, like Paulasa, Vasishtha, Romasa, Yavana, Badarayana, Sakthi, Atri, Bharadwaja, Viswamitra, Guna, Agnikesa, Garga, Parashara, Jeevasarma and a host of others have authored elaborate texts on astrology. The science of astrology thus deals with the good and bad in stock for an individual with Chitragupta (the official record keeper of Yamathe God of Death noting down the virtues and vices of mankind).

Thus ends the 54th Ch. entitled EFFECTS OF ASHTAKAVARGA in Kalyana Vamas SARAVALI.

Chapter 55.

Manifold Births
1. Acharya Kanakas school of thought dealing with Manifold Births is narrated in this Ch. for the pleasure of the astrologers and the common folk.
2. Lord Brahma created this Universe at a time, when Cancer was ascending with its Lord and in aspect to Jupiter, while the other 5 planets were in their own Signs. Should one have a similar radix, he will rule over the three worlds enjoying the company of the celestial dames.
3. The Science of astrology delineates the immovable and the movable through respective differences of time, omens, form etc.
4-5. If all the malefics be with strength, while benefics be bereft of it, one of the Vyoni (Vyoni Rasis are Rasis other than Gemini, Virgo, Libra, Aquarius and the first half of Sagittarius) be Signs ascending with Mercury and Saturn be in Angles, or in aspect to the Ascendant, the birth will be of a creature other than human being. The birth will correspond to the Dwadasamsa of the Ascendant, or of the Moon prevailing at Adhana, or in the radix.
6-9. The sages have explained the hue, form etc. of the manifold births based on planetary conjunctions and aspects, which I narrate below. The Zodiac personified signifies the several limbs of non-human species, as under: Aries face, Taurus neck, Gemini and Pisces shoulders and forelegs, Cancer and Aquarius back, Leo and Capricorn forelegs, Virgo and Sagittarius hind legs, Libra anus and Scorpio tail and genital organ. The right side limbs are denoted by Signs Gemini to Libra, while left side by Signs Scorpio to Pisces.
10-12. The strongest Sign, or the strongest Navansa ascending will indicate the hue of such birth. If the Ascendant has a strong planet in it, the hue of the animal and the wounds on its body will correspond to such planet. If a planet is in its own Rasi/Navansa, such effects will be unmixed, while the one in others Sign/Navansa, will give a rough version of the hue. The animal will have a mark on its back corresponding to the hue of the planet in the 7th House, or the one aspecting the 7th House. If there are many related thus, the hues of the mark will be equally many, the prime effects being from the strongest of the lot.
13-14 The hue of the animal based on the occupant of the Ascendant will be: Jupiter yellow, Moon white, Venus variegated, Sun/Mars red, Saturn black, Mercury grass-green. If the planet aspecting the Ascendant be in its own Sign and others Navansa, or vice versa, the hue obtainable will be golden.

15-16. The planet in the Ascendant will be capable of giving such hue corresponding to the phenomena it is influenced by, viz. Parigha, rainbow, cloud, Parivesh etc. Otherwise, the planet will give the hue due to its nature alone.

17-18. If the Ascendant has in it a bird decanate (the first ones of Aquarius and Leo and the second ones of Gemini and Libra), or a Movable Navansa (Aries Navansa and the Navansas angular thereof), or Gemini Navansa/Virgo Navansa and be in aspect to Saturn birds residing on lands will be born. In a similar case, the aspect of the Moon denotes births of birds dwelling in water. If a water resorting Sign be on the Ascendant in aspect to a strong planet, birds related to water will be born. Similarly land-resorting Signs in aspect to strong planets indicate birds of land. The hue of the bird will correspond to the planet concerned.

19. Birth of trees is indicated, if the Ascendant, Sun, Jupiter and the Moon are devoid of strength, while others are with strength. Land resorting Signs in the Ascendant indicate trees growing on land, while water resorting Signs indicate plants etc. coming out of water.

20-21. If the Lord of rising Navansa be the Sun, trees (or plants in this context) with hard, or strong trunk/stem will be born. The Moon denotes ones milky and soft; Jupiter fruitful, Mars bitter and thorny, Saturn unproductive and useless (to mankind); Venus the ones yielding flowers and Mercury unfruitful.

22-23. If the said Lord of Ascendant in Navansa be a natural malefic being in the company of a benefic, a sub-standard tree on excellent land is denoted, while in the case of a benefic being Ascendant Lord in Navansa and being in the company of a malefic, the reverse is true i.e., an excellent tree on waste land. If there is a mix in the above planetary description, both the land and the born will be of a mixed nature Watery planets indicate plants growing in water, while land-resorters denote trees etc. growing on earth.

24. Note how many Signs away is the Navansa Lagna Lord from the ascending Sign. So many will be the trees in number to be born. Similarly infer by the number denoted between Navansa Ascendant and the planets Navansa position.

25-26. Manifold birth is indicated, if benefics are in their own Navansa being bereft of strength, while malefics with strength are in their own/other malefics Navansas. Such birth is destroyed, if the said Navansa Lord occupies a weak planets Sign, is defeated in planetary war, conjunct with, or aspected by a malefic.

21. Explained now is four kinds of manifold births, viz. those born of seeds (like plant, tree etc.), those born of womb (like quadrupeds etc.), those born in dirty places (like mosquitoes etc.) and those born of eggs (snakes, birds and the like). These are based on planetary Yogas etc. at birth.
28-29. A quadruped is born, if the Sun is in a quadruped Sign, while a weak planet is in a weak Sign. I have explained the relative rules in a brief and general manner. Now told are something surprising (more interesting) and detailed.

30-35. Should the Sun, the Moon and the Ascendant be strong in a Dwadasamsa related to a Viyoní Sign, the birth will correspond to such Dwadasamsa. If the Moon is in Aries Dwadasamsa in Aries Ascendant, birth of goats, rams etc., will take place. The other Dwadasamsas related to Aries Ascendant will give following effects: Taurus cow, buffalo; Gemini akin to a human being (like monkey, ape etc.); Cancer crab, tortoise etc., Leo tiger etc., Virgo human beings; Libra resembling human beings, Scorpio snakes etc. Sagittarius asses, horses etc., Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces Crocodile/human?being/fish etc. Similarly one can guess about trees, grass etc. Just as the various Dwadasamsas of Aries have been described, the effects for other Signs can also be understood.

36-37. The Dwadasamsa effects of the manifold births will depend on the first Dwadasamsa of a Sign and the remaining Dwadasamsa should be understood based on the first division cited. Just as a Dual Rasi with male Navansa causing birth of twins in the case of human beings, in the case of other births male planets in the first Dwadasamsa being in Dual Sign etc., the number of births be decided.

38-40. In case of a living being yielding multiples at a time (like snake, hen, bitch etc.) the number of births will depend on Dwadasamsas past. Male/female should be decided by the Dwadasamsas distributed in such Signs. If the Ascendant is tenanted by the Moon/Saturn/Mercury, tortoises etc. will yield such number equaling the Dwadasamsas elapsed. Venus, Mars, Moon, or Saturn being with strength will denote Sattva, Rajas and TamoGunas of the births according to the Amsas.

41. If a (qualified) planet occupies other Navansas than of its own, the birth will be unnatural.

42-44. Should Scorpio ascend with a biped Navansa birth of snakes, rats, insects, mongoose, scorpions, snakes without poison, deer, cows etc. will take place.

45-46. The divisions of Sagittarius with aspect from Jupiter denote birth of horses, asses, camels, buffaloes etc.

47-48. Capricorn and its divisions indicate birth of forest animals, like tiger, rhinoceros, swine, wolf elephants (Sarabha apart from meaning an elephant also denotes a fabulous 8 legged animal said to be stronger than even a lion), eagles and the like.

49. Pisces (and its divisions) enjoying Jupiters aspect relates to creatures living in deep waters, like giant fish, whale etc.

50. Aries (and its divisions) with the aspect of Mars portends births of goat, ram etc., while Taurus (and its divisions) with aspect from Venus denotes cow, bull, buffalo etc.

51. Thus have to be deduced the possibilities of births of the various creatures depending on the rising Sign with aspect of its own Lord and the divisions of the rising Sign.
52. If a Sign resorting to towns/villages (like Gemini) Ascendant with Navansa of Leo/Scorpio/Capricorn, such animals, though wild, as bred in villages, or townships (like elephant, bear etc.) will take their birth.

53. In the process, Navansas of land-resorting Signs will indicate births of animals moving on land and water-resorting Signs, animals/creatures dwelling in water.

54. If Libra be the Ascendant in aspect to Venus, a decanate of Libra denotes birth of parrots, flaming, partridge etc.

55. Peacock, cock/hen, francoline partridge, turtledove and birds living on (only) rain drops, are born, if Leo rises with Suns aspect and with various own divisions.

56. If a Fixed Sign with aspect to Saturn obtaining various divisions of the same classifications rises, births of temples, houses, choultries etc. begin. The colour, structure etc. will have to be guessed with the help ofaspecting planets, as explained earlier.

Thus ends the 55th Ch. entitled Manifold Births in Kalyana Varmas Saravali.
